which they attempt to resist institutional control It is proposed that power is negotiated on a private individual level as women often resist the institution simply by trying to maintain an image of control over their own lives However their image of themselves as active reasoning agents is undermined by institutional regimes which encourage traditional passive feminine behaviour at the same time as they deny the women their identities and responsibilities as mothers wives girlfriends and sisters Femininity is therefore both the form and the goal of women s imprisonment Yet paradoxically femininity also offers the possibility of resistance because women manage to rebel by appropriating and changing aspects of it
