Hate and Reconciliation Guido Cuyvers, 2022-11-29. Every day the media confront us with the many forms and excesses of hatred: cyber hatred, hate speech, bullying, hate groups, religiously inspired violence against dissidents and genocides. Hatred is human and current. It is an intrinsic part of what can happen between people. Personal experiences can lead people to hate someone. In society and even on a global level, hatred is again and again the motor of misunderstanding and often also of violence between people. Sometimes hate smoulders almost unconsciously; at other times, he is furious and serves as a flag for serious violence. Hatred has many faces and seems omnipresent; that much is clear. The term Erida, complex after the Greek goddess of hate, symbolizes the common and deeply rooted nature of hatred. Hatred is mighty as a destructive force. He knows how to motivate individuals and large groups of people to bring out the worst in themselves. He turns life among people into a desert. However, he cannot compete with Irene, the goddess and the symbol of peace. After all, he is unable to correct what went wrong. Nor is it a ground for building a peaceful society. At the same time, hatred is impotent against the positive freedom of people to transcend the negative. Those who are open to this will see many connecting and therefore Irenean initiatives. Hatred does not and should not have the last word. Opposite the well of Erida is the Irenean way to peace. After examining the nature of hate, this book focuses a wide-angle lens on its many faces in individuals and groups as well as peoples. Facing the negativity of hatred, this book presents constructive approaches to fostering relationships between people and peace.

Una historia contemporánea de Palestina-Israel Jorge Ramos Tolosa, 2020-04-24. La historia y la actualidad de Palestina-Israel están envueltas en sombras. Desde su inicio ha sido presa de numerosos intereses atada ineludiblemente a la visión cambiante de diferentes pueblos y estados y sesgada por la propaganda. En este libro Jorge Ramos Tolosa elabora una visión actualizada, equilibrada, renovadora y sintética del conocido como conflicto palestino-israelí. Desde las últimas décadas de la Palestina otomana y el inicio de la colonización de asentamiento sionista a finales del siglo XIX hasta la última era Netanyahu y el denominado Acuerdo del Siglo de 2020. El texto se adentra en las realidades del fenómeno del colonialismo, examina sus diferentes manifestaciones y lo pone en relación con los asentamientos sionistas en Palestina Revela las relaciones entre los países del Norte y el Sur Global y el papel que los primeros han tenido y tienen en esta importante cuestión internacional a lo largo de la historia contemporánea Además presenta una visión de las y los palestinos alejada del cliché Examina sus organizaciones sus resistencias sus figuras las divisiones entre sus diferentes grupos y el importante rol de las mujeres en la supervivencia del pueblo palestino sin caer por el contrario en la demonización de las personas judías mostrando las diferencias de opinión y acercamiento entre sus distintos líderes y tendencias políticas Entendiendo en definitiva que la historia está compuesta de historias y depende tanto de quien la cuenta como de quien la lee El conflicto entre Israel y Palestina desde la perspectiva del Derecho internacional Iglesias
