Ecological Solidarities Krista E. Hughes, Dhawn B. Martin, Elaine Padilla, 2019-10-30 Operating on the premise that our failure to recognize our interconnected relationship to the rest of the cosmos is the origin of planetary peril this volume presents academic activist and artistic perspectives on how to inspire reflection and motivate action in order to construct alternative frameworks and establish novel solidarities for the sake of our planetary home The selections in this volume explore ecologies of interdependence as a frame for religious theological and philosophical analysis and practice Contributors examine questions of justice climate change race class gender and coloniality and discuss alternative ways of engaging the world in all its biodiversity Each essay poem reflection and piece of art contributes to and reflects upon how to live out entangled differences toward positive global change Constructive and practical global and local communal and personal Ecological Solidarities is an innovative contribution to the discourses on relational and liberative thought and practice in religion philosophy and theology It will be welcomed by scholars of World Christianity and theology as well as seminary students activists and laity interested in issues of justice and ecology

Theatres of Compost Abby Schroering, 2025-06-30 Theatres of Compost places ecology at the center of performance scholarship and criticism and it positions performance as a key cultural process for bringing about a more just and sustainable future Examining a unique archive of agricultural performances plays theatre collectives and activist rituals that engage questions of how humans use the land and produce food this book lays out a framework for how theatre and performance contribute to a cultural shift toward ecological awareness Theatre of compost is performance that directly engages ideologies of exploitation mass production and accumulation Instead of discarding the forms themes methodologies and histories that have perpetuated ecological destruction the case studies in this book show that what has come before can be composted broken down and reconstituted as the fertile foundation for a more livable life in the Anthropocene Theatres of Compost will appeal to the new but quickly growing subfield of performance and ecology As the climate and ecological crises worsen more scholars and students in theatre and performance will be searching for ways to make their work meaningful and relevant This book will be a helpful resource for graduate level courses in performance studies performance and ecology and the environmental humanities

Environmental and Ecological Sustainability Through Indigenous Traditions Binay Kumar Pattnaik, 2024-07-26 This book explores the environmental and ecological wisdom inherent in some of the indigenous traditions of traditional communities from developing societies like Argentina Brazil India Mexico Sri Lanka and Thailand It throws light on how these discrete and unrecognized traditions have enabled communities to live in harmony with nature for ages Despite the best efforts of the modern states through policy making intensive R D for eco friendly technologies and products social and environmental impact assessment studies SEIAS and cost benefit analysis CBA of projects environmental and ecological degradation continues mostly in developing societies which house large number of traditional communities

This book explores their traditions consisting of world views or cosmologies eco savvy customs indigenous knowledge systems involving community based occupations and practices skills and crafts and so on This book shows that when interpreted in consonance with scientific environmentalism these traditions reveal their inbuilt environmental wisdom mirroring sacredness of nature that have instilled built in conservation practices are key to sustainability The conception of indigenous traditions that subsume environmental and ecological sustainability as well as cultural identity is studied in the book from the vantage of multi disciplinary perspectives This book reflects two streams of thought i stream of social anthropology arguing for the inbuilt strength of indigenous traditions that necessitate empathetic understanding with their own rights for recognition and survival and ii stream of indigenous knowledge systems being technically effective only necessitate validation and certification by modern scientific knowledge system for wider use The book is of great use to policy makers and non government players in addition to researchers and academicians working in the area of sustainable development and indigenous traditional communities

Awakening Spirits Richard Reading, Brian Miller, Amy Masching, Rob Edward, Michael Phillips, 2010-06-01 This illustrated collection offers fascinating insight on restoring the wolf population to the Southern Rockies Detailed reports by wildlife biologists geographers legal and policy experts and conservationists provide a comprehensive look at not only the ecological imperatives but also the history legal framework and public attitudes affecting the future of wolves

Ecological Revolutions Carolyn Merchant, 2010 With the arrival of European explorers and settlers during the seventeenth century Native American ways of life and the environment itself underwent radical alterations as human relationships to the land and ways of thinking about nature all changed Thi

Life as Spirit Keith Ka-fu Chan, 2018-08-21 Paul Tillich is exceptional in modern theologians that his distinctive and abundant understanding of the concept of life and spirit has the potential to engage with other disciplines such as biology psychology cosmology and social science and that his ontological understanding of life as spirit which is so crucial in the ecological consideration is so complex and subtle that enables powerful and critical inter religious dialogue in environmental ethics This book argues that despite the fact that Tillich did not engage in ecological and environmental theology directly his abundant personal experience of nature mysticism and intellectual understanding of the idea of nature rooted in his Lutheran and German idealist heritages and more importantly his ontological pneumatological holistic and multi dimensional conception of unifying and differentiated reality perfectly and organically coupled with the theonomous vision of theology of culture nature and morality is profoundly ecologically oriented

Rhythm, Ancestrality and Spirit in Maracatu de Nação and Candomblé Lizzie Ogle, 2024-06-18 Rhythm Ancestrality and Spirit in Maracatu de Na o and Candombl Repercussions examines how the highly percussive carnival practice of Maracatu de na o an Afro Brazilian musical and spiritual tradition originating in the north eastern state of Pernambuco has evolved in relation to the cosmology of Candombl Nag in the urban centres of Recife and Olinda Brazil Offering one of the first detailed ethnographic explorations into maracatu de na o Candombl Nag and the connections between them this book is a collaborative enquiry into frequently negated sacred and ancestral knowledge systems central to Afro Brazilian musical spiritual practices Using an innovative research framework which integrates musical and rhythmic practices with spiritual ancestral and ecological knowledge systems readers are provided with an intimate ethnography based on eight years of friendship and learning with the oldest continuously active maracatu group in the world Na o Le o Coroado and its most recent leader Mestre Afonso Aguiar 1948 2018 This is a valuable text for those interested in ethnomusicology performance studies religious and cultural anthropology decolonial research methods and writing styles eco musicology and Afro diasporic Brazilian and Latin American studies Kayapó Ethnoecology and Culture

Darrell A. Posey, 2003-09-02 This provocative selection of the late Darrell A Posey's work concentrates on the dispersal and threatened extinction of the famous Brazilian indigenous people the Kayapó The Ecological Era and Classical Chinese Naturalism Shuyuan Lu, 2016-11-25 Reflecting the currently growing eco movement this book presents to western readers Tao Yuanming an ancient Chinese poet as a representative of classical oriental natural philosophy who offered lived experience of dwelling poetically on earth Drawing on Derrida's specter theory it interprets Tao Yuanming in a postmodern and eco critical context while also exploring his naturalist kindred spirits in other countries so as to urge the people of today to contemplate their own existence and pursuits The book's panoramic table of contents offers readers a wonderful reading experience Religion, Space, and the Environment Sigurd Bergmann, 2014-02-04 Religions often nurture important skills that help believers locate themselves in the world Religious perceptions practices emotions and beliefs are closely interwoven with the environments from which they emerge Sigurd Bergmann's driving emphasis here is to explore religion not in relation to but as a part of the spatiality and movement within the environment from which it arises and is nurtured Religion Space and the Environment emerges from the author's experiences in different places and continents over the past decade At the book's heart lie the questions of how space place and religion amalgamate and how lived space and lived religion influence each other Bergmann explores how religion and the memory of our past impact our lives in urban spaces how the sacred geographies in Mayan and northeast Asian lands compare to modern eco spirituality and how human images and practices of moving in with and through the land are interwoven with the processes of colonization and sacralizing and the practices of power and visions of the sacred among other topics Valuing Ecosystem Services

National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Water Science and Technology Board, Committee on Assessing and Valuing the Services of Aquatic and Related Terrestrial Ecosystems, 2005-05-14 Nutrient recycling habitat for plants and animals flood control and water supply are among the many beneficial services provided by aquatic ecosystems In making decisions about human activities such as draining a wetland for a housing development it is essential to consider both the value of the development and the value of the ecosystem services that could be lost Despite a growing recognition of the importance of ecosystem services their value is often overlooked in environmental decision making This report identifies methods for assigning economic value to ecosystem services even intangible ones and calls for greater collaboration between ecologists and economists in such efforts

The Spirit of Sustainability Willis Jenkins, Whitney Bauman, 2009-11-01 The Spirit of Sustainability helps readers navigate the moral worlds and ethical concepts and social and religious practices related to sustainability In collaboration with the Forum on Religion and Ecology an established network of leading scholars it explores a wide range of topics and perspectives from the promise and problems of approaching sustainability through global and indigenous religions to major theories in philosophy and environmental ethics and professional practices and social movements This volume presents the various goals of sustainability ecological integrity economic health human dignity fairness to the future and social justice and provides a framework for reasoning through many interrelated environmental challenges for both current and future generations

Ecological Politics John Rensenbrink, 2016-11-21 Rejection of politics is deep and widespread Even sincere and responsible individuals who practice it hold their nose while doing so Yet politics must be practiced and well if the planet and the people are to survive A clue for our future success as a species lies in the fact that ecology has never really been tried in politics Yet ecology holds the secret of success for planet and people precisely in politics Deep in ecology is the astounding fact scientifically examined and attested to that we are already related Though taught by elite after elite that we are separate from nature and thus from everyone and everything this can now be seen as the great mistake and a perpetuated lie from generation to generation A new ontology of being related is the gateway of consciousness to a new and exciting politics for survival and democracy Waves of transformation lap at barriers in the political sphere But they are repulsed by an entrenched politics rooted not only in the greed and power hunger of a dominant few or in outmoded structures of economic and political power but in the old millennial ontology of being separate Our extraordinary times call for a new political party animated by the ecology of being related It is a party of a different kind one that frees itself from giant worldwide corporations is fully and overtly dedicated to non violence and rooted in the awareness that the people come first This party knows that elections must be fair and equal and must enable undistorted dialogue and that people in government must not only proclaim but practice the principle of being of for and by the people This book challenges The Green Party now on a footing in over 100 countries to be this party of a different kind

Jürgen Moltmann's Ethics of Hope Timothy Harvie, 2016-05-06 This book develops a thorough account of the sphere of human moral action in sustained dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann By examining God's role as promise giver particularly in the Christian understanding of resurrection this work describes the occupancy of both history and space in moral terms This leads to an understanding of Jesus' description of the kingdom of God to feature prominently in describing both the possibility and content of human moral action By offering an account of each of the main doctrines found in Moltmann's corpus the role of the future the Trinity the Holy Spirit and anthropology this book locates how each contributes to the understanding of ethics from a Christian perspective and subsequently applies these findings to the contemporary issue of poverty and global economics      Symposium on Ecological Restoration ,1994      Realizing the Ecological University Ronald Barnett,2024-08-22 The ecological university takes its interconnectedness with the world seriously This is challenging for the world is in difficulty and is shot through with antagonism The university is partly culpable for those difficulties and so has responsibilities towards the world Realizing the Ecological University spells out this thesis by charting the university's entanglements with eight ecosystems knowledge learning persons social institutions culture the economy the polity and nature The book identifies ways in which each of the eight ecosystems is impaired and points to possibilities through which universities can help in repairing those ecosystems This book also sets out broad principles in helping to realize the ecological university in each of the eight ecosystems Wearing his scholarship lightly Ronald Barnett draws widely from philosophy social theory comparative higher education and ethics and advances a particular form of the philosophy of higher education at once realist societal critical worldly and Earthly Written with wit and lots of examples actual and fictional the text has a compelling vibrancy made manifest in its concluding Manifesto      Introduction to Landscape Design John L. Motloch,2000-08-25 Outstanding explorations of design concepts principles and processes This Second Edition of Introduction to Landscape Design offers even broader coverage of the environmental human technological and aesthetic issues associated with landscape design than the first edition Beginning with the way we perceive manage and design the landscape it moves on to explore the forces that influence land design An overview of landscape management planning and design includes a discussion of the roles and integration of the professions involved modes of professional practice and site scale design processes The book explores the ecology of design and the integration of land design decisions into dynamic systems This fully updated new edition Presents landscape design as a synergism of art and science Addresses the interplay between buildings and sites Provides insights into the breadth of people environment relationships Places special emphasis on our growing understanding of interrelationships between the landscape and human decisions A superb introduction for students as well as a useful reference for practicing professionals this book is an excellent guide for anyone who wants to develop a better understanding of landscape design
