Islam In Sudan:

Islam in the Sudan John Spencer Trimingham, 1949 Islam, Sectarianism, and Politics in Sudan Since the Mahdiyya Gabriel Warburg, 2003 Gabriel Warburg contends that efforts in Sudan to enforce an Islamic state and an Islamic constitution on a multi religious and multi ethnic society have led to prolonged civil war endless military coups and political social and economic bankruptcy He analyzes the history of Sudan s Islamic politics to illuminate current conflicts in the region The revolt in 1881 was led by a Mahdi who came to renew and purify Islam It was in effect an uprising against a corrupt Islamic regime the largely alien Turco Egyptian ruling elite The Mahdiyya was therefore an anti colonial movement seeking to liberate Sudan from alien rule and to unify the Muslim Umma and it later evolved into the first expression of Sudanese nationalism and statehood Post independence Islamic radicalism in turn can be viewed against the background of the Anglo Egyptian Condominium 1899 1956 It also thrived as a result of the resurgence of Islam since the mid 1960s when Nasserism and other popular ideologies were swept aside Finally Sudan has emerged as the center of militancy in Sunni Islam since June 1989 when a group of radical Islamic officers under the guidance of Dr Hassan al Turabi and the NIF assumed power

M. Holt, M. W. Daly, 1979 A History of the Sudan Peter Malcolm Holt, M. W. Daly, 2000 Here is a new edition of well known introductory history of the Sudan which takes events of this troubled region up to 1998 This extended coverage considers the last years of Jaafar Nimeiri s government to his fall from power in 1985 the subsequent transitional military regime the return to parliamentary rule and the current attempts to establish an Islamic state under a renewed military regime More than a political narrative this book shows how the modern Sudan has been shaped by three key elements in its history the influence of the Ottoman Empire the impact of British domination and above all else the enduring indigenous tradition of the region produced by the intermingling of its African and Arab Muslim inheritance In Whose Image? Abdou Maligalim Simone,1994-07-15 A Muslim scholar with extensive experience in Africa T Abdou Maligalim Simone was recruited by the Islamic fundamentalist Shari a Movement in Sudan to act as consultant for its project to unite Muslims and non Muslims in Khartoum s shanty towns Based on his interviews with hundreds of individuals during this time plus extensive historical and archival research In Whose Image is a penetrating examination of the use of Islam as a tool for political transformation Drawing a detailed portrait of political fundamentalism during the 1985 89 period of democratic rule in the Sudan Simone shows how the Shari a Movement attempted to shape a viable social order by linking religious integrity and economic development where religious practice was to dominate all aspects of society and individuals daily lives However because Sudanese society is remarkably diverse ethnically and religiously this often led to conflict fragmentation and violence in the name of Islam Simone s own Islamic background leads him to deplore the violence and the devastating psychological economic and cultural consequences of one form of Islamic radicalism while holding to hope that a viable form of this inherently political religion can in fact be applied As a counterpoint he ends with a discussion of South Africa s Call of Islam which seeks political unity through a more tolerant interpretation of Islam As an introduction to religious discourse in Africa this book will be widely read by students and scholars throughout African Studies Religious Studies Anthropology and Political Science Modern Muslims Steve Howard,2016-10-26 Steve Howard departed for the Sudan in the early 1980s as an American graduate student beginning a three year journey in which he would join and live with the Republican Brotherhood the Sufi Muslim group led by the visionary Mahmoud Mohamed Taha Taha was a religious intellectual who participated in the early days of Sudan s anticolonial struggle but quickly turned his movement into a religious reform effort based on his radical reading of the Qur an He was executed in 1985 for apostasy Decades after returning to the life of an academic in the United States Howard brings us this memoir of his time with the Republican Brotherhood who advocated among other things equality for women Modern Muslims describes Howard s path to learning not only about Islam and Sufism but also about Sudan s history and culture When the Brotherhood was thrust into confrontation with Sudan s then president Jaafar Nimeiry Howard had a front line perspective on the difficult choices communities make as they try to reform and practice their faith freely As well as a story of personal transformation the book offers an insider s perspective on a modernist nonviolent Islamic movement that thrived and was brutally suppressed An important book for our times Modern Muslims yields significant insights for our understanding of modern Islam African history and contemporary geopolitics The Role of Islam in the Political Process in Sudan Sabine Putzgruber,2005-03-08 Seminar paper from the year 2003 in the subject Politics Region Africa University of Vienna Institut f r Politikwissenschaften language English abstract The following pages try to analyze the way the state of Sudan functions and to what extent Islam is influencing it. We speak of a widely unknown country and its political experiences are seldomly known to Austrians even not to students of political science. Despite of that I am not trying to introduce a country but to go directly to the state after a small showing of the political history of the state which is needed for the analyses. If we speak of Sectarian politics in Sudan we first have to define the word sect as its connotation is not only positive. As a sect a group of people which has separated from a larger group and with a particular set of religious or political beliefs which are strongly held and regarded by others as extreme is meant by definition. Sidahmed 1997: 23. In Sudanese studies the word sect refers to two groups with a religious belief network but the emphasis is laid on their political agenda and actions. In the following paper the term sect is following this emphasis and doesn't imply any judgments about religious beliefs or extremes. I don't want to meet the challenge of analyzing or even judging the rightness of secularism or political Islam. What I try to do is to show how politics in the state of Sudan function and what role Islam has played and still plays. In the same way one could analyze the United States politics and the impact of Christianity. It is clear though even if it is tried to reach that a total objectivism is not possible.

Islamic Law and Society in the Sudan Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2013-10-15. Few studies exist which deal with Islamic law in practice and this is among the first such studies in the English language for Islamic Africa. It is significant that the present study was completed just prior to the extension of Islamic law as the sole governing law in the Sudan in 1983 for it captures many essentials of the Shari'a as it has been applied for decades prior to this important change. Numerous movements for reform and change are discussed in the book which reflect the contemporary debate in the Sudan over the position of Shari'a in society.

Politics and Islam in Contemporary Sudan Abdel Salam Sidahmed, 2020-11-25. Why wasn't Islam the rallying point and battle cry of the anti-colonial movement in the Sudan? Why did the mainstream political parties and the first military regime maintain the secular political structures of the colonial state? Why did the influential parties opt for an Islamic constitution in the 1960s? Why did Nimeiry's regime change its course? This work attempts to answer these and related questions. Three key issues are addressed within the framework of the relationship between Islam, society and politics: the manifestation of Islam in the particular context of Sudanese society; the politicisation/repoliticisation of Islam and the Islamicisation of politics; and the mechanisms that influence the rise of a specific Islamicist force or enhance calls for Islamicisation.

Inside Sudan Donald Petterson, 1999-05-27. Sudan governed by an Islamic fundamentalist dictatorship has come into conflict with the United States and other countries not because of its religious orientation but because of its record of human rights abuses and support for terrorism. The country has captured the attention of many Americans, some of whom feel that something must be done to combat religious persecution throughout the world and others who are appalled that almost two million civilians have died as a consequence of Sudan's civil war. As the last American ambassador to complete an assignment based in Sudan Donald Petterson provides unique insights into how it has become what it is today The central focus of Inside Sudan is on Petterson s experiences dealing with a hostile government Petterson tells of what occurred after Sudanese security forces executed four Sudanese employees of the US government in the southern city of Juba He relates what happened to Americans in Khartoum after Washington put Sudan on the list state sponsors of terrorism He describes what he saw on his many trips into war devastated southern Sudan These unique observations and Petterson s account of his return to Sudan in late 1997 to look for openings to improve US Sudan relations provide a timely review of our relationship with a country increasingly regarded by Washington as beyond the pale The Rise of the Islamic Movement in Sudan (1945-1989) Mustafa A. Abdelwahid,2008 This work uses Social Movement Theory to explain the increased political power of Islam in Sudan Islamic Law and Society in the Sudan Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban,2013-10-15 Few studies exist which deal with Islamic law in practice and this is among the first such studies in the English language for Islamic Africa It is significant that the present study was completed just prior to the extension of Islamic law as the sole governing law in the Sudan in 1983 for it captures many essentials of the Shari a as it has been applied for decades prior to this important change Numerous movements for reform and change are discussed in the book which reflect the contemporary debate in the Sudan over the position of Shari a in society Islamic Movement in the Sudan Zakaria Bashier,1987 A brief but succinct study of the features issues and problems of the Sudanese Islamic Movement By the Author of The Makkan Crucible War and Peace In The Sudan Mansour Khalid,2012-10-12 First Published in 2003 Nearly half a century ago the first flares of Sudan s civil war were enkindled Today as the world enters a new century and a new millennium Sudan s civil war has degenerated into an inferno of carnage and destruction Sudan s war however is no different from wars elsewhere it is an entangled political cultural and social weave with equally intricate international ramifications This volume charts Sudanese s history of conflict Islam in Southern Sudan Abdalla Keri Wani,2006 Sudan Blake Evans-Pritchard,Violetta Polese,2008
