Archetypal Imagination Noel Cobb,1992 This unique book is about freeing psychology s poetic imagination from the dead weight of unconscious assumptions about the soul Whether we think of the soul scientifically or medically behaviorally or in terms of inner development all of us are used to thinking of it in an individual context as something personal In this book however we are asked to consider psychology from a truly transpersonal perspective as a cultural universal human phenomenon Cobb teaches us to look at the world as a record of the soul s struggles to awaken and as the soul s poetry From this perspective the real basis of the mind is poetic Beauty love and creativity are as much instincts of the soul as sexuality or hunger Cobb shows us how artists and mystics can teach us the meaning of love death and beauty if only we can awaken to their creations The exemplars here are Dante Rumi Rilke Munch Lorca Schumann and Tarkovsky
