Narcoepics Hermann Herlinghaus, 2013-02-14 Narcoepics Unbound foregrounds the controversial yet mostly untheorized phenomenon of contemporary Latin American narcoepics Dealing with literary works and films whose characteristics are linked to illicit global exchange informal labor violence bare life drug consumption and ritualistic patterns of identity it argues for a new theoretical approach to better understand these narratives of intoxication Foregrounding the art that has arisen from or seeks to describe drug culture Herlinghaus comparative study looks at writers such as Gutierrez JJ Rodriguez Reverte films such as City of God and the narratives surrounding cultural villains heroes such as Pablo Escobar Narcoepics shows that that in order to grasp the aesthetic and ethical core of these narratives it is pivotal first to develop an aesthetics of sobriety The aim is to establish a criteria for a new kind of literary studies in which cultural hermeneutics plays as much a part as political philosophy analysis of religion and neurophysiological inquiry

Narrating Narcos presents a probing examination of the prominent role of narcotics trafficking in contemporary Latin American cultural production. In her study, Gabriela Polit Due as juxtaposes two infamous narco regions: Culiacan, Mexico, and Medellin, Colombia, to demonstrate the powerful forces of violence, corruption, and avarice and their influence over locally based cultural texts. Polit Due as provides a theoretical basis for her methods, citing the work of Walter Benjamin, Pierre Bourdieu, and other cultural analysts. She supplements this with extensive ethnographic fieldwork, interviewing artists and writers, their confidants, relatives, and others, and documents their responses to the portrayal of narco culture. Polit Due as offers close readings of the characters' language and milieu of popular works of literature and the visual arts and relates their ethical and thematic undercurrents to real life experiences. In both regions, there are few individuals who have not been personally affected by the narcotics trade. Each region has witnessed corrupt state police and paramilitary actors in league with drug capos. Both have a legacy of murder. Polit Due as documents how narco culture developed at different times historically in the two regions. In Mexico, drugs have been cultivated and trafficked for over a century, while in Colombia, the cocaine trade is a relatively recent development. In Culiacan, characters in narco narratives are often modeled after the serrano highlander, a romanticized historic figure and sometime thief who nobly defied a corrupt state and its laws. In Medellin, the oft-portrayed sicario assassin is a recent creation, an individual recruited by drug lords from poverty-stricken shantytowns who would have little economic opportunity otherwise. As Polit Due as shows, each character occupies a different place in the psyche of the local populace. Narrating Narcos offers a unique melding of archival and ground-level research combined with textual analysis. Here, the relationship of writer, subject, and audience becomes clearly evident, and our understanding of the cultural bonds of Latin American drug trafficking is greatly enhanced. As such, this book will be an important resource for students and scholars of Latin American literature, history, culture, and contemporary issues.
