about their life experiences If you know a fireman or policeman well enough you know that they can entertain for hours by relating their on the job experiences Even mundane occupations are settings for good stories Having worked at a telephone company for thirty two years I had my share of experiences I share them with my friends and family Sooner or later someone suggested writing a book Not a classic but rather one of those bathroom novels loaded with short stories Thats what you will find here However bizarre they are all true Of course the names were changed to protect my buddies and me who did and said some incredibly stupid and sometimes dangerous things In some cases the company policies and procedures I write about may not be depicted as they actually were Ive attempted to depict them as the field foremen technicians and I perceived them You will have many laughs and more than a few Ive been there moments along the way The telephone company wasnt my whole life so I threw in a few personal and family stories along the way Hopefully between work and home these stories will give you background on the real telephone company and also a seemingly directionless individual who was successful because of both

Even older readers will feel sweet nostalgia for their own childhood adventures.

Making Our Fun in the Good Old Days Ken Tate, Janice Tate, 2004. Back in the Good Old Days we were never bored. First it was not allowed, second we chose not to be. If we said that we were bored, our Mom gave us work to do. Our Life on the Run Marlin Keesler, 2005-10. Marlin Keesler entered his first marathon, never imagining that it would become the first leg of a six and a half year race across America that he and his family would embark on, one in which the benefits of travel would do far more for his two children afflicted with a rare learning disorder than any classroom could offer.
