Economics David Mermelstein,1976 Economics David Mermelstein,1976 Economics: mainstream readings and radical critiques, ed., with introductions by D.Mermelstein, special introd David Mermelstein, Making Of Economics, The (4th Edition) - Vol Iii: The Radical Assault E Ray Canterbury,2009-12-14 This book is the first in the field to cover exclusively the modern radical economists Science has always had its radicals economics is unexceptional in this regard The book begins with the persona of Karl Marx and his soulmate Friedrich Engels the most radical of all continuing with the central ideas of Marx including his theory of capitalism and an understanding of why in Marx s view capitalism is doomed Thereafter Thorstein Veblen fills the role as the USA radical who founded the only uniquely American school of economics the institutionalist school This is followed by Joseph Schumpeter and his theory of capitalist motion According to Schumpeter the demise of capitalism is self inflicted through creative destruction The bestselling authors Robert Heilbroner and John Kenneth Galbraith straddle both the insitutionalist and Post Keynesian schools The new left radicals emanated from Galbraith s Harvard University and are still around today The heyday of the new right came during the administration of Ronald Reagan and was led by the neo Austrians Finally the book concludes by analyzing the Post Keynesians claim to be the legitimate heirs to Keynesianism Thus far they fall into the radical camp This book is also available as a Economics: An Introduction to Traditional and Progressive Views Howard J Sherman,E. K. Hunt,Reynold F. Nesiba,Phillip O'Hara,Barbara A. Wiens-Tuers,2015-01-28 This classic text offers a broader intellectual foundation than traditional principles textbooks It introduces students to both traditional economic views and their progressive critique Revised expanded and updated for this new edition the text puts the study of microeconomics macroeconomics and globalization in their historical context While covering the same topics as a traditional text it also offers a richer discussion of economic history and the history of economic thought including the ideas of Karl Marx Thorstein Veblen and John Maynard Keynes This allows students to see economics as a way of understanding the world as a lens for social analysis rather than as immutable truth or ideal to which the world should be molded This completely revised edition incorporates new chapters on microeconomics and macroeconomics as well as more graphs to enhance the theoretical presentations Unlike the previous editions it includes many pedagogical tools to encourage student participation and learning Each of the 56 chapters opens with Learning Objectives and key terms appear in boldface within the text and are listed at the end of each chapter Other end of chapter material includes Summary of Major Points Analytical Questions and References An online Instructor s Manual is available to professors who adopt the text Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Joint Economic Committee United States. The Death of Industrial Civilization Joel Jay Kassiola,1990-01-01 The Death of Industrial Civilization explains how the contemporary ecological crisis within industrial society is caused by the values inherent in unlimited economic growth and competitive materialism Kassiola shows that the limits to growth critique of industrial civilization is the most effective stance against what seems to be a dominant and invincible social order He prescribes the social changes that must be implemented in order to transform industrial society into a sustainable and more satisfying one

The Political Economy of Development Norman T. Uphoff,Warren F. Ilchman,2023-11-15 Ilchman and Uphoff believe that political science has failed in the past to meet its own standards of rigor and cogency and does not meet standards of usefulness and relevance set by others The Political Economy of Change attempts to remedy these shortcomings by expanding the limits of social science analysis to deal with problems of allocation and productivity in all spheres of public choice not just the economic sphere Ilchman and Uphoff believe that political science has failed in the past to meet its own standards of rigor and cogency and does not meet standards of usefulness and relevance set by others The Political Economy of Change attempts to remedy these shortco

The American as Anarchist David DeLeon,2019-12-01 Originally published in 1978 When compared with socialist and communist systems in other nations the impact of radicalism on American society seems almost nonexistent David DeLeon challenges this position however by presenting a historical and theoretical perspective for understanding the scope and significance of dissent in America From Anne Hutchinson in colonial New England to the New Left of the 1960s DeLeon underscores a tradition of radical protest that has endured in American history a tradition of native anarchism that is fundamentally different from the radicalism of Europe the Soviet Union or nations of the Third World DeLeon shows that a profound resistance to authority lies at the very heart of the American value system The first part of the book examines how Protestant belief capitalism and even the American landscape itself contributed to the unique character of American dissent DeLeon then looks at the actions and ideologies of all major forms of American radicalism both individualists and communitarians from laissez faire liberals to anarcho capitalists from advocates of community control to syndicalists In the book s final part DeLeon argues against measuring the American experience by the standards of communism and other political systems Instead he contends that American culture is far more radical than that of any socialist state and the implications of American radicalism are far more revolutionary than forms of Marxism Leninism

the state from fiscal concerns Similarly tax finance is a form of economic exploitation and thus a problem for class analysis O Connor contends that the fiscal crisis of the capitalist state is the inev
