Island In Chains Ten Years On Robben Island:

Robben Island and Prisoner Resistance to Apartheid Fran Lisa Buntman, 2003-10-27 Table of contents Robben Island Barbara Hutton, 1994 This text tells the story of Robben Island For more than four centuries it has been a place of banishment exile and imprisonment but since the 1960s it has become an international symbol of the brutality of apartheid on one hand and of human dignity on the other Island in Chains Indres Naidoo, 1982 Dance in Chains Padraic Kenney, 2017-10-02 States around the world imprison people for their beliefs or politically motivated actions Oppositional movements of all stripes celebrate their comrades behind bars Yet they are more than symbols of repression and human rights Dance in Chains examines the experiences of political prisoners themselves in order to understand who they are what they do and why it matters This is the first book to trace the history of modern political imprisonment from its origins in the mid nineteenth century The letters diaries and memoirs of political prisoners as well as the records of regime policies relate the contest in the prison cell to political conflicts between regime and opposition Padraic Kenney draws on examples from regimes ranging from communist and fascist to colonial and democratic including Ireland the United Kingdom Poland and South Africa They include the Fenian Brotherhood imprisoned in England and Ireland in the 1860s and their successors during the Irish War of Independence and the Northern Ireland Troubles Afrikaans suspected of treason during the Boer War socialists fighting for Polish freedom in the Russian Empire and then Communists denouncing bourgeois rule in newly independent Poland the opponents of apartheid South Africa and stalinist Poland and those imprisoned by the United States in Guantanamo Bay detention camp today Some prisons are well known in others inmates suffered in obscurity Through self organization education and actions ranging from solitary non cooperation to mass hunger strikes these prisoners transform their incarceration and counter states efforts to control them While considering the international movements that have sought to publicize the plight of political prisoners Dance in Chains examines the actions of the prisoners themselves to find universal answers to questions about the meaning and purpose of their imprisonment Space, Place, and Gendered Violence in South African Writing S. Gunne, 2014-12-17 Exploring the relationship between space place and gendered violence as depicted in a range of South African writing Gunne examines the social and political conditions of exceptionality during and after apartheid Writers covered include Hilda Bernstein J M Coetzee Achmat Dangor Ruth First Nadine Gordimer and Antjie Krog Dare Not Linger Nelson Mandela, Mandla Langa, 2017-10-24 A memoir of Mandela s time in office as the first president of a democratic South Africa completed and expanded with his personal notes and speeches I have discovered the secret that after climbing a great hill one only finds that there are many more hills to climb I have taken a moment here to rest to steal a view of the glorious vista that surrounds me to look back on the distance I have come But I can rest only for a moment for with freedom comes responsibilities and I dare not linger for my long walk is not ended In 1994 Nelson Mandela became the first president of a democratic South Africa From the outset he was committed to serving only a single five year term During his presidency he and his government ensured that all of South Africa s citizens became equal before the law and he laid the foundation for turning a country riven by centuries of colonialism and apartheid into a fully functioning democracy Dare Not Linger is the story of Mandela s presidential years drawing heavily on the memoir he began to write as he prepared to leave office but was unable to finish Now the acclaimed South African writer Mandla Langa has completed the task using Mandela s unfinished draft detailed notes that Mandela made as events were unfolding and a wealth of unseen archival material With a prologue by Mandela s widow Gra a Machel the result is a vivid and often inspirational account of Mandela s presidency and the creation of a new democracy It tells the story of a country in transition and the challenges Mandela faced as he strove to make his vision for a liberated South Africa a reality Underneath the history that has been made there is a human being who chose hope over fear progress over the prisons of the past Even as he became a legend to know the man Nelson Mandela is to respect him even more Barack Obama A rare human being who in freeing himself of his demons also became free to give his extraordinarily leadership to his country and the world Bill Clinton A critically important document as the principal firsthand record of Mandela s tumultuous time in office and the often ingenious measures he took to bring about peace the book contains many such practical lessons in governance Essential to students of Mandela s political career as well as of modern African history Kirkus Reviews Fact - Fiction - "faction" Horst Zander,1999 Discourse Theory and Political Analysis David R. Howarth,Aletta J. Norval,Yannis Stavrakakis,2000-11-18 How can recent developments in post structuralist post Marxist and psychoanalytical theory actually inform ongoing empirical research What are the appropriate methods and research strategies for conducting research in discourse theory and analysis How can concepts such as hegemony identity the imaginary dislocation and empty signifiers illuminate key aspects of contemporary society and politics This pathbreaking and multi focal book contains a clear introductory statement of the theoretical approach used and concludes with an assessment of the future directions of discourse theory in the social sciences Borderlands ,2021-11-08 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity

ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women s writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko

A Short History of South Africa Gail Nattrass, 2017-11-16 South Africa is popularly perceived as the most influential nation in Africa a gateway to an entire continent for finance trade and politics and a crucial mediator in its neighbours affairs On the other hand post Apartheid dreams of progress and reform have in part collapsed into a morass of corruption unemployment and criminal violence A Short History of South Africa is a brief general account of the history of this most complicated and fascinating country from the first evidence of hominid existence to the wars of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries that led to the establishment of modern South Africa the horrors of Apartheid and the optimism following its collapse as well as the prospects and challenges for the future This readable and thorough account illustrated with maps and photographs is the culmination of a lifetime of researching and teaching the broad spectrum of South African history Nattrass s passion for her subject shines through whether she is elucidating the reader on early humans in the cradle of humankind or describing the tumultuous twentieth century processes that shaped the democracy that is South Africa today

A Companion to African History William H. Worger, Charles Ambler, Nwando Achebe, 2018-09-11 Covers the history of the entire African continent from prehistory to the present day A Companion to African History embraces the diverse regions subject matter and disciplines of the African continent while also providing chronological and geographical coverage of basic historical developments Two dozen essays by leading international scholars explore the challenges facing this relatively new field of historical enquiry and present the dynamic ways in which historians and scholars from other fields such as archaeology anthropology political science and economics are forging new directions in thinking and research Comprised of six parts the book begins with thematic approaches to African history exploring the environment gender and family medical practices and more Section two covers Africa s early history and its pre colonial past early human adaptation the emergence of kingdoms royal power and warring states The third section looks at the era of the slave trade and European expansion Part four examines the process of conquest the discovery of diamonds and gold military and social response and more Colonialism is discussed in the sixth section with chapters on the economy transformed due to the development of agriculture and mining industries The last section studies the continent from post World War II all the way up to modern times Aims at capturing the enthusiasms of practicing historians and encouraging similar passion in a new generation of scholars Emphasizes linkages within Africa as well as between the continent and other parts of the world All chapters include significant historiographical content and suggestions for further reading Written by a global team of writers with unique backgrounds and views Features case studies with illustrative examples In a field traditionally marked by narrow specialisms A Companion to African History is an ideal book for advanced students researchers historians and scholars looking for a broad yet unique overview of African history as a whole

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion (1950-1970) Tor Sellström,1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994

Mandela Anthony Sampson,2012-01-11 Nelson Mandela who emerged from twenty six years of political imprisonment to lead South Africa out of apartheid and into democracy is perhaps the world s most admired leader a man whose life has been led with exemplary courage and inspired conviction Now Anthony Sampson who has known Mandela since 1951 and has been a close observer of South Africa s political life for the last fifty years has produced the first authorized biography the most informed and comprehensive portrait to date of a man whose dazzling image has been difficult to penetrate With unprecedented access to Mandela s private papers including his prison memoir long thought to have been lost meticulous research and hundreds of interviews from Mandela himself to prison warders on Robben Island from Walter Sisulu and Oliver Tambo to Winnie Mandela and F W de Klerk and many others intimately connected to Mandela s story Sampson has composed an enlightening and necessary story of the man behind the myth

A Burning Hunger Lynda Schuster,2014-09-15 If the Mandelas were the generals in the fight for black liberation the Mashininis were the foot soldiers Theirs is a story of exile imprisonment torture and loss but also of dignity courage and strength in the face of appalling adversity Originally published in Great Britain to critical acclaim A Burning Hunger One Family s Struggle Against Apartheid tells a deeply moving human story and is one of the seminal books about the struggle against apartheid This family Joseph and Nomkhitha Mashinini and their thirteen children became immersed in almost every facet of the liberation struggle from guerrilla warfare to urban insurrection Although Joseph and Nomkhitha were peaceful citizens who had never been involved in politics five of their sons became leaders in the antiapartheid movement When the students of Soweto rose up in 1976 to protest a new rule making Afrikaans the language of instruction they were led by charismatic young Tsietsi Mashinini Scores of students were shot down and hundreds were injured Tsietsi s actions on that day set in motion a chain of events that would forever change South Africa define his family and transform their lives A Burning Hunger shows the human catastrophe that plagued generations of black Africans in the powerful story of one religious and law abiding Soweto family

Basing her narrative on extensive research and interviews Lynda Schuster richly portrays this remarkable family and in so doing reveals black South Africa during a time of momentous change A Covenantal Imagination William Johnson Everett,2021-12-15 This harvest of articles drawn from William Johnson Everett s career of teaching and research on four continents and in a variety of institutions shows the breadth depth and diversity of his interests Like spotlights in the wider field of Christian social ethics they illuminate the key threads that have held together an emerging tapestry of thought woven around the powerful concept of covenant Whether lifting up concepts of covenant federalism and corporation the oikos of work family and faith the public nature and mission of the church or the ethical meaning of journey metaphors his rich and artful style leads us into thinking more deeply about the way our lives are joined in a covenantal imagination about a more just and sustainable world Pitch Battles Peter Hain,Andre Odendaal,2021-09-01 There will be a black Springbok over my dead body Dr Danie Craven President of the South African Rugby Board 1969 Just a year after the controversial D Oliveira affair the organised disruption of the all white 1969 70 South African rugby and cricket tours to Britain represented a significant challenge to apartheid politics Led by future cabinet minister Peter Hain the Stop the Seventy Tour campaign brought about the cancellation of both tours presaging white South Africa s expulsion from the Olympics and the end of apartheid sport altogether With his brand of attention grabbing direct action sports protest the 19 year old Hain emerged as a hero to some and enemy to others Now reflecting on these experiences with fifty years of hindsight Lord Hain together with South Africa s foremost sports historian and fellow anti apartheid activist Andr Odendaal shows how decades of relentless international and domestic campaigning for equality led to a Springbok team captained by black athlete Siya Kolisi winning the 2019 Rugby World Cup Interspersing a wide range of examples with personal testimony Pitch Battles explores the themes of sport globalisation and resistance from the deep past to the present day Published in the same year as the Stop The Tour documentary from acclaimed director Louis Myles this compelling story of sacrifice struggle and triumph reveals how sport should never be divorced from politics or society s values Nonviolent Action Ronald M. McCarthy,Gene Sharp,Brad Bennett,2013-07-04 This comprehensive guide to research sources and theories about nonviolent action as a technique of struggle in social and political conflicts discusses the methods and techniques used by groups in various encounters Although violence and its causes have received a great deal of attention nonviolent action has not received its due as an international phenomenon with a long history An introduction that explains the theories and research used in the study provides a practical guide to this essential bibliography of English language sources The first part of the book covers case study materials divided by region and subdivided by country Within each country materials are arranged chronologically and topically The second major part examines the methods and theory of nonviolent action principled nonviolence and several closely related areas in social science such as conflict analysis and social movements The book is indexed by author and subject Men at Work Cecile Jackson,2013-10-23 Gender analysis of development focuses on gender relations rather than women and men as separate gender categories but it has necessarily been women orientated in its concerns with subordination This work moves gender analysis towards a fuller understanding of men s diverse gendered identities and how these are implicated in their everyday working lives in developing country contexts The questions addressed in the papers range from conceptual and methodological issues of definitions and measurement of men s work to case studies of working men in specific settings but all are concerned with the recognition of gendered vulnerabilities of some men as men as well as with a re thinking of gender relations in the light of consideration of the subjectivities of specific groups of men

'Sisters in the Struggle' Kalpana Hiralal, 2023-02-10 Sisters in the struggle Women of Indian Origin in South Africa s Liberation Struggle 1900 1994 unveils an uncharted historical terrain highlighting the contributions of Indian women towards non racialism and equality and their experiences within diverse political parties therefore shifting the post apartheid liberation stories which have been dominated by the journey of the ANC to other political organisations who collectively played a significant role in South Africa s road to democracy In this book Hiralal presents a refreshing perspective of Indians particularly women as contributors and activists in the struggle The book elucidates that the struggle against apartheid was a collective endeavour among the oppressed races and not a one sided endeavour by the ANC The book thus examines the participation of Indian women against apartheid and colonialism within gendered and political frameworks

Young Women Against Apartheid Emily Bridger, 2021 Provides a new perspective on the struggle against apartheid and contributes to key debates in South African history gender inequality sexual violence and the legacies of the liberation struggle WINNER OF THE RHS GLADSTONE BOOK PRIZE 2022 WINNER OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH GRACE ABBOTT BOOK PRIZE 2021 SHORTLISTED FOR THE ASUK FAGE relate their personal experiences to collective histories of the struggle and insert themselves into a historical narrative from which they have been excluded Through exploring these women s memories this book serves as an important corrective to South Africa s male centric literature on violence and provides a new gendered perspective on the wider histories of township politics activism and conflict
