many works by American Hebrew writers Red Black and Jew illuminates a unique and often overlooked aspect of these literary achievements charting the ways in which the Native American and African American creative cultures served as a model for works produced within the minority Jewish community Exploring the paradox of Hebrew literature in the United States in which separateness and engagement and acculturation are equally strong impulses Stephen Katz presents voluminous examples of a process that could ultimately be considered Americanization Key components of this process Katz argues were poems and works of prose fiction written in a way that evoked Native American forms or African American folk songs and hymns Such Hebrew writings presented America as a unified society that could assimilate all foreign cultures At no other time in the history of Jews in diaspora have Hebrew writers considered the fate of other minorities to such a degree Katz also explores the impact of the creation of the state of Israel on this process a transformation that led to ambivalence in American Hebrew literature as writers were given a choice between two worlds Reexamining long neglected writers across a wide spectrum Red Black and Jew celebrates an important chapter in the history of Hebrew belles lettres A Companion to Josephus Honora Howell Chapman,Zuleika Rodgers,2016-01-19 A Companion to Josephus presents a collection of readings from international scholars that explore the works of the first century Jewish historian Flavius Josephus Represents the first single volume collection of readings to focus on Josephus Covers a wide range of disciplinary approaches to the subject including reception history Features contributions from 29 eminent scholars in the field from four continents Reveals important insights into the Jewish and Roman worlds at the moment when Christianity was gaining ground as a movement Named Outstanding Academic Title of 2016 by Choice Magazine a publication of the American Library Association

Modern Literature in the Near and Middle East, 1850-1970 Robin Ostle,2016-09-19 Enormous political and social changes brought about by modernization have naturally found expression in the literatures of the Near and Middle East The contributors to this book first published in 1991 trace the development of modern literary sensibility in Turkish Arabic Persian and modern Hebrew It is argued that the period can be divided into three broad phases the age of translation after 1850 when formerly self sufficient elites throughout the region began to reach out to the West for new ideas and stylistic models the surge of romantic nationalism after the First World War and the decline of imperialism and the modern period after 1950 a time of growing self awareness and self definition among writers against an often violent background of inter and intra state conflict The product of different nations races and traditions there are nevertheless constant themes in the literatures of this period the colonial heritage nationalism justice poverty and wealth migration from country to city confrontation between self and other and between East and West collapse and rebirth History and Popular Memory Paul A Cohen,2014-05-13 When people experience a traumatic event such as war or the threat of annihilation they often turn to history for stories that promise a positive outcome to their suffering During World War II the French took comfort in the story of Joan of Arc and her heroic efforts to rid France of foreign occupation To bring the Joan narrative more into line with current circumstances popular retellings modified the original story so that what people believed took place in the past was often quite different from what actually occurred Paul A Cohen believes this interplay between story and history is a worldwide phenomenon found in countries of radically different cultural religious and social character He focuses on Serbia Israel the Soviet Union China Great Britain and France all of which experienced severe crises in the twentieth century and in response appropriated age old historical narratives that resonated with what was happening in the present to serve a unifying restorative purpose A central theme in the book is the distinction between popular memory and history Although vitally important to historians this distinction is routinely blurred in people s minds and the historian s truth often cannot compete with the power of a compelling story from the past even when it has been seriously distorted by myth or political manipulation Cohen concludes by suggesting that the patterns of interaction he probes given their near universality may well be rooted in certain human propensities that transcend cultural difference

New Perspectives on Israeli History Laurence J Silberstein,1991-10-01 In this volume a distinguished group of international scholars draws from history folklore political anthropology historiography and cultural criticism to reexamine critical issues surrounding the birth of Israel The authors explore such issues as the transition from yishuv to state early state policy toward the Arab minority the origins of the Palestinian refugee problem the conflict over myths and symbols in the early state early attitude toward Holocaust victims and survivors Arab historiography of the 1948 war Israel Diaspora relations and the shaping of Israeli foreign policy The contributors to the book include Myron J Aronoff Rutgers University Uri Bialer Hebrew University of Jerusalem Neil Caplan Vanier College Montreal Benny Morris Hebrew Univeristy of Jerusalem Don Peretz State University of New York Binghamton Dina Porat Tel Aviv University Jehuda Reinharz Brandeis University Elie Rekhess Tel Aviv University Avraham Sela Hebrew University of Jerusalem Anton Shammas University of Michigan Laurence J Silberstein Lehigh University Kenneth Stein Emory University Yael Zerubavel University of Pennsylvania and Ronald W Zweig Tel Aviv University

Recovered Roots Yael Zerubavel,1995 Because new nations need new pasts they create new ways of commemorating and recasting select historic events In Recovered Roots Yael Zerubavel illuminates this dynamic process by examining the construction of Israeli national tradition In the years leading to the birth of Israel Zerubavel shows Zionist settlers in Palestine consciously sought to rewrite Jewish history by reshaping Jewish memory Zerubavel focuses on the nationalist reinterpretation of the defense of Masada against the Romans in 73 C E and the Bar Kokhba revolt of 133 135 and on the transformation of the 1920 defense of a new Jewish settlement in Tel Hai into a national myth Zerubavel demonstrates how in each case Israeli memory transforms events that ended in death and defeat into heroic myths and symbols of national revival Drawing on a broad range of official and popular sources and original interviews Zerubavel shows that the construction of a new national tradition is not necessarily the product of government policy but a creative collaboration between politicians writers and educators Her discussion of the politics of commemoration demonstrates how rival groups can turn the past into an arena of conflict as they posit competing interpretations of history and opposing moral claims on the use of the past Zerubavel analyzes the emergence of counter memories within the reality of Israel s frequent wars the ensuing debates about the future of the occupied territories and the embattled relations with Palestinians A fascinating examination of the interplay between history and memory this book will appeal to historians sociologists anthropologists political scientists and folklorists as well as to scholars of cultural studies literature and communication Terrorism in Context Martha Crenshaw,2010-11-01 Against the Apocalypse David G. Roskies,1999-12-01 Against the Apocalypse explores how Jewish communities have historically responded to catastrophe particularly through literature memory and cultural traditions The book examines the resilience and creativity of Jewish writers and thinkers in the face of destruction from ancient times to the Holocaust Roskies delves into themes of mourning survival and the refusal to surrender offering a scholarly yet deeply moving analysis of Jewish responses to historical trauma The Desert Experience in Israel Alexander Paul Hare,Gideon M. Kressel,2009 This book shares the responses of settlers artists poets scientists and educators who lived near the Blaustein Institute in the Negev Desert of Israel as they answer the question What difference has living in the desert year round made in your work Land of Refuge Gur Alroey,2024-08 After the First World War tens of thousands of Jews immigrated to Palestine They went there not to found a Zionist state but primarily to seek refuge from the violence and persecution of the Russian Civil War and its aftermath Fleeing to the United States was not an option due to heavily restrictive immigration laws enacted there in the early 1920s In Land of Refuge the experiences of this generation of Jewish immigrants come vividly to life through a wealth of previously unstudied archival sources Historian Gur Alroey skillfully weaves together the riveting and remarkable stories of survivors of pogroms and riots in Ukraine and Uramia including widows orphans and survivors of rape and other unimaginable violence migrants who risked harrowing journeys by boat only to endure illness on the way be detained or sent back or have their luggage broken into or stolen survivors of the famine in Russia during the Lenin and Stalin regimes and marginalized Jews such as the mentally ill thieves prostitutes and those with falsified entry visas The stories of the people at the core of Land of Refuge form an important but little appreciated part of the history of the Jewish settlement in the Land of Israel      International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa
