Handbook On Continuing Higher Education:

Handbook on Continuing Higher Education Quentin H. Gessner, 1987      A Handbook for Professional Development in Continuing Higher Education National University Continuing Education Association (U.S.), David Michael Johnson, 1990

A Handbook for Professional Development in Continuing Higher Education National University Continuing Education Association, 1990      Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Arthur L. Wilson, Elisabeth Hayes, 2009-04-27
Sponsored by the American Association of Adult Continuing Education This monumental work is a testimony to the science of adult education and the skills of Wilson and Hayes It is a veritable feast for nourishing our understanding of the current field of adult education The editors and their well chosen colleagues consistently question how we know and upon what grounds we act They invite us to consider not only how we can design effective adult education but also why we practice in a particular socio economic context Jane Vella author of Taking Learning to Task and Learning to Listen Learning to Teach This new handbook captures the exciting intellectual and professional development of our field in the last decade It is an indispensable resource for faculty students and professionals Jack Mezirow emeritus professor Adult and Continuing Education Teachers College Columbia University For nearly seventy years the handbooks of adult and continuing education have been definitive references on the best practices programs and institutions in the field In this new edition over sixty leading authorities share their diverse perspectives in a single volume exploring a wealth of topics including learning from experience adult learning for self development race and culture in adult learning technology and distance learning learning in the workplace adult education for community action and development and much more Much more than a catalogue of theory and historical facts this handbook strongly reflects the values of adult educators and instructors who are dedicated to promoting social and educational opportunity for learners and to sustaining fair and ethical practices      Handbook of Distance Education Michael Grahame Moore, William G. Anderson, 2003-04-02 The second edition of this award winning book continues the mission of its predecessor to provide a comprehensive compendium of research in all aspects of distance education arguably the most significant development in education over the past quarter century While the book deals with education that uses technology the focus is on teaching and learning and how its management can be facilitated through technology This volume will be of interest to anyone engaged in distance education at either the K 12 or college level It is also appropriate for corporate and government trainers and for administrators and policy makers in all these environments

A Guide for Leaders in Higher Education Brent D. Ruben, Richard De Lisi, Ralph A. Gigliotti, 2023-07-03 FIRST EDITION SPECIAL RECOGNITION Winner of the 2018 Sue DeWine Distinguished Scholarly Book Award National Communication Association Applied Communication Division REVIEWS OF THE FIRST EDITION The book provides frameworks and resources that would be highly relevant for new and aspiring department chairs In fact this text is ideally designed to serve as a selection for a book discussion group The Department Chair Succeeds in providing accessible and useful resources to individuals across different leadership roles As a midpoint between textbook and reference work it is successful at both and provides a clear and unbiased background to issues facing current leaders Reflective Teaching During a time of unprecedented challenges facing higher education the need for effective leadership for informal and formal leaders across the organization has never been more imperative Since publication of the first edition the environment for higher education has become more critical and complex Whether facing falling enrollments questions of economic sustainability the changing composition of the faculty and student bodies differential retention and graduation rates declining public confidence in the enterprise or the rise in the use of virtual technologies not to mention how COVID 19 and an intensified focus on long standing issues of racial and gender representation and equity have impacted institutions and challenged many long standing assumptions it is clear that learning on the job no longer suffices Leadership development in higher education has become essential for advancing institutional effectiveness which is the focus of this book Taking into account the imperative issues of diversity inclusion and belonging and the context of institutional mission and culture this book centers on developing capacities for designing and implementing plans strategies and structures connecting and engaging with colleagues and students and communicating and collaborating with external constituencies in order to shape decisions and policies It highlights the need to think broadly about the purposes of higher education and the dynamics of organizational excellence and to apply these insights effectively in goal setting planning and change leadership outcomes assessment addressing crises and continuous improvement at both the level of the individual and organization The concepts and tools in this book are equally valuable for faculty and staff leaders whether in formal leadership roles such as deans chairs or directors of institutes committees or task forces or those who perform informal leadership functions within their departments disciplines or institutions It can be used as a professional guide a textbook in graduate courses or as a resource in leadership training and development programs Each chapter concludes with a series of case studies and guiding questions

Handbook of Teaching and Learning Social Research Methods Melanie Nind,2023-09-06 This comprehensive Handbook illustrates the wide range of approaches to teaching and learning social research methods in the classroom online in the field and in informal contexts Bringing together contributors from varied disciplines and nations it represents a landmark in the development of pedagogical culture for social research methods      New England Journal of Education ,1897      Evaluating Corporate Training: Models and Issues Stephen M. Brown,Constance J. Seidner,2012-12-06 We are glad to have the opportunity to work together again in the planning and preparation of this edited volume on the evaluation of corporate training Our respective professional careers have provided us with experience in this area both as practitioners and as academicians It is from both of these perspectives that we approached the preparation of this volume Our purpose is to provide training professionals in business and industry and students of human resources development with an overview of current models and issues in educational evaluation The book is organized around three themes context models and issues The chapters in the context section are intended to provide the reader with an understanding of the social organizational and interpersonal factors that provide background and give meaning to evaluation practice The models section brings together contributions from some of the most influential thinkers and practitioners in the field The chapters in this section provide perspective on the dominant themes and emergent trends from individuals who have been and continue to be the drivers of those trends Contributions to the issues section highlight some pervasive themes as well as illuminate new areas of concern and interest that will affect how we assess learning interventions in the organizations of today and tomorrow      The Role of Library Science Departments of Teachers Colleges and Universities in Continuing Professional Education for Librarians in Thailand Smarn Loipha,1992      Teaching and Learning the Arts in Higher Education with Technology Joyce Hwee Ling Koh,Rebecca Yen Pei Kan,2021-12-02 This book is an inquiry about the possibilities of using technology to support the education of artists within higher education contexts Even though technology enhanced learning and teaching may seem incongruent with the long established studio based cultures of making and performing it is increasingly becoming a pivotal point to connect artistes to potential audience and markets Amidst the COVID 19 pandemic technology is also the crucial linchpin for educational continuity of student artists This book explores how technology could enhance the education of artists and designers as they continue to create make and add value to life and society through their artistry It draws upon the experiences of the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts NAFA a pioneering arts institution in Singapore with over 80 years of institutional history Through 9 vignettes this book illustrates technology enhanced pedagogical practices that have been implemented in different artistic learning spaces including classroom studio and stage as well as institutional support strategies With a naturalistic stance these chapters seek to illuminate realistic pictures of teaching and learning that are being uncovered by artist educators as they sought to integrate technology within teaching practices using available technologies and within the classes that they are teaching It is hoped that this book will stimulate conversation among artist educators about possible pedagogical models as well as inform higher arts institutions about the contextual strategies needed to support the creation of technology enhanced pedagogical practices
