Stories from the Riverbank Clifford R. Roberts,2008-06 Stories From the Riverbank is a collection of published newspaper columns and personal writings that offer glimpses of the cultural personal and natural history of northern Michigan through the eyes of a lifelong resident Clifford R Roberts of Onaway shares stories and observations infused with local color and history from the Depression era to the present Born and raised in sight of Onaway s grain elevator Roberts shares personal and family stories of growing up in a small town whose claim to fame in the early 1900s was Onaway Steers the World by making wooden steering wheels for cars Fishing and boating on Michigan s lakes rivers and streams figure largely in these tales as do stories of hunting school and family life Roberts keen observations of nature especially wildlife and birds from his vantage point living on the banks of the Black River and Black Lake comprise the major portion of these writings As a columnist for his hometown s paper The Onaway Outlook for more than twenty years he shares the best of his writings from columns entitled From the Riverbank From the Lakeshore and On the Road From the Pilot Factory, 1942 William Mitchell,2005

Mitchell's experiences were similar to those of thousands of young men. Because his mother kept his wartime letters, readers of this book can catch glimpses of a world long vanished and an era that now seems innocent and naive. Mitchell worried about washing out but he eventually learned to do nighttime blitz landings without lights to loop and roll and recover from a spin to identify an aircraft from its silhouette and to navigate cross country. Like many of his peers, he wanted to be a pursuit pilot but he was assigned to C-47s, a disappointment to which he resigned himself. As a member of the 73d Squadron of the 434th Troop Carrier Group, he delivered glider infantry at Normandy, dropped airborne troops during Operation Market Garden, and supplied the 101st Airborne Division during the Battle of the Bulge.
