Arabia and the Arabs Robert G. Hoyland, 2001 Using a wide range of sources inscriptions poetry histories and archaeological evidence Robert G Hoyland explores the main cultural areas of Arabia from ancient Sheba in the South to the deserts and oases of the north The Relations Between Arabs and Israelites Prior to the Rise of Islam David Samuel Margoliouth, 1924 Crossroads to Islam Yehuda D. Nevo, Judith Koren, 2003-06 In this controversial exploration of the early history of Islam archaeologist Yehuda D Nevo and researcher Judith Koren present a revolutionary theory of the origins and development of the Islamic state and religion Whereas most works on this subject derive their view of the history of this period from the Muslim literature Crossroads to Islam also examines important types of evidence hitherto neglected the literature of the local Christian population archaeological excavations numismatics and especially rock inscriptions These analyses lay the foundation for a radical view of the development of Islam According to Nevo and Koren the evidence suggests that the Arabs were in fact pagan when they assumed power in the regions formerly ruled by the Byzantine Empire They contend that the Arabs took control almost without a struggle because Byzantium had effectively withdrawn from the area long before After establishing control the new Arab elite adopted a simple monotheism influenced by Judaeo Christianity which they encountered in their newly acquired territories and gradually developed it into the Arab religion Not until the mid 8th century was this process completed This interpretation of the evidence corroborates the view of other scholars who on different grounds propose that Islam and the canonized version of the Koran were preceded by a long period of development This new view turns on its head the traditional history of the rise of Islam which claims that Islam began with Muhammad in Mecca and Medina around 622 then spread throughout Arabia under his charismatic leadership and finally after Muhammad's death 632 inspired his followers to conquer widespread territories both in the East and West By contrast Nevo and Koren suggest that the rise of the Arab state created a need for a state religion eventually called Islam This absorbing and controversial rethinking of Islam's early history is must reading for students and scholars of Islamic history and anyone interested in the origins of the world's second largest religion Arabs and Empires before Islam Greg

Fisher,2015-07-30 Arabs and Empires before Islam illuminates the history of the Arabs before the emergence of Islam collating nearly 250 translated extracts from an extensive array of ancient sources Drawn from a broad period between the eighth century BC and the Middle Ages the sources include texts originally written in Greek Latin Syriac Persian and Arabic inscriptions in a variety of languages and alphabets and discussions of archaeological sites from across the Near East More than twenty international experts from the fields of archaeology classics and ancient history linguistics and philology epigraphy and art history provide detailed commentary on and analysis of this diverse selection of material Richly illustrated with sixteen colour plates fifteen maps and over seventy in text images the volume provides a comprehensive wide ranging and up to date examination of what ancient sources had to say about the politics culture and religion of the Arabs in the pre Islamic period It offers a full consideration of the traces which the Arabs have left in the epigraphic literary and archaeological records and sheds light on their relationship with their often more powerful neighbours the states and empires of the ancient Near East Arabs and Empires before Islam gathers together a host of material never before collected into a single volume some of which appears in English translation for the very first time and provides a single point of reference for a vibrant and dynamic area of research

Imagining the Arabs Webb Peter Webb,2016-05-31 Who are the Arabs When did people begin calling themselves Arabs And what was the Arabs role in the rise of Islam Investigating these core questions about Arab identity and history by marshalling the widest array of Arabic sources employed hitherto and by closely interpreting the evidence with theories of identity and ethnicity Imagining the Arabs proposes new answers to the riddle of Arab origins and fundamental reinterpretations of early Islamic history This book reveals that the time honoured stereotypes which depict Arabs as ancient Arabian Bedouin are entirely misleading because the essence of Arab identity was in fact devised by Muslims during the first centuries of Islam Arab identity emerged and evolved as groups imagined new notions of community to suit the radically changing circumstances of life in the early Caliphate The idea of the Arab was a device which Muslims utilised to articulate their communal identity to negotiate post Conquest power relations and to explain the rise of Islam Over Islam s first four centuries political elites genealogists poetry collectors historians and grammarians all participated in a vibrant process of imagining and re imagining Arab identity and history and the sum of their works established a powerful tradition that influences Middle Eastern communities to the present day

Jews and Arabs in Pre- and Early Islamic Arabia Michael Lecker,2024-12-11 Most of the articles in this volume belong to what can be described as the preparatory work which is prerequisite to the study of pre and early Islamic history Lecker s interests include tribal Arabia including tribes in the Yemen and Hadramawt the history of the Arabian Jews the biography of the Prophet Muhammad and early Islamic literature in general While the studies are based on a wide range of sources they often focus on illuminating small accounts which are analyzed and placed in their historical context The comprehensive index renders the articles easily accessible

The Arabs in History Bernard Lewis,1966 Islam Under the Arabs Robert Durie

Osborn,1876 Arab Dress. A Short History Yedida Stillman,2003-08-06 This richly illustrated volume is a historical and ethnographic study of one important aspect of Arab and Islamic material culture clothing While in part descriptive its principal focus is on the evolution and transformations of modes of dress over the past 1400 years throughout the Middle East North Africa and for the Middle Ages Islamic Spain Arab clothing is treated as part of an Islamic vestimentary system and is discussed within the context of the social religious esthetic and political trends of each age In addition to the five historical chapters three chapters are devoted to major themes of Arab costume history the dress code for non Muslims the important socio economic and political institution of luxury fabrics and garments of honor and the most well known and frequently misunderstood institution of veiling Arabs and Others in Early Islam Sulaymān Bashīr,1997 In this book the author pursues some of the ideas first set forth in his controversial Introduction to the Other History 1984 in Arabic in a ground breaking study of the ways in which the relations between Arabs and non Arabs developed during the first centuries of Islam Arabs and Others in Early Islam argues that with the rise of the Arab empire in the seventh century paradigms of Arab or Islamic identity did not yet exist in their classical forms In the course of arguing this thesis Bashear also offers important insights on the social and cultural history of early Islam including changing attitudes toward bedouins non Arabs and non Muslims the notion of Arabia as the Arab homeland and apocalyptic insecurities Publisher description

Mohammed and the Rise of Islam David S. Margoliouth,2010-01-01 This classic biography is not a religious text designed to either celebrate or denigrate Islam It looks at Mohammed as a towering figure of culture and politics a man who achieved the extraordinary uniting disparate Arab tribes into a more cohesive whole This book remains an important work for anyone wishing to understand the roots of one of the most intractable sociopolitical divides between East and West Muslim and Christian still haunting the world today Author David S Margoliouth 1858 1940 a professor of Arabic at Oxford University worked from primary Arabic texts and omitted all anecdotes that are obviously or most probably fabulous resulting in a clear headed history of a highly contentious moment in time Islam in the Balkans H. T. Norris,1993 From the earliest times also many Balkan Muslim soldiers and bureaucrats as well as scholars and poets made an impact on the wider Islamic world the most prominent being Mohammed Ali the founder of modern Egypt Arabs and Others In Early Islam Suliman Bashear,2020 This work investigates available early Arabic ad th and exegetical literature in order to determine the great complexity of how Arabs Muslims and Arab Muslims viewed themselves and members of other communities In particular it focuses on the relation between definitions of Arabness and otherness with Islamic ascriptions of believers and nonbelievers and endeavors to trace the changing of these views over time Moreover this is an in depth analysis of a series of ad ths and isn ds that discusses when where why and by whom traditions were circulated during the 8th and 9th centuries Islam, Arabs, and the Intelligent World of the Jinn Amira El-Zein,2009-10-16 According to the Qur an God created two parallel species man and the jinn the former from clay and the latter from fire Beliefs regarding the jinn are deeply integrated into Muslim culture and religion and have a constant presence in legends myths poetry and literature In Islam Arabs and the Intelligent World of the Jinn Amira El Zein explores the integral role these mythological figures play revealing that the concept of jinn is fundamental to understanding Muslim culture and tradition Arabs in the Mirror Nissim Rejwan,2008-04-15 What is an Arab Though many in the West would answer that question with simplistic stereotypes the reality is far more complex and interesting Arabs themselves have been debating Arab identity since pre Islamic times coming to a variety of conclusions about the nature and extent of their Arabness Likewise Westerners and others have attempted to analyze Arab identity reaching mostly negative conclusions about Arab culture and capacity for self government To bring new perspectives to the question of Arab identity Iraqi born scholar Nissim Rejwan has assembled this fascinating collection of writings by Arab and Western intellectuals who try to define what it means to be Arab He begins with pre Islamic times and continues to the last decades of the twentieth century quoting thinkers ranging from Ibn Khaldun to modern writers such as al Ansari Haykal Ahmad Amin al Azm and Said Through their works Rejwan shows how Arabs have grappled with such significant issues as the influence of Islam the rise of nationalism the quest for democracy women s status the younger generation Egypt s place in the Arab world Israel s role in Middle Eastern conflict and the West s cultural invasion By letting Arabs speak for themselves Arabs in the Mirror refutes a prominent Western stereotype that Arabs are incapable of self reflection or self government On the contrary it reveals a rich tradition of self criticism and self knowledge in the Arab world Islam Under the Arabs Robert Durie Osborn,2024-06-11 Reprint of the original first published in 1876 The Shadow of the Swords Chenar Med,2014-11-13 The Shadow of the Swords was written to raise critical questions about the verses of the Quran Prophet Muhammad and events in history and also to explore the reasons why the religion of Islam emerged Becoming Arab Sumit K. Mandal,2018 Becoming Arab explores how a long history of inter Asian interaction fared in the face of nineteenth century racial categorisation and control
