The Spinster and the Prophet Brian McKillop, 2011-11-30 Winner of the UBC Medal for Biography and shortlisted for the Drainie Taylor Biography Prize The prolific novelist and social prophet H G Wells had a way with words and usually he had his way with women That is until he encountered the feisty Toronto spinster Florence Deeks In 1925 Miss Deeks launched a 500 000 lawsuit against Wells claiming that in an act of literary piracy Wells had somehow come to use her manuscript history of the world in the writing of his international bestseller The Outline of History a work still in print today Thus began one of the most sensational and extraordinary cases in Anglo Canadian publishing and legal history In this riveting literary whodunit A B McKillop unfolds the parallel stories of two Edwardian figures and the ambition to capture the sweep of history that possessed them both H G Wells was the celebrated writer of autobiographical fiction and futuristic fantasy who at the end of the Great War preached the need for a global world order Florence Deeks was a modest teacher and amateur student of history who intended to correct traditional scholarship's neglect by writing an account of civilization that stressed the contributions of women Her manuscript was submitted to the venerable Macmillan Company in Canada but was rejected and never published Wells's opus completed in an astonishingly short period was released by the same firm in North America the year following As the mystery deepens and new evidence is revealed it seems that the verdict of the courts in Deeks vs Wells may not be that of history The cast of characters is as intriguing as it is wide in Canada the United States and England renowned publishers and editors eminent lawyers and judges leading journalists and all seeing office secretaries Not all it turns out merited their reputations Above all the tale embraces the lives of the philandering Mr Wells his wife and his mistresses and the scarcely noted Miss Florence Deeks her family her life's work and her search for justice Canada's Army J. L. Granatstein, 2011-01-01 Canada's Army traces the full three hundred year history of the Canadian military from its origins in New France to the Conquest the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812 from South Africa and the two World Wars to the Korean War and contemporary peacekeeping efforts and the War in Afghanistan Granatstein points to the inevitable continuation of armed conflict around the world and makes a compelling case for Canada to maintain properly equipped and professional armed forces pub desc The Other Quiet Revolution José E. Igartua, 2011-11-01 The Other Quiet Revolution traces the under examined cultural transformation woven through key developments in the formation of Canadian nationhood from the 1946 Citizenship Act and the 1956 Suez crisis to the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism 1963-70 and the adoption of the federal multiculturalism policy in 1971 Jos Igartua analyzes editorial opinion political rhetoric history textbooks and public opinion polls to show how Canada's self conception as a British country dissolved as struggles with bilingualism and biculturalism as well as Quebec's constitutional demands helped to fashion new representations of national identity in English speaking Canada based on the civic principle of equality Double-Takes David R. Jarraway, 2013-05-25 Over the past forty years Canadian literature has found its way to the silver screen with increasing regularity Beginning with the adaptation of Margaret Laurence's A Jest of God to the Hollywood film Rachel Rachel in 1966 Canadian writing would appear to have found a doubly successful life for itself at the movies from the critically acclaimed Kamouraska and The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz in the 1970s through to the award winning Love and Human Remains and The English Patient in the 1990s With the more recent notoriety surrounding the Oscar nominated Away from Her and the screen appearances of The Stone Angel and Fugitive Pieces this seems like an appropriate time for a collection of essays to reflect on the intersection between literary publication in Canada and its various screen transformations This volume discusses and debates several double edged issues the extent to which the literary artefact extends its artfulness to the film artefact the degree to which literary communities stand to gain or lose in contact with film communities and perhaps most of all the measure by which a viable relation between fiction and film can be said to exist in Canada and where that double life precisely manifests itself if at all This book is published in English

Constructing National Identity in Canadian and Australian Classrooms Stephen Jackson,2018-06-06 This book explores the evolution of Canadian and Australian national identities in the era of decolonization by evaluating educational policies in Ontario Canada and Victoria Australia Drawing on sources such as textbooks and curricula the book argues that Britishness a sense of imperial citizenship connecting white Anglo Saxons across the British Empire continued to be a crucial marker of national identity in both Australia and Canada until the late 1960s and early 1970s when educators in Ontario and Victoria abandoned Britishness in favor of multiculturalism Chapters explore how textbooks portrayed imperialism the close relationship between religious education and Britishness and efforts to end assimilationist Anglocentrism and promote equality in education The book contributes to British World scholarship by demonstrating how decolonization precipitated a massive search for identity in Ontario and Victoria that continues to challenge educators and policy makers today

Apostate Englishman Albert Braz,2015-09-18 In the 1930s Grey Owl was considered the foremost conservationist and nature writer in the world He owed his fame largely to his four
