Which Side Are You On? Elaine Harger, 2016-02-26 Shattering any idea that librarianship is a politically neutral realm this insider s account of seven debates from the floor of the American Library Association Council illustrates the mechanisms the governing body used to maintain the status quo on issues like racism government surveillance and climate change At play in each debate are rules of parliamentary procedure appeals to authority denial and chastisement of librarians who pushed the ALA to make real its commitments to human rights and social justice Providing a fascinating look at the Council's inner workings the author parses debates concerning anti apartheid boycotts partnerships between ALA McDonald's and the Boy Scouts of America spying by the National Security Agency censorship in Israel and the Occupied Territories fossil fuel industry divestment and the recent revival by ALA's Office of Intellectual Freedom of the infamous film The Speaker The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves, Ryo Watanabe, 2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region Proceedings of the Seventeenth Annual Conference of the Cognitive Science Society Cognitive Science Society (U.S.).
