Hollywood's Embassies Ross Melnick, 2022-04-26 Winner 2022 Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association Beginning in the 1920s audiences around the globe were seduced not only by Hollywood films but also by lavish movie theaters that were owned and operated by the major American film companies These theaters aimed to provide a quintessentially American experience Outfitted with American technology and accoutrements they allowed local audiences to watch American films in an American owned cinema in a distinctly

American way In a history that stretches from Buenos Aires and Tokyo to Johannesburg and Cairo Ross Melnick considers these movie houses as cultural embassies He examines how the exhibition of Hollywood films became a constant flow of political and consumerist messaging selling American ideas products and power especially during fractious eras Melnick demonstrates that while Hollywood s marketing of luxury and consumption often struck a chord with local audiences it was also frequently tone deaf to new social cultural racial and political movements He argues that the story of Hollywood s global cinemas is not a simple narrative of cultural and industrial indoctrination and colonization Instead it is one of negotiation booms and busts successes and failures adoptions and rejections and a precursor to later conflicts over the spread of American consumer culture A truly global account Hollywood s Embassies shows how the entanglement of worldwide movie theaters with American empire offers a new way of understanding film history and the history of U S soft power

TransGothic in Literature and Culture Jolene Zigarovich, 2017-09-08 This book contributes to an emerging field of study and provides new perspectives on the ways in which Gothic literature visual media and other cultural forms explicitly engage gender sexuality form and genre The collection is a forum in which the ideas of several well respected critics converge producing a breadth of knowledge and a diversity of subject areas and methodologies It is concerned with several questions including How can we discuss Gothic as a genre that crosses over boundaries constructed by a culture to define and contain gender and sexuality How do transgender bodies specifically mark or disrupt this boundary crossing In what ways does the Gothic open up a plural narrative space for transgenre explorations encounters and experimentation With this the volume s chapters explore expected categories such as transgenders transbodies and transembodiments but also broader concepts that move through and beyond the limits of gender identity and sexuality such as transhistories transpolitics transmodalities and transgenres Illuminating such areas as the appropriation of the trans body in Gothic literature and film the function of trans rhetorics in memoir textual markers of transgenderism and the Gothic s transgeneric qualities the chapters offer innovative but not limited ways to interpret the Gothic In addition the book intersects with but also troubles non trans feminist and queer readings of the Gothic Together these diverse approaches engage the Gothic as a definitively trans subject and offer new and exciting connections and insights into Gothic Media Film Narrative and Gender and Sexuality Studies      Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee Carruthers, Charles Tepperman, 2023-01-15 At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive      A Companion to Ingmar Bergman Daniel Humphrey, Hamish Ford, 2025-02-25 The first book in English to address Ingmar Bergman s cinema through a broad array of classical and contemporary approaches Widely acclaimed around the world from the mid 1950s to the early 1980s Ingmar Bergman s films were often considered outmoded by the turn of the last century as exemplars of a long gone European art cinema However in more recent years his work has been reconsidered with fresh eyes recognized as speaking to global audiences about ideas of contemporary relevance such as the dysfunctions of personal romantic and family relations gender performance and sexual identity social engagement and alienation questions of racial difference and power living with and articulating challenges to mental health and the causes thereof questions of religious belief or values and their secular replacements the reality and guilt of Scandinavian and European privilege and the challenges of morally vertiginous daily life for subjects born of ever later modernity A Companion to Ingmar Bergman brings together 32 original essays by established scholars and exciting new voices in the field Representing a uniquely wide range of approaches in academic film studies and beyond the chapters that make up the volume illuminate a body of work that changed the way cinema is created defined experienced understood and interpreted Thematically organized into four parts the Companion discusses gender exploration and self representation in Bergman s cinema draws evolutionary insights from The Seventh Seal explores existential feelings and religious iconography in the early 1960s trilogy journeys through the filmmaker s island landscape in the context of cinematic tourism and much more Throughout the book hailing from a range of global contexts and backgrounds the authors provide fresh insights into a
