Islamic Creeds A Selection Islamic Surveys:

Islamic Creeds William Montgomery Watt, 1994 Professor Watt introduces the history of the creeds and takes the student through a selection of the main ones in translation Explanatory notes and a single Shi'ite creed are also given in this useful and informative survey Islamic Creeds, 1994 There are no official creeds in Islam comparable to the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed in Christianity In mainstream Sunni Islam however there is broad agreement about the chief doctrines and over the centuries these have been expressed in creeds by individuals and groups some of which have been widely recognised and used for instruction These creeds are basic material for the study of Islamic religion and a selection is given here in translation together with a historical introduction explanatory notes and a single Shi'ite creed to show the contrast

God and Logic in Islam John Walbridge, 2010-11-15 This book investigates the central role of reason in Islamic intellectual life Despite widespread characterization of Islam as a system of belief based only on revelation John Walbridge argues that rational methods not fundamentalism have characterized Islamic law philosophy and education since the medieval period His research demonstrates that this medieval Islamic rational tradition was opposed by both modernists and fundamentalists resulting in a general collapse of traditional Islamic intellectual life and its replacement by more modern but far shallower forms of thought However the resources of this Islamic scholarly tradition remain an integral part of the Islamic intellectual tradition and will prove vital to its revival The future of Islam Walbridge argues will be marked by a return to rationalism

Henderson, 1998-04-16 This book presents the first systematic and cross cultural exploration of ideas of heresy as well as orthodoxy in a group of major religious traditions including Neo Confucianism Sunni Islam rabbinic Judaism and early Christianity It shows how authorities in all four of these traditions used common strategies to distinguish orthodox truth from heretical error These same strategies often appear in modern ideological polemics and studies of deviance as well as in traditional religious controversies The party that most effectively uses these strategies often gains a decisive advantage in the struggle among competing claimants to orthodoxy The author also shows how orthodoxy depends on heresy Without heresy or at least ideas of heresy orthodoxy could not establish or perpetuate itself In fact in all four traditions orthodoxy constructed itself by creating an inversion of the heretical other By highlighting the common patterns in constructions of orthodoxy and heresy in four major religious traditions this book also sets in relief subtler variations that give each tradition a special character In this way this study strikes a balance between the universal and the particular it illuminates a general pattern in world intellectual history but also shows how the traditions that illustrate this pattern are distinctive

Modern Trends in Islamic Theological Discourse in 20th Century Indonesia Fauzan Saleh, 2001-12-01 Aiming to trace the development of Islamic theological discourse in Indonesia from the early 1900s to the end of the 20th century the author focusses on how modernist Muslims have constructed their theological thought throughout the century which in turn reflects their religious understanding in response to the particular demands of their age The theological thought constructed so far signifies a continuum of progress developing from one stage to the next Implicitly this progress also indicates the improvement of Indonesian Muslims understanding of their own religion which may suggest the betterment of their commitment to doctrinal beliefs and religious practices Therefore this study will also examine the ways in which Indonesian Islam noticeably grows more orthodox through these forms of religious commitment Drawing upon an Indonesian term the growth of orthodox Islam is known as the santri cultural expansion which has been characterized by the vertical and horizontal mobility of devout Muslims in political cultural and economic enterprises A discussion of the theological thought underlying that santri cultural expansion is also included

A Protestant Theology of Religious Pluralism Livingstone Thompson, 2009 In this book three main things have been accomplished First it locates the emergence of religious pluralism as a problem for Christian theology Secondly it shows the critical weaknesses in the approaches to pluralism that we find in the works of Gavin D Costa George Lindbeck and John Hick all major players in the field of religious pluralism Retrieving theological material from seventeenth century Comenius and eighteenth century Zinzendorf the book shows that the Protestant tradition has suitable theological material that can better serve the development of a theology of religious pluralism Thirdly the book enters into dialogue with Islam and highlights exciting new approaches to addressing the issues of salvation the Qur'an and Christology One critical outcome of the book is that it breaks new ground in showing the limitations of liberation theology and proposes a fascinating new pluralism sensitive hermeneutical approach to contextual theology
