Islam Aust Peop Beliefs:

Islam and Muslims in Australia Jan A Ali, 2020-12-01 Islam has long been a part of the multicultural landscape of major urban centres in Australia and encompasses a great diversity of theological jurisprudential and cultural practices Despite this in popular discourse media presentations and political debates Muslims are represented as a homogeneous group This timely book examines the growing presence of Islam and Muslims in Australia and how it is transforming and transformed by social cultural and religious spaces Employing critical analysis and macrosociology Islam and Muslims in Australia provides valuable insights into this growth and development and illuminates how socio cultural economic and political processes maintain and manage the ways Australian Muslims build their religious lives and identities and engage in the wider world while facing the inevitable effects of modernity This book argues that Islam in different parts of the world as well as in Australia is more than just a religion a cultural system or a social structure but is a complex composite of diverse institutional processes and functions social routines and norms and sacred rituals and practices responsible for shaping the lives of Muslims This volume focuses on five broad areas of sociological analysis namely Muslim settlement Muslim integration shari ah Muslim education and global terrorism

Religion and Non-Religion among Australian Aboriginal Peoples James L. Cox, Adam Possamai, 2016-12-01 Offering a significant contribution to the emerging field of Non Religion Studies Religion and Non Religion among Australian Aboriginal Peoples draws on Australian 2011 Census statistics to ask whether the Indigenous Australian population like the wider Australian society is becoming increasingly secularised or whether there are other explanations for the surprisingly high percentage of Aboriginal people in Australia who state that they have no religion Contributors from a range of disciplines consider three central questions How do Aboriginal Australians understand or interpret what Westerners have called religion Do Aboriginal Australians distinguish being religious from being non religious How have modernity and Christianity affected Indigenous understandings of religion These questions re focus Western dominated concerns with the decline or revival of religion by incorporating how Indigenous Australians have responded to modernity how modernity has affected Indigenous peoples religious behaviours and perceptions and how variations of response can be found in rural and urban contexts

The Public Life of Australian Multiculturalism Anthony Moran, 2016-11-26 This book argues that in a globalising world in which nation states have to manage population flows and intensifying cultural diversity within their borders multicultural policy and approaches have never been more important The author takes an extended case study approach examining Australia s experiments with pragmatic forms of multiculturalism and multicultural policy since the early 1970s up to the present The Public Life of Australian Multiculturalism challenges some larger assumptions about multiculturalism either that it undermines national identity or that it is and should strive to be a post national approach to identity issues Instead it argues that framing multiculturalism by inclusive national identity has been the key to multiculturalism s continuity and general success in Australia The book also directly challenges the claim that we have entered a post multicultural world making a case instead for the continuing relevance of pragmatic approaches to multiculturalism Students and scholars researching in sociology politics migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies nationalism and identity studies will find this study of interest Australian Sociology David Holmes, Kate Hughes, Roberta Julian, 2014-09-01 Australian Sociology 4e provides a concise and current introduction to the field of Sociology through an analysis of Australian society In doing so it draws on a diverse range of perspectives as well as a myriad of topics that go to issues at the core of Australian social life Our ever changing society presents continuing challenges to sociological analysis This new edition of Australian Sociology sets out to document these many changes while retaining an organised analysis required of an introductory overview of Australian society

Muslims in the West and the Challenges of Belonging Fethi Mansouri, Vince Marotta, 2012-01-02 Sensational reporting by the media has led to attitudes that racialise Muslims and frame them as potential threats to national security placing them outside the circle of trustworthy citizenship Muslims in the West are increasingly confronted with the pressure of conforming to dominant core values and accepting mere tolerance from society or else risk exclusion and even hostility when exercising their rights to maintain diverse cultural norms and religious practices Muslims in the West and the Challenges of Belonging offers not only rigorous accounts of current difficulties but also new thinking and deeper understanding about race relations and intercultural engagement in multicultural societies It explores the increasing visibility of Muslim migrants in the West and the implications this has for multicultural co existence cultural representations belonging and inclusive citizenship Islamic Studies Series Volume 10

Muslims In Australia Nahid Kabir, 2013-01-11 Muslims in Australia investigates the basis of Australian society's fear of Muslims by tracing their history since the Afghan settlement in 1860 The author investigates how events such as September 11 and Bali terrorist attacks reinforce suspicion and fear giving an insight into what it means to be a Muslim in contemporary Australia and how the actions of militant Islamic groups have impacted upon Muslims in general in Western society

Understanding Australia's Neighbours Nick Knight, Michael Heazle, Daniel Halvorson, 2011-09-26 A comprehensive introduction to the study of Asia Written thematically it provides comparisons between Asian and Australian societies and encourages readers to think about Australia's neighbours across a wide range of social economic and historical contexts

Islamic and Muslim Studies in Australia Halim Rane, 2021-08-17 The eight articles published in this Special Issue present original empirical research using various methods of data collection and analysis in relation to topics that are pertinent to the study of Islam and Muslims in Australia The contributors include long serving scholars in the field mid career researchers and early career researchers who represent many of Australia's universities engaged in Islamic and Muslim studies including the Australian National University Charles Sturt University Deakin University Griffith University and the University of Newcastle The topics covered in this Special Issue include how Muslim Australians understand Islam Rane et al 2020 ethical and epistemological challenges facing Islamic and Muslim studies researchers Mansouri 2020 Islamic studies in

Australia's university sector Keskin and Ozalp 2021 Muslim women's access to and participation in Australia's mosques Ghafournia 2020 religion belonging and active citizenship among Muslim youth in Australia Ozalp and ufurovi the responses of Muslim community organizations to Islamophobia Cheikh Hussain 2020 Muslim ethical elites Roose 2020 and the migration experiences of Hazara Afghans Parkes 2020 The Australian People James Jupp, 2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation Muslim Communities in Australia Shahram Akbarzadeh, Abdullah Saeed, 2001 This book highlights the complex human diversity presented by Australia's Muslims as well as their distinctive contribution and the challenges they pose to a still evolving Australian multiculturalism Emphasising the diversity of the Islamic experience in Australia it presents a useful antidote to the stereotypical image that still colours mainstream perspectives of Islam

Muslims making Australia home Dzavid Haveric, 2019-07-16 The story of Islam and the Muslim people is an integral part of Australian history This book covers the period from post World War II until the 1980s when the history of Islam in Australia unfolded into a rich multi ethnicity manifested by diverse Muslim ethnic groups Muslim migrants found Islam in Australia more pluralistic than they found possible in their homeland because in Australia they met fellow Muslims from many different ethnic racial cultural sectarian and linguistic backgrounds Muslims are an integral part of Australia's social fabric and multicultural way of life shaping their Muslimness in an Australian context and their Australianness from Muslim viewpoints and experiences Documenting socio historical characteristics rather than providing a theological interpretation Muslims Making Australia Home covers interrelated Islamic themes in the sociology of religion by noting how these themes reappear in cultural history The book reveals many unknown or little known historical facts stories and valuable memories Islamic Studies Series Volume 28 Islamic State in Australia Rodger Shanahan, 2022-12-30 This book fills a gap in our knowledge about the activities of Western supporters and members of Islamic State by examining the experience of their Australian cohort More than 200 Australian men women and children travelled to Syria and Iraq to fight with Islamist groups and to help establish an Islamic State by force Dozens more assisted Islamic State by supporting those overseas or by planning or carrying out terrorist attacks in Australia For all that little is publicly known about the impact of the Syrian conflict on Australia's radical Islamists This book provides a well researched examination of how and why so many

Australians travelled to fight for or otherwise supported Islamic State From the failed attempt to bring down an Etihad passenger plane en route from Sydney to Abu Dhabi to showing their children holding the heads of Syrian soldiers Australians were prominent in carrying out Islamic State s directions Using a range of Australian and foreign court records social and mainstream media content this book provides the first detailed look at who these people were what tasks they carried out how they came to adopt this radical view of Islam and what long term legal and security implications are likely to result from their actions This book will be of interest to students of terrorism political Islam and security studies A

Comparative Study of Islamic Finance in Australia and the UK Imran Lum,2021-09-28 This book provides valuable insights into the practical challenges faced by the nascent Islamic finance industry and compares the Australian experience to developments in the UK It contributes to a greater understanding of how Muslims living as a minority in Australia and the UK negotiate Islamic doctrine in secular societies by focusing on one aspect of this negotiation namely the prohibition of rib There is little debate in the Islamic tradition on the prohibition of rib The differences however lie in the interpretation of rib and the question of how Muslims live in a society that is heavily reliant on interest and conventional banking yet at the same time adhere to Islamic guidelines Through the words of religious leaders Muslim professionals and university students Imran Lum provides real accounts of how Muslims in Australia and the UK practically deal with conventional banking and finance products such as home loans savings accounts and credit cards He also explores Muslim attitudes towards Islamic finance and queries whether religion is the sole determining factor when it comes to its uptake Drawing on his own unique experience as a practitioner responsible for growing an Islamic business in a conventional bank Lum provides a firsthand account of the complexities associated with structuring Islamic finance products that are not only sharia compliant but also competitive in a non Muslim jurisdiction Using uk k bonds as a case study he highlights the tangible and non tangible barriers to product development such as tax and regulatory requirements and the rise of Islamophobia Combining academic and industry experience Lum unpacks the relationship of Islamic finance with Muslim identity construction in the West and how certain modalities of religiosity can lead to an uptake of Islamic finance while others can lead to its rejection

Anti-racist Discourse on Muslims in the Australian Parliament Jennifer E. Cheng,2017-11-15 Anti racist Discourse on Muslims in the Australian Parliament examines anti racist discourse in contemporary Australian politics in particular how politicians contest and challenge racism against a minority group that does not constitute a traditional race Using critical discourse analysis this book firstly deconstructs the racist xenophobic and discriminatory arguments against Muslims Secondly it highlights the anti racist counter discourse to these arguments Since blatantly racist statements are less common nowadays the book focuses on manifestations of culturalist racism It does this by investigating how talk about Muslims positions them as not Australian or as not belonging to Australia the book takes such discursive exclusion from the nation as one of the most widespread forms of culturalist racism in Western liberal democracies In addition to contributing to the theoretical discussion on the relationship between Muslims racism and anti racism the book expands on methods that apply critical discourse analysis and the discourse historical approach by providing a practical guide to analysing anti racist political discourses Religious Change and Indigenous Peoples Helena Onnudottir,Adam Possamai,2016-04-08

Exploring religious and spiritual changes which have been taking place among Indigenous populations in Australia and New Zealand this book focuses on important changes in religious affiliation in census data over the last 15 years Drawing on both local social and political debates while contextualising the discussion in wider global debates about changing religious identities especially the growth of Islam the authors present a critical analysis of the persistent images and discourses on Aboriginal religions and spirituality This book takes a comparative approach to other Indigenous and minority groups to explore contemporary changes in religious affiliation which have raised questions about resistance to modernity challenges to the nation state and or rejection of Christianity or Islam Helena Onnudottir Adam Possamai and Bryan Turner offer a critical analysis to on going public political and sociological debates about religious conversion especially to Islam and changing religious affiliations including an increase in the number of people who claim no religion among Indigenous populations This book also offers a major contribution to the growing debate about conversion to Islam among Australian Aborigines Maoris and Pacific peoples Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia Enqi Weng,2019-12-05

This volume explores the contradiction between the news coverage given to issues of religion particularly since 2001 in relation to issues such as terrorism politics security and gender and the fact of its apparent decline according to Census data Based on media research in Australia and offering comparisons with the UK the author demonstrates that media discussions overlook the diversity that exists within religions particularly the country s main religion Christianity and presents religion according to specific interpretations shaped by race class and gender which in turn result in very limited understandings of religion itself Drawing on understandings of the sacred as a non negotiable value present in religious and secular form Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia calls for a broader sociological perspective on religion and will appeal to scholars of sociology and media studies with interests in religion and public life Reporting Islam Jacqui Ewart,Kate O'Donnell,2018-04-19 Reporting Islam argues for innovative approaches to media coverage of Muslims and their faith The book examines the ethical dilemmas faced by Western journalists when reporting on this topic and offers a range of alternative journalistic techniques that will help news media practitioners move away from dominant news values and conventions when reporting on Islam The book is based on an extensive review of international literature and interviews with news media editors copy editors senior reporters social media editors in house journalism trainers and journalism educators conducted for the Reporting Islam Project In addition the use of an original model the Transformative Journalism Model provides further insight into the nature of news reports about Muslims and Islam The findings collated here help to identify the best and worst reporting practices adopted by different news outlets as well as the factors which have influenced them

Building on this the authors outline a new strategy for more accurate fair and informed reporting of stories relating to Muslims and Islam By combining an overview of different journalistic approaches with real world accounts from professionals and advice on best practice journalists journalism educators and students will find this book a useful guide to contemporary news coverage of Islam Conflict, Community, and Criminality in Southeast Asia and Australia Thomas Sanderson, David Gordon, 2009-06-30 Rescripting Religion in the City Alana Harris, 2016-04-22 Rescripting Religion in the City explores the role of faith and religious practices as strategies for understanding and negotiating the migratory experience Leading international scholars draw on case studies of urban settings in the global north and south Presenting a nuanced understanding of the religious identities of migrants within the modern metropolis this book makes a significant contribution to fields as diverse as twentieth century immigration history the sociology of religion and migration studies as well as historical and urban geography and practical theology

The i-zation of Society, Religion, and Neoliberal Post-Secularism Adam Possamai, 2017-10-30 This book explores the elective affinity of religion and post secularism with neoliberalism With the help of digital capitalism neoliberalism dominates more and more all aspects of life and religion is not left unaffected While some faith groups are embracing this hegemony and others are simply following the signs of the times changes have been so significant that religion is no longer what it used to be Linking theories from Fredric Jameson and George Ritzer this book presents the argument that our present society is going through a process of i zation in which 1 capitalism dominates not only our outer social lives through for example global capitalism but also our inner personal lives through its expansion in the digital world facilitated by various i technology applications 2 the McDonaldization process has now been normalized and 3 religiosity has been standardized Reviewing the new inequalities present in this i society the book considers their impact on Jurgen Habermas s project of post secularism and appraises the roles that various religions may have in supporting and or countering this process It concludes by arguing that Habermas s post secular project will occur but that paradoxically the religious message s will be instrumentalized for capitalist purposes
