The Journal Society of Dyers and Colourists, Bradford, Eng. (Yorkshire),1889 Imperial Project, Imperial, California United States. Bureau of Land Management. El Centro Resource Area,1997 A Community of One Martin A. Danahay,1993-08-24 Complementing recent feminist studies of female self representation this book examines the dynamics of masculine self representation in nineteenth century British literature Arguing that the category autobiography was a product of nineteenth century individualism the author analyzes the dependence of the nineteenth century masculine subject on autonomy or self naming as the prerequisite for the composition of a life history The masculine autobiographer achieves this autonomy by using a feminized other as a metaphorical mirror for the self The feminized other in these texts represents the social cost of masculine autobiography Authors from Wordsworth to Arnold including Samuel Taylor Coleridge Thomas De Quincey John Ruskin Alfred Tennyson Robert Louis Stevenson John Stuart Mill and Edmund Gosse use female lovers and family members as symbols for the community with which they feel they have lost contact In the theoretical introduction the author argues that these texts actually privilege the autonomous self over the images of community they ostensibly value creating in the process a self enclosed and self referential community of one The New Technical Educator ,1895

Best,2010-05-15 In this study of literature and law before and since the Civil War Stephen M Best shows how American conceptions of slavery property and the idea of the fugitive were profoundly interconnected The Fugitive s Properties uncovers a poetics of intangible personified property emerging out of antebellum laws circulating through key nineteenth century works of literature and informing cultural forms such as blackface minstrelsy and early race films Best also argues that legal principles dealing with fugitives and indebted persons provided a sophisticated precursor to intellectual property law as it dealt with rights in appearance expression and other abstract aspects of personhood In this conception of property as fleeting indeed fugitive American law preserved for much of the rest of the century slavery s most pressing legal imperative the production of personhood as a market commodity By revealing the paradoxes of this relationship between fugitive slave law and intellectual property law Best helps us to understand how race achieved much of its force in the American cultural imagination A work of ambitious scope and compelling cross connections The Fugitive s Properties sets new agendas for scholars of American literature and legal culture

BC) Chrysanthi Gallou,2019-12-27 A Silent Place Death in Mycenaean Lakonia is the first book length systematic study of the Late Bronze Age LBA burial tradition in south eastern Peloponnese Greece and the first to comprehensively present and discuss all Mycenaean tombs and funerary contexts excavated and or simply reported in the region from the 19th century to present day The book will discuss and reconstruct the emergence and development of the Mycenaean mortuary tradition in Lakonia by examining the landscape of death the burial architecture the funerary and post funerary customs and rituals and offering patterns over a longue dur e The author proposes patterns of continuity from the Middle Bronze Age even the Early Bronze Age in terms of burial architecture to the LBA and equally important from the Late Bronze Age to the Early Iron Age and reconstructs diachronic processes of invention of tradition and identity in Mycenaean communities on the basis of tomb types and their material culture The text highlights the social political and economic history of Late Bronze Age Lakonia from the evolution of the Mycenaean civilisation and the establishment of palatial administration in the Spartan vale to the demise of Mycenaean culture and the turbulent post collapse centuries as reflected by the burial offerings The book also brings to publication the chamber tombs at Epidavros Limera that remained largely unpublished since their excavation in the 1930s and 1950s Epidavros Limera was one of the most important prehistoric coastal sites in prehistoric southern Greece early 3rd late 4th millennium BC and one of the main harbour towns of the Mycenaean administrative centres of central Lakonia It is one of very few Mycenaean sites that flourished uninterruptedly from the emergence of the Mycenaean civilisation until after the collapse of the palatial administration and into the transition to the Early Iron Age The present study of the funerary architecture and of the pottery from the tombs suggests that the site was responsible for the introduction of the chamber tomb type on the Greek mainland in the latest phase of the Middle Bronze Age definitely no later than the transitional Middle
