The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Dada Magazines Emily Hage, 2020-12-24 Dada magazines made Dada what it was diverse non hierarchical transnational and defiant of the most fundamental artistic conventions This first volume entirely devoted to Dada periodicals retells the story of Dada by demonstrating the centrality of these graphically inventive provocative periodicals Dada New York Dada Dada Jok and dozens more that began crossing enemy lines during World War I The book includes magazines from well known Dada cities like New York and Paris as well as Zagreb and Bucharest and reveals that Dada continued to inspire art journals into the 1920s Anchored in close material analysis within a historical and theoretical framework Dada Magazines models a novel multifaceted methodology for assessing many kinds of periodicals The book traces how the Dadaists Marcel Duchamp Tristan Tzara Dragan Aleksic Hannah Hoch and many others compiled printed distributed and exchanged these publications At the same time it recognizes the journals as active agents that engendered the Dada network and its thematic chronological structure captures the constant exchanges that took place in this network With in depth scrutiny of these magazines and 1970s Dadazines inspired by them Dada Magazines is a vital source in the histories of art and design periodical studies and modernist studies Harold Rosenberg Debra Bricker Balken, 2021-10-06 The biography recounts Rosenberg's full story for the first time Art critic for The New Yorker from 1962 until 1978 Rosenberg together with Clement Greenberg radically reshaped the interpretation of art in the post World War II period by promoting and examining abstract expression But Rosenberg was also a social and literary critic writing about art was just one aspect of his work Harold Rosenberg A Critic's Life weaves together Rosenberg's life and literary production cast against the dynamic intellectual and social ferment of his time Rosenberg's mid century linking of the New York School with the art establishment together with his observations on the commodification of the artwork and the evisceration of the self in favor of celebrity especially in his often cited essay The Herd of Independent Minds make this book especially topical The Women of Atelier 17 Christina Weyl, 2019-01-01 This timely reexamination of the experimental New York print studio Atelier 17 focuses on the women whose work defied gender norms through novel aesthetic forms and techniques Artist as Author Christa Noel Robbins, 2021-06-29 With Artist as Author Christa Noel Robbins provides the first extended study of authorship in mid 20th century abstract painting in the US Taking a close look at this influential period of art history Robbins describes how artists and critics used the medium of painting to advance their own claims about the role that they believed authorship should play in dictating the value significance and social impact of the art object Robbins tracks the subject across two definitive periods the New York School as it was consolidated in the 1950s and Post Painterly Abstraction in the 1960s Through many deep dives into key artist archives Robbins brings to the page the minds and voices of painters Arshile Gorky Jack Tworkov Helen Frankenthaler

Kenneth Noland Sam Gilliam and Agnes Martin along with those of critics such as Harold Rosenberg and Rosalind Krauss While these are all important characters in the polemical histories of American modernism this is the first time they are placed together in a single study and treated with equal measure as peers participating in the shared late modernist moment

The Invention of Painting in America David Rosand,2004 David Rosand recounts the transformation of early American painters from provincial followers of the established traditions of Europe into some of the most innovative and influential artists in the world Moving beyond simple descriptions of what distinguishes American art from other movements and forms Rosand explores not only the status of artists and their relationship to their work but also the larger dialogue between the artist and society He looks to the intensely studied portraits of America s early painters especially Copley and Eakins and the landscapes of Homer and Inness among others Each of these artists grappled with conflicting cultural attitudes and different expressive styles He discusses the work of Davis Gorky de Kooning Pollock Rothko and Motherwell and the subjects and themes that engaged them Despite the indifference with which it was first met American art flourished against the odds and founded the aesthetic consciousness that we equate with American art today In this exhilarating study Rosand unearths the historical and artistic conditions that gave rise to the phenomenon of Abstract Expressionism The New York Schools of Music and the Visual Arts Steven Johnson,2012-11-12 Musicians and artists have always shared mutual interests and exchanged theories of art and creativity This exchange climaxed just after World War II when a group of New York based musicians including John Cage Morton Feldman Earle Brown and David Tudor formed friendships with a group of painters The latter group now known collectively as either the New York School or the Abstract Expressionists included Jackson Pollock Willem deKooning Robert Motherwell Mark Rothko Barnett Newman Clyfford Still Franz Kline Phillip Guston and William Bazotes The group also included a younger generation of artists particularly Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns that stood somewhat apart from the Abstract Expressionists This group of painters created what is arguably the first significant American movement in the visual arts Inspired by the artists the New York School composers accomplished a similar feat By the beginning of the 1960s the New York Schools of art and music had assumed a position of leadership in the world of art For anyone interested in the development of 20th century art music and culture The New York Schools of Music and Art will make for illuminating reading The Queer Sixties Patricia Juliana Smith,2013-12-16 The Queer Sixties assembles an impressive group of cultural critics to go against the grain of 1960s studies and proposes new and different ways of the last decade before the closet doors swung open Imbued with the zeitgeist of the 60s this playful and powerful collection rescues the persistence of the queer imaginary History of Humanity UNESCO,2008-12-31 This is the seventh and final volume in this comprehensive guide to the history of world cultures throughout historical times Iconotropism Ellen Spolsky,2004 The essays in this collection expand the boundaries of inter art studies claiming that human beings have evolved to draw nourishment from pictures Ellen Spolsky argues in a polemical introduction that the recognition of our embodied need for pictures that is our human iconotropism provides a fresh way of understanding the relationship of works of art to their historical contexts Jacket The Feminism and Visual Culture Reader Amelia Jones, 2003 Challenging the notion of feminism as a unified discourse this book assembles writings that address art film architecture popular culture new media and other visual fields from a feminist perspective The book combines classic texts with six newly commissioned pieces Articles are grouped into thematic sections each introduced by the editor Providing a framework within which to understand the shifts in feminist thinking in visual studies as well as an overview of major feminist theories of the visual this reader also explores how issues of race class nationality and sexuality enter into debates about feminism in the field of the visual book cover Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09
