Sarna, 2002 Jews and the American Public Square is a study of how Jews have grappled with the presence of religion both their own and others in American public life It surveys historical Jewish approaches to church state relations and analyzes Jewish responses to the religion clauses of the First Amendment The book also explores how the contemporary sociological and political characteristics of American Jews bear on their understanding of the public dimensions of American religion In addition to a descriptive and analytic approach the volume is also critical and polemical Its contributors attack and defend prevailing views raise critical questions about the political and intellectual positions favored by American Jews and propose new syntheses This book captures the current mood of the Jewish community both committed to the separation of church and state and perplexed about its scope and application It provides the necessary background for a principled reconsideration of the problem of religion in the public square The Good-bye Window Harriet Brown, 1998-10-12 Have you ever wondered what really goes on at your child's day care center after you say good bye Harriet Brown did To satisfy her curiosity she spent an entire year observing Red Caboose a center in Madison Wisconsin This engaging and thought provoking book is the story of that year In her beautifully written personal account journalist and mother Brown takes us behind the scenes at a day care center that works At Red Caboose one of the oldest independent centers in the country we meet teachers who have worked with young children for more than twenty years We watch the child care union and parents struggle to negotiate a contract without ripping apart the fabric of trust and love that holds the Red Caboose community together We look at the center s finances to see what keeps Red Caboose going at a time when other good centers are disappearing Best of all we get to know the children families and teachers of Red Caboose their struggles their sorrows their triumphs Started twenty five years ago by a group of idealistic parents the center has not only survived but thrived through some pretty tough times In the world of day care Red Caboose is a special place a model for what child care in this country could and should be not just babysitting not just a service to working parents but a benefit for children families teachers and the community at large Brown sets her rich and engaging stories in the greater political and social context of our time Why is so much child care bad Why should working Americans worry about the link between welfare reform and child care What can we learn from the history of child care This book is a must read for parents educators and anyone who enjoys first rate writing and dead on insight into the lives of our youngest children and those who care for them Brown s writing is beautiful and her scholarship sound Students considering day care careers day care professionals and concerned parents will gain insight by reading this provocative book as will anyone who cares about the future of young children in this country Choice I admire enormously the ambition of this book its eagle eyed witness and engrossing detail plus the social importance of the project I wish there were in the world more books like it Lorrie Moore author of Who Will Run the Frog Hospital The Good bye Window is a fascinating peek into the secret world of children With the poignancy of Anne LaMott and the reportorial grace of Tracy Kidder Harriet Brown has written a terrific and worthwhile book Meg Wolitzer author of This Is Your Life Harriet Brown s well told story of the Red Caboose child care center should be read by teachers and parents but also by every legislator and politician in the land Only a writer as good as Ms Brown could display the dramatic complexities of a school community in which the youngest members enter crawling and emerge a few years later as articulate empathetic and well socialized individuals ready for the real world Vivian Gussin Paley author of The Boy Who Would Be a Helicopter

LITERATURE, GENDER, SPACE Beatriz Domínguez García, Sonia Villegas López, 2021-09-11 Perhaps the most serious challenge that the present volume offers to the latest literature on the topic is the reflection on gender space and literature from the perspective of masculinity a position which has been no doubt neglected by many years of feminist debate concentrating on women's positions and circumstances This is specifically one of the novelties that the International Conference on Gendered Spaces celebrated in May 2001 at the University of Huelva from which this work springs introduced The articles collected here constitute a selection of the most relevant contributions made at this Conference

The Microgenre Anne H. Stevens, Molly C. O'Donnell, 2020-01-23 Everybody knows and maybe even loves a microgenre Plague romances and mommy memoirs Nudie cutie movies Nazi zombies and dinosaur erotica Baby burlesks Minecraft fiction grindcore premature ejaculation poetry microgenres come in all varieties and turn up in every form of media under the sun tailor made for enthusiasts of all walks of life Coming into use in the last decade or so the term microgenre classifies increasingly niche marketed worlds in popular music fiction television and the Internet Netflix has recently highlighted our fascination with the ultra niche genre with hilariously specific classifications independent supernatural dramedy featuring a strong female lead that can sometimes hit a little too close to home Each contribution in this collection introduces readers to a different microgenre drawn from a range of historical periods and from a variety of media The Microgenre presents a previously untreated point of cultural curiosity revealing the profound truth that humanity's desire to classify is often only matched by the unsustainability of the obscure and hyper specific It also affirms in colorful detail what most people suspect but have trouble fathoming in an increasingly homogenized and commercial West that imaginative projects are just that imaginative diverse and sometimes completely and hilariously inexplicable

The Matrophobic Gothic and Its Legacy Deborah D. Rogers, 2007 Although in recent years maternity has become a contested site of political discourse the matrophobia that characterizes many mother daughter bonds has hardly been theorized This book defines matrophobia as fear of mothers as fear of becoming a mother and as fear of identification with and separation from the maternal body Deborah D Rogers argues that matrophobia is the central metaphor for women's relationships with each other within a patriarchal culture Analyzing different contexts in which matrophobia problematizes feminism this book begins with matrophobic discourse in eighteenth century England Significantly the self sacrificing construction of motherhood emerges at the same time as the novel a genre that develops as a locus for the radical displacement of matrophobia Coining the term Matrophobic Gothic to describe works in which inadequately mothered heroines reconcile with maternal figures that the narrative has repressed Rogers focuses on this phenomenon in the works of Ann Radcliffe and Jane Austen Her consideration of matrophobia extends to early modern male authored texts including Samuel Richardson's representation of maternity and Sir Walter Scott's exploration of gender roles and identity These issues continue unabated in televised serial drama All told this book powerfully argues for the necessity of confronting the matrophobia at the heart of feminism The Routledge Companion to Motherhood Lynn O'Brien Hallstein, Andrea O'Reilly, Melinda Giles, 2019-11-04 Interdisciplinary and intersectional in emphasis the Routledge Companion to Motherhood brings together essays on current intellectual themes issues and debates while also creating a foundation for future scholarship and study as the field of Motherhood Studies continues to develop globally This Routledge Companion is the first extensive collection on the wide ranging topics themes issues and debates that ground the intellectual work being done on motherhood Global in scope and including a range of disciplinary perspectives including anthropology literature communication studies sociology women's and gender studies history and economics this volume introduces the foundational topics and ideas in motherhood delineates the diversity and complexity of mothering and also stimulates dialogue among scholars and students approaching from divergent backgrounds and intellectual perspectives This will become a foundational text for academics in Women's and Gender Studies and interdisciplinary researchers interested in this important complex and rapidly growing topic Scholars of psychology sociology or public policy and activists in both university and workplace settings interested in motherhood and mothering will find it an invaluable guide This Book Is an Action Jaime Harker, Cecilia Konchar Farr, 2015-12-30 The Women's Liberation Movement held a foundational belief in the written word's power to incite social change In this new collection Jaime Harker and Cecilia Konchar Farr curate essays that reveal how second wave feminists embraced this potential with a vengeance The authors in This Book Is an Action investigate the dynamic print culture that emerged as the feminist movement reawakened in the late 1960s The works created by women shined a light on taboo topics and offered inspiring accounts of personal transformation Yet as the essayists reveal the texts represented something far greater a distinct and influential American literary renaissance On the one hand feminists took control of the process by building a network of publishers and distributors owned and operated by women On the other women writers threw off convention to venture into radical and experimental forms poetry and genre storytelling and in so doing created works that raised the consciousness of a generation Examining feminist print culture from its structures and systems to defining texts by Margaret Atwood and Alice Walker This Book Is an Action suggests untapped possibilities for the critical and aesthetic analysis of the diverse range of literary production during feminism's second wave Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy Motherhood Memoirs: Mothers Creating/Writing Lives Justine Dymond,2013-07-01 The authors in this collection examine and critique motherhood memoir alongside the texts of their own lives while seeking to transform mothering practice highlighting revolutionary praxis within books or when none is available creating new visions for social change Many essays interrogate the tensions of maternal narrative the negotiation of the historical location of writer and readers narrative and linguistic constraints and the slippery ground of memory as well as the borders constructed between the objective scholar and the reader who engages with and identifies with texts through her intellect and her emotional being The Quotable Jewish Woman Elaine Bernstein Partnow,2011-09-12 The words of Jewish women to inspire enlighten and enrich your life is the definitive collection of ideas reflections humor and wit by Jewish women Compiler Elaine Bernstein Partnow The Quotable Woman brings together the voices of over 300 women including women of the Bible actors poets humorists scientists and literary and political figures whose ideas activism service talent and labor have touched the world Quoted women include Bella Abzug Hannah Arendt Lauren Bacall Aviel Barclay Judy Blume Susan Brownmiller Judy Chicago Jennifer Connelly Gerty Theresa Cori Deborah Anita Diamant Phyllis Diller Delia Ephron Marcia Falk Dianne Feinstein Anne Frank Rosalind Franklin Anna Freud Betty Friedan Carol Gilligan Ruth Bader Ginsburg Rebecca Gratz Blu Greenberg Erica Jong Frida Kahlo Donna Karan Faye Kellerman Carole King Ann Landers Este Lauder Emma Lazarus Rosa Luxemburg Golda Meir Bette Midler Miriam Bess Myerson Cynthia Ozick Dorothy Parker Belva Plain Letty Cottin Pogrebin Ayn Rand Gilda Radner Adrienne Rich Joan Rivers Ethel Rosenberg Sandy Eisenberg Sasso Hannah Senesh Fanchon Shur Raven Snook Gertrude Stein Barbra Streisand Kerri Strug Henrietta Szold Barbara Tuchman Barbara Walters Dr Ruth Westheimer Naomi Wolf Rosalyn Yalow and many more From winners of Nobel Prizes and Oscars to lesser known but equally remarkable women from many countries and backgrounds this book is an inspirational gateway to the thoughts and lives of Jewish women both contemporary and ancient I Am My Mother's Daughter Iris Krasnow,2007-08-01 Iris Krasnow mother daughter and best selling Journalist tackles the toughest relationship in the lives of many grown women the mother daughter bond With women s life expectancy inching up past eighty you may be embroiled with your mother well past the time your own hair turns white The good news Living longer means more time to make peace and this book shows you how Drawing on her own experience with her colorful eighty four year old mother and the collective wisdom of more than one hundred other adult daughters Krasnow offers a fresh perspective on how to overcome the anger guilt and resentment that can destroy a family The time to repair the bond is now she reminds us You can t kiss and make up at her funeral The key is to let go of the fantasy mom and embrace the flesh and
