La Femme Cachee:

La femme cachee, and other stories Colette, 1979      French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De S vign and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H l _ne Cixous from Louise Labe to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition      Colette and the Conquest of Self Laurel Cummins, 2005      The Photograph Mary Price, 1997 This richly evocative study of photography has two major emphases that the language of description be it title caption or text is deeply implicated in how a viewer looks at photographs and that the use of a photograph determines its meaning      The Feminist Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori, 1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems French women continued writing through the ages their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived A few writers such as Marie de France George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon But critics mostly male had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer s awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers , The Intersecting Realities and Fictions of Virginia Woolf and Colette Helen Southworth,2004 What might the author of Mrs Dalloway and A Room of One s Own have in common with the author of the Claudine series and The Pure and the Impure Resisting long held interpretations that Colette and Virginia Woolf had little in common Southworth shows here the links between the two famous writers both real and imagined Often cast in their diametrically opposed roles of elitist bluestocking and risque music hall performer critics have overlooked the many ways in which the lives and works of Woolf and Colette intersect This study provides a broad ranging introduction to the biographical stylistic and thematic ties that link the lives and works of Britain s and France s first ladies of letters of the early twentieth century Situating the two writers within an international network of artists and literati including Jacques Emile Blanche Radclyffe Hall and Una Troubridge Winnie de Polignac Gisele Freund Sylvia Beach and Adrienne Monnier Vita Sackville West and Violet Trefusis this study complicates conceptions of the differences national sexual cultural and intellectual which have kept these two women apart by placing these same differences at its center Southworth develops work already undertaken on Woolf s contacts with France and adds to the body of comparative work on Woolf and her contemporaries This study also highlights as yet unexplored connections between Colette and her British and American peers Southworth s book makes a significant contribution to gay and lesbian studies and the study of modernist culture It also demonstrates the potential of social network theory for literary studies

OEuvres Complètes de H. de Balzac Honoré de Balzac,1877 L'autofiction dans l'œuvre de Colette Stéphanie Michineau,2008 Magritte Alex Danchev,2021-11-30 The first major biography of the pathbreaking perpetually influential surrealist artist and iconoclast whose inspiration can be seen in everyone from Jasper Johns to Beyonc by the celebrated biographer of C zanne and Braque In this thought provoking life of Ren Magritte 1898 1967 Alex Danchev makes a compelling case for Magritte as the single most significant purveyor of images to the modern world Magritte s surreal sensibility deadpan melodrama and fine tuned outrageousness have become an inescapable part of our visual landscape through such legendary works as The Treachery of Images Ceci n est pas une pipe and his celebrated iterations of Man in a Bowler Hat Danchev explores the path of this highly unconventional artist from his middle class Belgian beginnings to the years during which he led a small brilliant band of surrealists and famously clashed with Andr Breton to his first major retrospective which traveled to the United States in 1965 and gave rise to his international reputation Using 50 color images and more than 160 black and white illustrations Danchev delves deeply into Magritte s artistic development and the profound questions he raised in his work about the very nature of authenticity This is a vital biography for our time that plumbs the mystery of an iconoclast whose influence can be seen in everyone from Jasper Johns to Beyonc The Return to Ethics

Anthony Pym, 2016-04-22 If civilizations are to cooperate as well as clash our mediators must solve problems using serious thought about relations between Self and Other Translation Studies has thus returned to questions of ethics But this is no return to any prescriptive linguistics of equivalence As the articles in this volume show ethics is now a broadly contextual question dependent on practice in specific cultural locations and situational determinants It concerns people perhaps more than texts It involves representing dynamics seeking specific goals challenging established norms and bringing theory closer to historical practice The contributions to this volume study a wide range of translational activity questioning global copyright regimes denouncing exploitation within the translation profession defending a Bible translation in terms of multilateral loyalty and delving into the dynamics of popular genres the culture bubbles of talk shows the horrors of disaster relief in Turkey military interpreters in the Balkans and urgent political pleas from a Greek prison The theoretical approaches range from empirical text analysis to applications of fuzzy logic passing through a proposed Translator's Oath and converging in a common concern with cross cultural alterity

Women of the Left Bank Shari Benstock, 1986 Offers profiles of British and American expatriate women in Paris including Gertrude Stein Djuna Barnes H D Katherine Anne Porter and Edith Wharton

The Beribboned Bomb Robert James Belton, 1995 Surrealism was ostensibly directed at the emancipation of the human spirit but it represented only male aspirations and fantasies until a number of women artists began to redefine its agenda in the later 1930s This book addresses the former using a thick description of the historically specific circumstances which required the male Surrealists to manufacture a sexual reputation of narcissism and misogyny These circumstances were determined by hegemonic masculinity an ideological construct which had little to do with individual masculinities In male Surrealism the beribboned bomb signified something both attractive and volatile a specific instance of the Surrealist principle of convulsive beauty In hegemonic masculinity similar devices served as metaphors of the sexuality all men were supposed to possess The intersection of these two axes produced an imagery of unrepentant violence

Surrealist Collage in Text and Image Elza Adamowicz, 1998-05-28 A new analysis of Surrealist collage in France leading to a radical reassessment of Surrealism

The Film Photonovel Jan Baetens, 2019-04-15 Discarded by archivists and disregarded by scholars despite its cultural impact on post World War II Europe the film photonovel represents a unique crossroads This hybrid medium presented popular films in a magazine format that joined film stills or set pictures with captions and dialogue balloons to re create a cinematic story producing a tremendously popular blend of cinema and text that supported more than two dozen weekly or monthly publications Illuminating a long overlooked lowbrow medium with a significant social impact The Film Photonovel studies the history of the format as a hybrid of film novelizations drawn novels and nonfilm photonovels While the field of adaptation studies has tended to focus on literary adaptations this book explores how the juxtaposition of words and pictures functioned in this format and how page layout and photo cropping could affect reading Finally the book follows the film photonovel's brief history in Latin America and the United States Adding an important dimension to the interactions between filmmakers and their audiences this work fills a gap in the study of transnational movie culture

Time Regained Delia Ungureanu, 2021-10-07 Awarded the Tudor Vianu Prize for Literary and Cultural Theory by the National Museum of Romanian Literature Over the past 30 years the fields of world literature and world cinema have developed on parallel but largely separate tracks with little recognition of their underlying similarities and the ways that each can learn from the other Time Regained does not move from literature to cinema but exists simultaneously in both fields The 7 filmmakers selected here Andrei Tarkovsky Akira Kurosawa Martin Scorsese Ra l Ru z Wong Kar Wai Stephen Daldry and Paolo Sorrentino are themselves also writers or people with literary training and they produce a new type of world cinema thanks to their understanding of the world simultaneously through literature and film In the process their films produce new readings of literary texts that world literature studies wouldn't have been able to achieve with its own instruments Time Regained examines how filmmakers build on literature to reconfigure the world as a landscape of dreams and how they use film to reinvent the narrative techniques of the authors on whom they draw The selected filmmakers draw inspiration from French surrealists modernists Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf and Marguerite Yourcenar and predecessors such as Dante and Cao Xueqin In the process these filmmakers cross the borders between film and literature nation and world dream and reality History of the Surrealist Movement Gérard Durozoi, 2002 Tracing the movement from its
