El Amor Que Me Juraste:

El amor que me juraste Silvia Molina, 1998 La historia nos cuenta la experiencia de una mujer llamada Marcela que al enfrentarse a una desilusión amorosa muy fuerte y que la deja muy mal anímicamente decide marcharse al lugar en donde se guardan todos los recuerdos y orígenes familiares Estando en el lugar comienza un viaje por las generaciones de sus antepasados y junto con ello las preguntas que alguna vez se hiciera comenzaron a ser respondidas El dolor la sorpresa el engaño o la culpa el aburrimiento son parte de lo nuevo que va descubriendo pero lo más importante es que un secreto que su progenitora le escondió por tanto tiempo es el mejor reflejo para entender que las experiencias vividas en su vida son el espejo de su pasado familiar

Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E. Abarca, 2006 Literally chilaquiles are a breakfast I grew up eating fried corn tortillas with tomato chile sauce Symbolically they are the culinary metaphor for how working class women speak with the seasoning of their food from the Introduction Through the ages and across cultures women have carved out a domain in which their cooking allowed them to express themselves strengthen family relationships and create a world of shared meanings with other women In Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E. Abarca features the voices of her mother and several other family members and friends seated at their kitchen tables to share the grassroots world view of these working class Mexican and Mexican American women In the kitchen Abarca demonstrates women assert their own seasoning not only in their cooking but also in their lives Through a series of oral histories or charlas culinarias culinary chats the women interviewed address issues of space sensual knowledge artistic and narrative expression and cultural and social change From her mother's breakfast chilaquiles to the most elaborate traditional dinner these women share their lives as they share their savory symbolic and theoretical meanings of food The charlas culinarias represent spoken personal narratives testimonial autobiography and a form of culinary memoir one created by the cooks as writers who speak from their kitchen space Abarca then looks at writers as cooks to add an additional dimension to the understanding of women's power to define themselves Voices in the Kitchen joins the extensive culinary research of the last decade in exploring the importance of the knowledge found in the practical concrete and temporal aspects of the ordinary practice of everyday cooking

Ambivalence, Modernity, Power Nuala Finnegan, 2007 By incorporating a variety of critical approaches within a feminist framework the author here argues that Mexican women writers participate in a crucial project of unsettling dominant discourses as they strive for new ways of capturing the ambivalent position of the Mexican women in their texts

Through Their Eyes Nathaniel Gardner, Nathaniel Eli Gardner, 2007 Even though Elena Poniatowska is considered to be one of the most important female writers in present day Mexico few book length studies have been dedicated to her work This book focuses on the writings of Elena Poniatowska and also on the work of her former students Silvia Molina and Rosa Nissón A brief history of the literary workshop that links the three together is also provided Although the three writers are quite different in several respects they share one common element that is central to their writings the depiction of marginal members of society With reference to Subaltern Studies this study analyses how the subaltern is represented in the works of each writer The Companion to Latin American Studies Philip Swanson, 2014-04-04 What is Latin American Studies This companion gives a concise and accessible overview of the discipline Covering a wide range of topics from colonial cultures and identity to US Latino culture and issues of race gender and sexuality this book goes beyond conventional literary companions and situates Latin America in its historical social political literary and cultural context This essential book provides the key introductory information on the subject and will be especially useful for students taking or considering taking courses in Hispanic or Latin American Studies Written by an international team of experts each chapter supplies the necessary basic information and a sound introduction to central ideas issues and debates In addition to 12 chapters on the main topics in Latin American Studies the companion includes an introduction time chart glossary and suggestions for further reading "No me leas", ó, Cien composiciones en verso Isabel Cisneros, 1926 The Boom Femenino in Mexico Nuala Finnegan, Jane E. Lavery, 2010-04-16 The Boom Femenino in Mexico Reading Contemporary Women's Writing is a collection of essays that focuses on literary production by women in Mexico over the last three decades In its exploration of the boom femenino phenomenon the book traces the history of the earlier boom in Latin American culture and investigates the implications of the use of the same term in the context of contemporary women's writing from Mexico In this way it engages critically with the cultural historical and literary significance of the term illuminating the concept for a wide range of readers It is clear that the entry of so many women writers into an arena traditionally reserved for men has prompted discussion around concepts such as women's writing and the very definition of literature itself Many of the contributors grapple with the theoretical tensions that such debates provoke offering an important opportunity to think critically about the texts produced during this period and the ways in which they have impacted on the Mexican and international cultural spheres The project is comprehensive in its scope and for the first time brings together scholars from Mexico the U S and Europe in a transnational forum The book posits that despite certain aesthetic and thematic commonalities the increased output by women writers in Mexico cannot be appraised as a unified literary movement Instead it embraces a wide range of different generic forms and the subjects under study in the essays in the book include the best selling work of Angeles Mastretta Elena Poniatowska and Laura Esquivel as well as the social and political preoccupations of journalists Rosanna Reguillo and Cristina Pacheco Contributors offer readings of the aesthetic visions of writers as diverse as Carmen Boullosa Ana Garc a Bergua and Eve Gil while other essays examine the nuances of contemporary gender identity in the work of Ana Clavel Sabina Berman Brianda Domecq and Mar a Luisa Puga There are essays devoted to poetry by indigenous Mayan women and an analysis of the complex place of poetry within the broader framework of literary production The problems that emerge as a result of literary cataloguing based on gender politics are also considered at length in a number of essays that take a panoramic view of literary production over the period. Various critical approaches are employed throughout and the collection as a whole demonstrates that academic interest in Mexican women's writing of the boom femenino is thriving. Above all, the essays here provide a space in which the location of women within prevailing cultural paradigms in Mexico and their role in the mapping of power in evolving textual canons may be interrogated. It is clear from the collection that interest in such issues is still alive and that the debate is far from over.

Lectoras Juan Domingo Argüelles, 2012-07-01. Diálogos de quince extraordinarias lectoras que son más que reveladores. A lo largo ya de muchos años y varios libros he venido reflexionando sobre el mundo del libro y la lectura. Pero nunca me había aventurado a entrar tan específicamente en el universo de las lectoras. Sin embargo sentí que no podía escribir acerca de ellas desde una perspectiva generalizada y decidí que ellas mismas hablaran. Estos diálogos con quince extraordinarias lectoras son más que reveladores y lo mejor es que las voces que más se escuchan son las de ellas: Elena Poniatowska, Sabina Berman, Margo Glantz, Mónica Lavín, Cristina Rivera Garza, Sara Sefchovich, Bárbara Jacobs, Carmen Villoro, Silvia Molina, Ethel Krauze, Carmen Boullosa, Martha Chapa, Dolores Castro, Beatriz Espejo. Who's who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane
