Islamic Tradition An Introduction:

The Islamic Tradition Victor Danner, 1988 The Islamic Tradition Abd-al-Jabbar Danner, 1991 Politics of the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Moussa, 2015-10-05 Over the last two centuries the Muslim world has undergone dramatic transformations impacting the Islamic tradition and throwing into question our understanding of tradition The notion of tradition as an unmoving edifice is contradicted by the very process of its transmission and the complex role human beings play in creating and sustaining traditions is evident in the indigenous mechanisms of change within the Islamic tradition Politics of the Islamic Tradition locates the work of Egyptian cleric Muhammad al Ghazali within the context of this dynamic Islamic tradition with special focus on his political thought Al Ghazali inherited a vast and diverse heritage which he managed to reinterpret in a changing world An innovative exploration of the change and continuity present within Muslim discourses this book brings together disparate threads of the Islamic tradition religious exegesis the contemporary Arab Middle East the Islamic state and idea of renewal in al Ghazali s thought As well as being one of the first complete treatments of al Ghazali s works this book provides an original critical approach to tradition and its capability for innovation and change countering the dichotomy between tradition and modernity that typically informs most scholarly studies on contemporary Islam Offering highly original insights into Islamic thought and engaging with critical notions of tradition this book is essential reading for students and scholars of Islamic Politics and History Reclaiming Islamic Tradition Elisabeth Kendall, 2018-08-23 This book profiles some of the fundamental debates that have defined the conversation between the past and the present in the Islamic world including Qur anic exegesis Islamic law gender violence and eschatology Paradise and Hell in Islamic Traditions Christian Lange, 2016 This book covers the theological philosophical mystical topographical architectural and ritual aspects of the Muslim belief in paradise and hell A New Introduction to Islam Daniel W. Brown, 2017-02-16 Covering the origins key features and legacy of the Islamic tradition the third edition of A New Introduction to Islam includes new material on Islam in the 21st century and discussions of the impact of historical ideas literature and movements on contemporary trends Includes updated and rewritten chapters on the Qur an and hadith literature that covers important new academic research Compares the practice of Islam in different Islamic countries as well as acknowledging the differences within Islam as practiced in Europe Features study questions for each chapter and more illustrative material charts and excerpts from primary sources Engaging Islamic Traditions Bernie Power, 2016-04-19 The Hadith have long been neglected by Christians yet they may hold the key to reaching Muslims with the good news of Jesus Christ In this ground breaking book the earliest traditions of Islam are assessed from a biblical perspective Insights into the Islamic worldview and potential springboards to Christian truth are uncovered along the way For those contextualizing the gospel to Muslim friends and colleagues this book seeks for concord and connection with Muslim thinking while maintaining a clear commitment to Jesus Christ and his gospel Esoteric Islam: A Hermetic Perspective on Islamic Traditions Sachal

Smith,2021-06-15 There are always two ways of understanding religions whose origins stem from hermetic traditions of ancient Egypt Greece and Babylon namely Exoteric and Esoteric whether they be Hinduism Judaism Christianity or Islam In the book Esoteric Islam I describe Islam to be one of the reflections of hermetic philosophy and representative of the ideals of great ancient teachings of Astrology and Alchemy The book Esoteric Islam includes the interpretation of Islamic traditions by use of the hermetic arts of Astrology and Alchemy It discusses the mystical teachings of Quran from the standpoint of ancient mysteries and modern metaphysics It attempts to understand the message of Quran in its structural designs alongside the principle tenets so as to unravel the mystique of this very impressive literature

Domestic Violence and the Islamic Tradition Ayesha S. Chaudhry,2013-12 A frank personal investigation into the contentious issue of marital violence within Islamic law Drawing heavily on the author s own experience the book explores the attempt to reconcile a tradition of patriarchal authority with egalitarian values The book presents an insightful and provocative contribution to the debate about women in Islam

Animals in Islamic Tradition and Muslim Cultures Richard Foltz,2014-10-01 From references to animals in the Qu ran to modern day websites on Islamic vegetarianism Richard C Foltz presents the first comprehensive study of the role of animals in the Islamic tradition Drawing on a wide range of sources including classic mysticism Foltz traces the development of Islamic attitudes towards animals over the centuries and confronts the key ethical questions facing Muslims today Modern advances in science and technology and the increasing prevalence of techniques such as bioengineering and factory farming have forced many religions to reassess their traditional notions of animal rights and as Foltz demonstrates Muslims are increasingly asking their tradition to respond to such issues Scholarly yet accessible this is an original and informative contribution to Islamic studies and will be essential reading for anyone Muslim or non Muslim with an interest in the significance of religion and culture for the contemporary animal rights debate

Manuscript and Print in the Islamic Tradition Scott Reese,2022-09-06 This volume explores and calls into question certain commonly held assumptions about writing and technological advancement in the Islamic tradition In particular it challenges the idea that mechanical print naturally and inevitably displaces handwritten texts as well as the notion that the so called transition from manuscript to print is unidirectional Indeed rather than distinct technologies that emerge in a progressive series one naturally following the other they frequently co exist in complex and complementary relationships relationships we are only now starting to recognize and explore The book brings together essays by internationally recognized scholars from an array of disciplines including philology linguistics religious studies history anthropology and typography whose work focuses on the written word channeled through various media as a social and cultural phenomenon within the Islamic tradition These essays promote systematic approaches to the study of Islamic writing cultures writ large in an effort to further our understanding of the social cultural and intellectual relationships between manuscripts printed texts and the people who use and create them

A History of Islamic Schooling in North America Nadeem A. Memon,2019-09-24 This insightful text challenges popular belief that faith based Islamic schools isolate Muslim learners impose dogmatic religious views and disregard academic excellence This book attempts to paint a starkly different picture Grounded in the premise that not all Islamic schools are the same the historical narratives illustrate varied visions and approaches to Islamic schooling that showcase a richness of educational thought and aspiration A History of Islamic Schooling in North America traces the growth and evolution of elementary and secondary private Islamic schools in Canada and the United States Intersecting narratives between schools established by indigenous African American Muslims as early as the 1930s with those established by immigrant Muslim communities in the 1970s demonstrate how and why Islamic Education is in a constant ongoing process of evolution renewal and adaptation Drawing on the voices perspectives and narratives of pioneers and visionaries who established the earliest Islamic schools chapters articulate why Islamic schools were established what distinguishes them from one another and why they continue to be important This book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics teaching professionals in the fields of Islamic education religious studies multicultural education curriculum studies and faith based teacher education Islamic Traditions and Muslim Youth in Norway Christine

Jacobsen,2010-12-17 A major question regarding Islam in Europe concerns the religiosity of Muslim youth a category currently epitomizing both the fears and hopes of multicultural Europe How are Islamic traditions engaged and reworked by young people born and educated in European societies and which modes of religiosity will they shape in the future Providing an in depth ethnographic account from Norway this book engages comparative research on Islam and young Muslims from across Europe focusing on Islamic revitalization Muslim identity politics changing configurations of religious authority and the formation of gendered religious subjectivities The author discusses anthropological and other social science theorizing in order to examine religious continuities and discontinuities in a context of international migration globalization and secular modernity Islamic Philosophy from Its Origin to the Present Seyyed Hossein Nasr,2006-05-11 A comprehensive overview of the Islamic philosophical tradition AIslamic Philosophy from Its Origin to the Present offers a comprehensive overview of Islamic philosophy from the ninth century to the present day As Seyyed Hossein Nasr attests within this tradition philosophizing is done in a world in which prophecy is the central reality of life a reality related not only to the realms of action and ethics but also to the realm of knowledge Comparisons with Jewish and Christian philosophies highlight the relation between reason and revelation that is philosophy and religion Nasr presents Islamic philosophy in relation to the Islamic tradition as a whole but always treats this philosophy as philosophy not simply as intellectual history In addition to chapters dealing with the general historical development of Islamic philosophy several chapters are devoted to later and mostly unknown philosophers The work also pays particular attention to the Persian tradition Nasr stresses that the Islamic tradition is a living tradition with significance for the contemporary Islamic world and its relationship with the West In providing this seminal introduction to a tradition little understood in the West Nasr also shows readers that Islamic philosophy has much to offer the contemporary world as a whole Seyyed Hossein Nasr is University Professor of Islamic Studies at The George Washington University He is the author and editor of many books including Islam Religion History and Civilization

Introduction to Eastern Thought Mari etta Tigranovna Stepani a nt s ,2002 This text looks at the Eastern way of thinking How did philosophy arise What is the origin of order in the universe What is human nature What is truth These questions are answered from the viewpoint of Indian Chinese and Islamic traditions Essays look at how Eastern thought has dealt with Western contact in the 19th and 20th centuries Ancient and modern writings are placed in their cultural context to give access to specific arguments

Introduction to Middle Eastern Law Chibli Mallat,2007-07-12 This book provides an introduction to the laws of the Middle East defining the contours of a field of study that deserves to be called Middle Eastern law It introduces Middle Eastern law as a reflection of legal styles many of which are shared by Islamic law and the laws of Christian and Jewish Near Eastern communities It offers a detailed survey of the foundations of Middle Eastern law using court archives and an array of legal sources from the earliest records of Hammurabi to the massive compendia of law in the Islamic classical age through to the latest decisions of Middle Eastern high courts It focuses on the way legislators and courts conceive of law and apply it in the Middle East It builds on the author s extensive legal practice with the aim of introducing the Middle Eastern law s main sources and concepts in a manner accessible to non specialist legal scholars and practitioners alike The book begins with an exploration of the depth and variety of Middle Eastern law introducing the concepts of shari a fiqh and qanun which all mean law and dwelling on Islamic law as the common law of the Middle East It provides a historical introduction to the contemporary Middle East exploring political systems constitutional law judicial review the laws of tort and obligations commercial law including Islamic banking company law capital markets and commercial arbitration and examines legislative reform in family law and the position of women in the legal system The author considers the interaction between Islamic and Western laws and includes a bibliography designed for further research into the jurisdictions and themes explored throughout the book

Muslim Women, Domestic Violence, and Psychotherapy Nazila Isgandarova,2018-09-03 Muslim Women Domestic Violence and Psychotherapy reconciles newly emerging Islamic practical theology with the findings and theories of contemporary social sciences It is an inquiry about the lived experience of the Islamic tradition and its application in Islamic counseling with Muslim women subject to domestic violence By incorporating a holistic examination of the worldview personhood and understanding of social and religious obligations of Muslim women in counseling this book shows how practitioners can empower clients facing trauma and abuse to explore feasible solutions and decrease worry anxiety and other negative emotions
