Teethmarks on My Tongue Eileen Battersby,2016-11-09 The gunning down of her mother in a Richmond street sets young Helen Stockton Defoe on a journey of self discovery A physical feature she had first noticed when she was nine years old has made her feel apart and she has quietly capitalized on the privilege never mind the aura which surrounds her She lives in her head and fills her thoughts and days with science horses and art The more intently she begins to observe her remote detached father the more she learns about her place within the rarefied world she inhabits Just when it appears she is at last becoming closer to him it all falls apart as he coldly undermines her abiding passions which causes her to question the identity she has created Her rebellion leads her to Europe on a disturbing path dominated by chance and an evolving self realization As a result of these experiences she gains an ability to feel deeply something from which she had always felt somehow excluded This most unusual coming of age novel with its impressive characterization humor and vivid sense of place takes its clever if barely street wise and increasingly obsessive teenaged narrator on a physical as well as psychological journey towards an astute hard fought and deserved maturity Dreams of the Overworked Christine M. Beckman,Melissa Mazmanian,2020-06-09 A riveting look at the real reasons Americans feel inadequate in the face of their dreams and a call to celebrate how we support one another in the service of family and work in our daily life Jay's days are filled with back to back meetings but he always leaves work in time to pick his daughter up from swimming at 7pm knowing he'll be back on his laptop later that night Linda thinks wistfully of the treadmill in her garage as she finishes folding the laundry that's been in the dryer for the last week Rebecca sits with one child in front of a packet of math homework while three others clamor for her attention In Dreams of the Overworked Christine M Beckman and Melissa Mazmanian offer vivid sketches of daily life for nine families capturing what it means to live work and parent in a world of impossible expectations now amplified unlike ever before by smart devices We are invited into homes and offices where we recognize the crushing pressure of unraveling plans and the healing warmth of being together Moreover we witness the constant planning that goes into a good day often with the aid of phones and apps Yet as technologies empower us to do more they also promise limitless availability and connection Checking email on the weekend monitoring screen time and counting steps are all part of the daily routine The stories in this book challenge the seductive myth of the phone clad individual by showing that beneath the plastic veneer of technology is a complex hidden system of support our dreams being scaffolded by retired in laws friendly neighbors spouses and paid help This book makes a compelling case for celebrating the structures that allow us to strive for our dreams by supporting public policies and community organizations challenging workplace norms reimagining family and valuing the joy of human connection
