Architecture and Choreography Beth Weinstein, 2024-05-31 Architecture and Choreography Collaborations in Dance Space and Time examines the field of archichoreographic experiments unique interdisciplinary encounters and performed events generated through collaborations between architects and choreographers Forty case studies spanning four decades give evidence of the range of motivations for embarking on these creative endeavors and diverse conceptual underpinnings generative methods objects of inquiry and outcomes Architecture and Choreography builds histories and theories through which to examine these works the contexts within and processes through which the works emerged and the critical questions they raise about ways to work together sites and citations ethics and equity control and agency Three themes frame pairs of chapters The first addresses disciplinarity through works that critically reflect upon their discipline's tools, techniques and conventions juxtaposed against projects that cite or use other art forms and cultural phenomena as source material. The second interrogates space and the role of spatial dispositifs, institutions and sites and their hidden and not so hidden conditions as conceptual drivers and structures to subvert, trouble, unsettle, remember. The third asks who and what dances, finding a spectrum from mobilized architectural bodies to more than human cybarcorps. Modes of collaboration and the temporalities and life cycles of projects inform bookending chapters. Architecture and Choreography offers vital lessons not only for architects and choreographers but also for students and practitioners across design and performance fields. The Willow and the Spiral Roberto

Cantú, 2014-01-14 Octavio Paz (Mexico 1914-1998) was one of the foremost poets and essayists of the twentieth century. Read in translations into many of the world's languages, Paz received numerous awards and prizes during his lifetime, participated in major artistic and political movements of the twentieth century, served as Mexico's ambassador in India (1962-1968) and was the editor of Plural and Vuelta, two literary journals of prominent influence in Mexico, Latin America and Spain. In 1990, Paz was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature. This book of essays is a commemoration of Octavio Paz on the first centenary of his birth, a celebration undertaken with Paz's distinguishing legacy: criticism internationally inclusive and open to differing viewpoints. The Willow and the Spiral: Essays on Octavio Paz and the Poetic Imagination contains studies in English and in Spanish by top-ranking Paz scholars from various continents and wide-ranging literary traditions as well as by an emerging generation of critics who approach the work of Octavio Paz from diverse and recent theoretical methods. Specially written for this volume, the fourteen essays are in-depth studies of Paz's poetry and essays in relation to art, eroticism, literary history, politics, the art of translation and to Paz's life-long reflections on world cultures and civilizations as represented by China, France, India, Japan, the United States and among others, Mesoamerica. The essays range from new critical analyses of Piedra de sol, Sunstone and Blanco to studies of Renga, the haiku tradition and among other topics, Marcel Duchamp and the literary Avant Garde. This book will be of importance to Paz scholars, teachers, students and the general reader interested in Octavio Paz and in topics related to artistic, literary and cultural movements that shaped the twentieth century and that continue to inspire and steer artists and writers in the twenty-first century. Fifteenth-Century Studies Vol. 32 Arjo
