La Frontiera:

Sessional Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1902 , U.S.A. , 1943 The Empire of Stereotypes R. Casillo, 2006-05-13 This book places Germaine de Stael's influential novel Corrine or Italy 1807 in relation to preceding and subsequent stereotypes of Italy as seen in the works of Northern European and American travel writers since the Renaissance

Ethnic Identity, Memory, and Use of the Past in Italy's 'Dark Ages' Luigi Andrea Bertò, 2022-06-01 This volume examines the Italian peninsula in the early Middle Ages by focusing on research fields such as ethnic identity memory and use of the past Particular attention is devoted to the way some authors were influenced by their own present in their reconstruction of the past The political and cultural fragmentation of Italy during the early Middle Ages created by the Lombards invasion of a part of the Peninsula in the late sixth century and early seventh century Charlemagne's conquest of a part of the Lombard Kingdom in 774 and by the weakening of the Byzantine Empire in the eighth and ninth centuries make this part of Europe a special area for exploring continuities and discontinuities between the Roman and the post Roman periods in Western Europe Across the volume Bertò examines the problems that the features of primary sources and their scarcity pose to their interpretations Ethnic Identity Memory and Use of the Past in Italy's Dark Ages is the ideal resource for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars interested in the relationship between Italy and Europe during the Middle Ages

The Boundless Sea Peregrine Horden, Nicholas Purcell, 2019-09-30 This volume brings together for the first time a collection of twelve articles written both jointly and individually by Peregrine Horden and Nicholas Purcell as they have participated in the debates generated by their major work The Corrupting Sea: A Study of Mediterranean History 2000 One theme in those debates has been how a comprehensive Mediterranean history can be written how an approach to Mediterranean history by way of its ecologies and the communications between them can be joined up with more mainstream forms of enquiry cultural social economic and political with their specific chronologies and turning points The second theme raises the question of how Mediterranean history can be fitted into a larger indeed global history It concerns the definition of the Mediterranean in space the way to characterise its frontiers and the relations between the region so defined and the other large spaces many of them oceans to which historians have increasingly turned for novel disciplinary cum geographical units of study A volume collecting the two authors' studies on both these themes as well as their reply to critics of The Corrupting Sea should prove invaluable to students and scholars from a number of disciplines ancient medieval and early modern history archaeology and social anthropology CS1083

Translanguaging and Epistemological Decentring in Higher Education and Research Heidi Bojsen, Petra

Daryai-Hansen, Anne Holmen, Karen Risager, 2023-01-13 Using data from multilingual settings in universities and adjacent learning contexts in East Asia North Africa Central and North America and Europe this book provides examples of the heuristic value of translanguaging and epistemological decentring Despite this and other theoretical and empirical work and ever stronger calls for the inclusion of other languages epistemologies and constructions of culture in higher education decentring and translanguaging practices are often relegated to the margins or suppressed in research and education because of the organisational structures of education institutions and prevailing language norms policies and ideologies The authors draw on research on pluri and multilingualism within education studies as well as post and decolonial theoretical contributions to the research on the role of language in education and knowledge production to provide evidence that decentring cannot happen until learners have been given the tools to identify which sorts of centring dynamics and conditions are salient to their learning and trans languaging

Early Medieval Venice Luigi Andrea Bertò, 2020-08-02 Early Medieval Venice examines the significant changes that Venice underwent between the late sixth and the early eleventh centuries From the periphery of the Byzantine Empire Venice acquired complete independence and emerged as the major power in the Adriatic area It also avoided absorption by neighbouring rulers prevented serious destruction by raiders and achieved a stable state organization all the while progressively extending its trading activities to most of northern Italy and the eastern Mediterranean This was not a linear process but the Venetians obtained and defended these results with great tenacity creating the foundations for the remarkable developments of the following centuries This book presents the most relevant themes that characterized Venice during this epoch including war violence and the manner in which others were perceived It examines how early medieval authors and modern scholars have portrayed this period and how they were sometimes influenced by their own present in their reconstruction of the past

Boundaries Peter Sahlins, 2023-04-28 This book is an account of two dimension of state and nation building in France and Spain since the seventeenth century the invention of a national boundary line and the making of Frenchmen and Spaniards It is also a history of Catalan rural society in the Cerdanya a valley in the eastern Pyrenees divided between Spain and France in 1659 This study shuttles between two levels between the center and the periphery It connects the macroscopic political and diplomatic history of France and Spain from the Old Regime monarchies to the national territorial states of the later nineteenth century and the molecular history the historical ethnography of Catalan village communities rural nobles and peasants in the borderland On the frontier these two histories come together and they can be told as one This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 This book is an account of two dimension of state and nation building in France and Spain since the seventeenth century the invention of a national boundary line and the making of Frenchmen and Spaniards It is also a history of Catalan rural society in Reflections on the Gulag Elena Dundovich,Francesca Gori,Emanuela Guercetti,2003 Studies in Mathematics and Mechanics Richard von Mises,2013-09-03 Studies in Mathematics and Mechanics is a collection of studies presented to Professor Richard von Mises as a token of reverence and appreciation on the occasion of his seventieth birthday which occurred on April 19 1953 von Mises thought has been a stimulus in many seemingly unconnected fields of mathematics science and philosophy to which he has contributed decisive results and new formulations of fundamental concepts The book contains 42 chapters organized into five parts Part I contains papers on algebra number theory and geometry These include a study of Poincaré's representation of a hyperbolic space on an Euclidean half space and elementary estimates for the least primitive root Part II on analysis includes papers on a generalization of Green's Formula and its application to the Cauchy problem for a hyperbolic equation and the fundamental solutions of a singular Beltrami operator Part III deals with theoretical mechanics and covers topics such as turbulent flow axially symmetric flow and oscillating wakes The papers in Part IV focus on applied mechanics These include studies on plastic flow under high stresses and the problem of inelastic thermal stresses Part V presents studies on probability and statistics including a finite frequency theory of probability and the problem of expansion of clusters of galaxies

Napoleon's Integration of Europe Stuart Woolf,2002-11-01 Histories of the Napoleonic period are almost exclusively biographies of the man or political military accounts of his wars But such wars were only the first stage in a far more ambitious programme the establishment of a rational state which would force the pace of modernising society Through an examination of the experiences of French domination Napoleon's Integration of Europe explores the implications of such a project for France and its relationship with the rest of Europe It examines the problems of ruling a progressively expanding empire as seen through the eyes of a trained corps of bureaucrats who were convinced that their scientific methods would enable them to understand and govern the mechanisms of society However it also looks at the populations subjected to French rule at the nature of their resistance and adaptation to the principles of the Napoleonic project This book is the first overall comparative study of Europe in the Napoleonic years It is a study not only of an early exercise in imperialism but of the conflict that is aroused between the rationalising tendencies of the modern state and the spatial and cultural heterogeneity of individual societies As well as a history of France it is also a history of Italy Germany Belgium Holland Switzerland Poland and Spain at a crucial moment in the history of each nation state
