First Dynasty Of Islam:

The First Dynasty of Islam G. R Hawting, 2002-01-04 Gerald Hawting s book has long been acknowledged as the standard introductory survey of this complex period in Arab and Islamic history Now it is once more made available with the addition of a new introduction by the author which examines recent significant contributions to scholarship in the field It is certain to be welcomed by students and academics alike The First Dynasty of Islam Gerald R. Hawting, 1986-01 Historical Perspective Alexander Knysh, 2016-10-26 Islam in Historical Perspective provides readers with an introduction to Islam Islamic history and societies with carefully selected historical and scriptural evidence that enables them to form a comprehensive and balanced vision of Islam's rise and evolution across the centuries and up to the present day Combining historical and chronological approaches the book examines intellectual dialogues and socio political struggles within the extraordinary rich Islamic tradition Treating Islam as a social and political force the book also addresses Muslim devotional practices artistic creativity and the structures of everyday existence Islam in Historical Perspective is designed to help readers to develop personal empathy for the subject by relating it to their own experiences and burning issues of today It contains a wealth of historical anecdotes and quotations from original sources that are intended to emphasize its principal points in a memorable way This new edition features a thoroughly revised and updated text new illustrations expanded study guestions and chapter summaries A History of the Islamic World, 600-1800 To Van Steenbergen, 2020-08-11 A History of the Islamic World 600 1800 supplies a fresh and unique survey of the formation of the Islamic world and the key developments that characterize this broad region s history from late antiquity up to the beginning of the modern era Containing two chronological parts and fourteen chapters this impressive overview explains how different tides in Islamic history washed ashore diverse sets of leadership groups multiple practices of power and authority and dynamic imperial and dynastic discourses in a theocratic age A text that transcends many of today s popular stereotypes of the premodern Islamic past the volume takes a holistically and theoretically informed approach for understanding interpreting and teaching premodern history of Islamic West Asia Jo Van Steenbergen identifies the Asian connectedness of the sociocultural landscapes between the Nile in the southwest to the Bosporus in the northwest and the Oxus Amu Darya and Jaxartes Syr Darya in the northeast to the Indus in the southeast This abundantly illustrated book also offers maps and dynastic tables enabling students to gain an informed understanding of this broad region of the world This book is an essential text for undergraduate classes on Islamic History Medieval and Early Modern History Middle East Studies and Religious History

Arabs in the Early Islamic Empire Brian Ulrich,2019-05-09 Examining a single broad tribal identity al Azd from the immediate pre Islamic period into the early Abbasid era this book notes the ways it was continually refashioned over that time It explores the ways in which the rise of the early Islamic empire influenced the peoples of the Arabian Peninsula who became a core part of it and examines the connections between the kinship societies and the developing state of the early

caliphate This helps us to understand how what are often called tribal forms of social organisation identity conditioned its growth and helped shape what became its common elite culture Studying the relationship between tribe and state during the first two centuries of the caliphate author Brian Ulrich's focus is on understanding the survival and transformation of tribal identity until it became part of the literate high culture of the Abbasid caliphate and a component of a larger Arab ethnic identity He argues that from pre Islamic Arabia to the caliphate greater continuity existed between tribal identity and social practice than is generally portrayed Power, Patronage, and Memory in Early Islam Alain George, Andrew Marsham, 2018 When the Umayyads the first Islamic dynasty rose to power shortly after the death of the Prophet Muhammad d 632 the polity of which they assumed control had only recently expanded out of Arabia into the Roman eastern Mediterranean Iraq and Iran A century later by the time of their downfall in 750 the last Umayyad caliphs governed the largest empire that the world had seen stretching from Spain in the West to the Indus valley and Central Asia in the East By then their dynasty and the ruling circles around it had articulated with increasing clarity the public face of the new monotheistic religion of Islam created major masterpieces of world art and architecture some of which still stand today and built a state apparatus that was crucial to ensuring the continuity of the Islamic polity Within the vast lands under their control the Umayyads and their allies ruled over a mosaic of peoples languages and faiths first among them Christianity Judaism and the Ancient religion of Iran Zoroastrianism The Umayyad period is profoundly different from ours yet it also resonates with modern concerns from the origins of Islam to dynamics of cultural exchange Editors Alain George and Andrew Marsham bring together a collection of essays that shed new light on this crucial period Power Patronage and Memory in Early Islam elucidates the ways in which Umayyad lites fashioned and projected their self image and how these articulations in turn mirrored their own times The authors combining perspectives from different disciplines present new material evidence introduce fresh perspectives about key themes and monuments and revisit the nature of the historical writing that shaped our knowledge of this period God's Crucible: Islam and the Making of Europe, 570-1215 David Levering Lewis, 2009-01-12 From the two time Pulitzer Prize winning author God's Crucible brings to life a furiously complex age New York Times Book Review Resonating as profoundly today as when it was first published to widespread critical acclaim a decade ago God's Crucible is a bold portrait of Islamic Spain and the birth of modern Europe from one of our greatest historians David Levering Lewis s narrative filled with accounts of some of the most epic battles in world history reveals how cosmopolitan Muslim al Andalus flourished a beacon of cooperation and tolerance while proto Europe floundered in opposition to Islam making virtues out of hereditary aristocracy religious intolerance perpetual war and slavery This masterful history begins with the fall of the Persian and Roman empires followed by the rise of the prophet Muhammad and five centuries of engagement between the Muslim imperium and an emerging Europe Essential and urgent God's Crucible underscores the importance of these early world altering events whose influence remains as current as today s headlines

The Rise of the Fatimids Brett, 2021-10-01 The book traces the rise of the Fatimid dynasty in the 4th century AH 10th century CE from its origins in Islamic messianism to power in North Africa and Egypt and a central position of influence throughout the Muslim world The first part deals with the problem of Fatimid origins the second with the establishment of the dynasty and its religious and political programme in North Africa the third with the success of that programme in Egypt Using the history of the Fatimids and their doctrine to survey the world of the Mediterranean and the Middle East in the 4th 10th century the book offers a new interpretation of the role of the dynasty in the history of Islam down to the period of the From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt Maged S. A. Mikhail, 2014-08-25 The conguest of Egypt by Islamic armies under the command of Amr ibn al As in the seventh century transformed medieval Egyptian society Seeking to uncover the broader cultural changes of the period by drawing on a wide array of literary and documentary sources Maged Mikhail stresses the cultural and institutional developments that punctuated the histories of Christians and Muslims in the province under early Islamic rule From Byzantine to Islamic Egypt traces how the largely agrarian Egyptian society responded to the influx of Arabic and Islam the means by which the Coptic Church constructed its sectarian identity the Islamisation of the administrative classes and how these factors converged to create a new medieval society. The result is a fascinating and essential study for scholars of Byzantine and early Islamic Egypt A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This third edition of Ira M Lapidus s classic A History of Islamic Societies has been substantially revised to incorporate the insights of new scholarship and updated to include historical developments in the first decade of the twenty first century Lapidus s history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam s worldwide diffusion to Africa Spain Turkey and the Balkans Central South and Southeast Asia and North America situating Islamic societies within their global political and economic contexts It accounts for the impact of European imperialism on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present This book is essential for readers seeking to understand Muslim peoples Architecture Barnabas Calder, 2021-07-01 A groundbreaking history of architecture told through Publisher information the relationship between buildings and energy The story of architecture is the story of humanity The buildings we live in from the humblest pre historic huts to today s skyscrapers reveal our priorities and ambitions our family structures and power structures And to an extent that hasn t been explored until now architecture has been shaped in every era by our access to energy from fire to farming to fossil fuels In this ground breaking history of world architecture Barnabas Calder takes us on a dazzling tour of some of the most astonishing buildings of the past fifteen thousand years from Uruk via Ancient Rome and Victorian Liverpool to China's booming megacities He reveals how every building from the Parthenon to the Great Mosque of Damascus to a typical Georgian house was influenced by the energy available to its architects and why this matters Today architecture consumes so much energy that 40% of the world's greenhouse gas emissions come from the construction and running of buildings If we are to avoid catastrophic climate change then now more than ever we need beautiful but also intelligent buildings and to retrofit not demolish those that remain Both a celebration of human ingenuity and a passionate call for greater sustainability this is a history of architecture for our times Modern Hadith Studies Belal Abu-Alabbas, 2020-07-31 This book examines the various methods and trends in Hadith Studies across the globe Bringing together contributions from 10 scholars of Hadith it addresses the subject from a variety of methodological vantage points Frontiers of Islamic Art and Architecture Gülru Necipoğlu, Julia Bailey, 2008 Mugarnas is and historical premises sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts In Mugarnas articles are being published on all aspects of Islamic visual culture historical and contemporary as well as articles dealing with unpublished textual primary sources M. E. McMillam, 2011-12-05 The hajj the fifth pillar of Islam is a religious duty to be performed once in a lifetime by all Muslims who are able The Prophet Muhammad set out the rituals of hajj when he led what became known as the Farewell Hajj in 10 AH 632AD This set the seal on Muhammad's career as the founder of a religion and the leader of a political entity based on that religion The convergence of the Prophet with the politician infuses the hajj with political as well as religious significance For the caliphs who led the Islamic community after Muhammad's death leadership of the hajj became a position of enormous political relevance as it presented them with an unrivalled opportunity to proclaim their pious credentials and reinforce their political legitimacy Exhaustively researched The Meaning of Mecca is the first study to analyse the leadership of the hajj in the formative and medieval periods and to assess the political subtext of Islam's most high profile religious Government Leaders, Military Rulers and Political Activists David W. Del Testa, 2014-01-27 In each volume an ritual introductory essay outlines of history of the disciplines under discussion and describes how changes and innovations in these disciplines have affected our lives The biographies that follow are organized in an A Z format each biography is divided into a life section describing the individual s life and influences and a legacy section summarizing the impact of that individual s work throughout history These biographies cover a diverse group of men and women from around the globe and throughout history Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mao Tse tung and Genghis Khan are among the 200 well known historical figures included in this volume Examples of other lesser known yet important individuals covered in this work are Gustavas Adolphus Swedish empire creator Hatshepsut queen of ancient Egyptian dynasty and Jean Jaur's French socialist leader and pacifist Each synopsis provides information on each individual s enduring impact on the common understanding of fundamental themes of Arab Conquests and Early Islamic Historiography Ryan J. Lynch, 2019-11-14 Winner of the 2021 human existence Southeast Regional Middle East and Islamic Studies Society Book Prize Of the available sources for Islamic history between the seventh and eighth centuries CE few are of greater importance than al Baladhuri's Kitab Futuh al buldan The Book of the Conquest of Lands Written in Arabic by a ninth century Muslim scholar working at the court of the Abbasid caliphs the Futuh s content covers many important matters at the beginning of Islamic history It informs its audience of the major events of the early Islamic conquests the settlement of Muslims in the conquered territories and their experiences therein and the origins and development of the early Islamic state Questions over the text's construction purpose and reception however have largely been ignored in current scholarship This is despite both the text's important historical material and its crucial early date of creation It has become commonplace for researchers to turn to the Futuh for information on a specific location or topic but to ignore the grander and in many ways more straightforward questions over the text s creation and limitations This book looks to correct these gaps in knowledge by investigating the context form construction content and early reception history of al Baladhuri s text The Routledge Handbook of Muslim Iberia Maribel Fierro, 2020-04-22 This handbook offers an overview of the main issues regarding the political economic social religious intellectual and artistic history of the Iberian Peninsula during the period of Muslim rule eighth fifteenth centuries A comprehensive list of primary and secondary sources attests the vitality of the academic study of al Andalus Muslim Iberia and its place in present day discussions about the past and the present The contributors are all specialists with diverse backgrounds providing different perspectives and approaches The volume includes chapters dealing with the destiny of the Muslim population after the Christian conquest and with the posterity of al Andalus in art literature and different historiographical traditions. The chapters are organised in the following sections Political history concentrating on rulers and armies Social religious and economic groups Intellectual and cultural developments Legacy and memory of al Andalus Offering a synthetic and updated academic treatment of the history and society of Muslim Iberia this comprehensive and up to date collection provides an authoritative and interdisciplinary guide It is a valuable resource for both specialists and the general public interested in the history of the Iberian Peninsula Islamic and Medieval studies Rulers as Authors in the Islamic World ,2024-02-06 How widespread was authorship among rulers in the premodern Islamic world The writings of different types of rulers in different regions and periods are analyzed in this book from the early centuries in the central lands of Islam to 19th century Sudan The composition of poetry appears as the most fertile area for authorship among rulers Prose writings show a wide variety from astrology to bookmaking from autobiography to creeds Some of the rulers made claims to special knowledge but in all cases authorship played a special role in the construction of the rulers authority and legitimacy Contributors Ahmed Ibrahim Abushouk Sean W Anthony Mar a Luisa vila Teresa Bernheimer Philip Bockholt Sonja Brentjes Christiane Czygan David Durand Gu dy Anne Marie Edd Sinem Ery lmaz Maribel Fierro Adam Gaiser Angelika Hartmann Livnat Holtzman Maher Jarrar Robert S Kramer Christian Mauder Matthew Melvin Koushki Letizia Osti J rgen Paul Petra Schmidl Tilman Seidensticker Medieval Islamic Civilization: L-Z, index Josef W. Meri,2006 Publisher description The Articulation of Early Islamic State Structures Fred M. Donner, 2017-05-15 This volume reprints nineteen articles that deal with the formation of the first Islamic state under the rightly guided and Umayyad caliphs 632 750 CE The articles five of which originally appeared in languages other than English and are translated here trace the crystallization of key institutions of the growing empire and treat such fundamental issues as taxation military institutions administrative organization and practices the barid or official courier and intelligence service succession the ruling elites and their income and questions of legitimation The volume includes an introduction by the editor that offers an overview of the processes involved and helps place each article in its proper context It also offers an extensive bibliography of further works relevant to the theme of the volume
