Desire, Gift, and Recognition Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2009-02-15 A major work in the philosophy of religion this book interprets the Jesus story in terms of postmodern philosophy particularly using Jacques Derrida's categories of desire gift and recognition Author Jan Olav Henriksen also attempts to reformulate Christology without resorting to such metaphysical concepts as substance transcendence etc While not denying traditional doctrines Henriksen explicates the meaning of Jesus life and death in ways that engage contemporary philosophy and challenge contemporary academic Christians to rethink the basics of their faith and he outlines the possibility of a post metaphysical Christology Henriksen's book is a clearly reasoned guide not only to the argument that Christology still has something to say to contemporary believers but also to ways in which theologians must learn to reconnect to everyday human experience American Book Publishing Record ,2006
