Rethinking Mission in the Postcolony Marion Grau, 2011-09-01 Varieties of friendship Bernadette Descharmes, Eric Anton Heuser, Caroline Krüger, Thomas Loy, 2011-05-18 Nahbeziehungen die über familiäre und verwandtschaftliche Bindungen hinausgehen haben sich zu einem vielbeachteten Thema interdisziplinärer Forschung entwickelt Beziehungen wie Freundschaft Patronage und soziale Netzwerke als Variationen sozialer Bindungen

sind das Ergebnis unterschiedlicher historischer wie kultureller Kontexte und stellen deshalb einen wesentlichen aber immer noch unterrepräsentierten Gegenstand interdisziplinären Forschens dar. Fragen nach sich verändernden Freundschaftssemantiken historischen und interkulturellen bzw. politischen Praktiken von Freundschaft Patronage und Loyalität standen im Mittelpunkt einer internationalen Tagung die eine kritische Diskussion und Neubewertung von Werten und Normen die z.B. Freundschaft in verschiedenen Kulturen und historischen Epochen konstituieren sowie der sozialen Umstände die diese Nahbeziehungen bedingen vorgenommen hat. Aspekte wie Konstitution und Repräsentation von Körper und Gender und das Entstehen von Vertrauen und Betrug waren dabei ebenso von Interesse wie die kulturell und historisch unterschiedliche Praxis und Semantik von Freundschaft und Patronage sowie deren jeweilige Wahrnehmung in Abhängigkeit von ihrer gesellschaftlichen Situation in verschiedenen sozialen und historischen Kontexten. Die Ergebnisse dieser Tagung werden nun im vorliegenden Band präsentiert.

Uncommon Wealths in Postcolonial Fiction Helga Ramsey-Kurz, Melissa Kennedy, 2017-11-01 Uncommon Wealths in Postcolonial Fiction engages urgently with wealth testing current assumptions of inequality in order to push beyond reductive contemporary readings of the gaping abyss between rich and poor. Shifting away from longstanding debates in postcolonial criticism focused on poverty and abjection the book marshals fresh perspectives on material spiritual and cultural prosperity as found in the literatures of formerly colonized spaces. The chapters follow the money to illuminate postcolonial fiction's awareness of the ambiguities of wealth acquired under colonial capitalism and transmuted in contemporary neoliberalism. They weigh idealistic projections of individual and collective wellbeing against the stark realities of capital accumulation and excessive consumption. They remain alert to the polysemy suggested by Uncommon Wealths both registering the imperial economic urge to ensure common wealth and referencing the unconventional or non-Western the unusual even fictitious and contrasting privately coveted and exclusively owned wealth with visions of a shared good. Arranged into four sections centred on aesthetics injustice indigeneity and cultural location the individual chapters show how writers of postcolonial fiction including Aravind Adiga Amit Chaudhuri Anita Desai Patricia Grace Mohsin Hamid Stanley Gazemba Tomson Highway Lebogang Matseke Zakes Mda Michael Ondaatje Kim Scott and Alexis Wright employ prosperity and affluence as a lens through which to re-examine issues of race ethnicity gender and family the cultural value of heritage land and social cohesion and such conflicting imperatives as economic growth individual fulfilment social and environmental responsibility and just distribution.

Britain and the Narration of Travel in the Nineteenth Century Dr Kate Hill, 2016-01-28 Interrogating the multiple ways in which travel was narrated and mediated by and in response to nineteenth century British travelers this interdisciplinary collection examines to what extent these accounts drew on and developed existing tropes of travel The three sections take up personal and intimate narratives that were not necessarily designed for public consumption tales intended for a popular audience and accounts that were more clearly linked with discourses and institutions of power such as imperial processes of conquest and governance Some narratives focus on the things the travelers carried such as souvenirs from the battlefields of Britain's imperial wars while others show the complexity of Victorian dreams of the exotic Still others offer a disapproving glimpse of Victorian mores through the eyes of indigenous peoples in contrast to the imperialist vision of British explorers Swiss hotel registers guest books and guidebooks offer insights into the history of tourism while new photographic technologies the development of the telegraph system and train travel transformed the visual audial and even the conjugal experience of travel The contributors attend to issues of gender and ethnicity in essays on women travelers South African travel narratives and accounts of China during the Opium Wars and analyze the influence of fictional travel narratives Taken together these essays show how these multiple narratives circulated cross fertilised and reacted to one another to produce new narratives new objects and new modes of travel

Native Authenticity Deborah L. Madsen, 2012-02-01 An indispensable resource for readers students and scholars of Native literatures in North America Native Authenticity offers a clear comprehensive and systematic look at the diversity of critical approaches to the idea of Indian ness Some of the foremost transatlantic scholars of Native

Studies in North America and Europe share their insights on this highly charged aspect of the contemporary theoretical field of Native Studies. The issue of authenticity or Indian-ness generates a controversial debate in studies of indigenous American literatures. The articulation of Native identity through the prism of Euro-American attempts to confine Indian groups to essentialized spaces is resisted by some Native writers while others recognize a need for essentialist categories as a key strategy in the struggle for social justice and a perpetually renewed sense of Native sovereignty. Pressure from neo-colonial essentializing practices is in conflict with a politics of cultural sovereignty which demands a notion of Indian essence or authenticity as a foundation for community values, heritage, and social justice. Contributors participate in a scholarly and pedagogical search for an intellectual paradigm for Native literary studies that is apart from yet cognizant with powerful colonial legacies. The complex politics of Polynesian authenticity versus Native indigeneity is engaged by Native Hawaiian writers as they negotiate conflicting demands upon personal and tribal identities. Related to this questioning is the authenticity debate in Canadian First Nations writing where the claim to authenticity rests upon a claim to historical precedence; also related is the highly contentious claim by some Chicano writers to an indigenous heritage as a claim to authority and American authenticity. Essays in this volume are focused upon the diverse and sophisticated responses of Native writers and scholars while offering comparative perspectives on Native Hawaiian, Chicano, and Canadian literatures.

Fully Human Lindsey Kingston, 2019 Lindsey N. Kingston critically considers how inequalities related to citizenship and recognition impact one's ability to claim fundamental human rights. As a remedy, she proposes the ideal of functioning citizenship which requires an active and mutually beneficial relationship between the state and the individual and necessitates the opening of political space for those who cannot be neatly categorized. Ultimately, Fully Human contends that we uncover limitations built into our current international system but also begin to envision a path toward the realization of human rights norms founded on universality and inalienability.
