La Jetee:

La Jetée Chris Darke, 2019-07-25 Chris Marker's La Jetée is 28 minutes long and almost entirely made up of black and white still images. Since its release in 1964, the film which Marker described as a photo novel has haunted generations of viewers and inspired writers, artists, and film makers. Its spiralling narrative of post nuclear war time travel narrative has influenced many other films including the Terminator series and Terry Gilliam's Hollywood remake Twelve Monkeys 1995. But as Marker rarely gave interviews, little is really known about the origins of La Jetée or the ideas behind it. In this groundbreaking study, Chris Darke draws on rare archival material including previously unpublished correspondence and production documents to examine the making of the film. He explores how Marker's only fiction film was influenced both by his early work as a writer and by Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo 1958 and considers how La Jetée's imagery can be seen to echo throughout Marker's extraordinarily diverse oeuvre. *Sur la Jetée.
