Ahmed, Hastings Donnan, 2003-09-02 This book examines the cultural responses of Muslims to the transformations contradictions and challenges confronting contemporary Islam as it moves towards the twenty first century The diffusion of populations the globalization of culture and the forces of postmodernity have shaken the world like never before These developments have generated a debate among Muslims which as the contributors to this volume show will have far reaching consequences not just for the Muslim world but for relations between Islam and the West more generally

Islam Encountering Globalisation Ali Mohammadi, 2012-11-12 One of the greatest dilemmas facing Muslims today is the fact that Muslim culture is often seemingly incompatible with the culture of the modern Western world and the features associated with it technological progress consumerism and new electronic communication all of which have the potential for a homogenizing effect on any culture This book explores many key aspects of the globalisation process discussing how Muslim countries are coping with globalisation as well as considering how the West is responding to Islam

Islam in the Age of Globalization Asif Mohiuddin, 2024-11-29 Globalization has been a central theme in political economic cultural and religious debates since the turn of the century While some see it as a solution others consider it the root of our problems The intensification of cultural and military warfare and the West v the Rest mentality fuels a deep seated ethnocentrism Religion meanwhile faces scrutiny from various fundamentalisms and grand narratives Many modern Muslim thinkers are skeptical of globalization perceiving it as a homogenizing force that spreads Western culture and concentrates power among a few nations They argue that Islam promotes human oneness and provides an intellectual and spiritual framework for a more civilized and universal approach to globalization opposing the Western centric hegemonic tendencies The goal of this book is to demonstrate that Islam favors globalization in its original voluntary form as opposed to the violent imposition of the West on the East It will examine Muslim responses to globalization and their attempts to find global answers to local problems in their own local regional national and global contexts Several academic works have explored various aspects of globalization focusing on tensions and conflicts such as power politics religious authority and legislative issues However there is a notable absence of attention given to the Islamic perspective on globalization including both appreciation and critique This book addresses this gap by offering not only a Muslim critique of globalization but also a broader framework for understanding Islam s unique perspective on globalization Does globalization support the inclusivity that Islam advocates How does Islam fit into the globalization era What impact and influence may Muslims have on the future of globalization What unique prospects does globalization provide Muslims and the Islamic faith Is Islamic revivalism a reaction to globalization Alternatives to globalization could exist What kind of structure will the Islamic globalization paradigm have In addition to addressing these questions the book attempts to provide a theoretical framework for Islamic globalization which incorporates the shuratic practice and the vision of an international community extending beyond the

Arabs and non Arabs This underscores the importance of historical contexts for contemporary actions and beliefs In the process the book attempts to extend the debate on Islam and globalization by mapping out the effects of globalization on various aspects of Muslim culture
