and Oral Method of Teaching Languages; Adapted to the French L. Manesca,1856 Marginal Voices, Marginal Forms
,2023-11-27 Diaristic writing has often been relegated to the fringes of literary studies as a marginal cultural activity This volume seeks to challenge that marginality by exploring some of the wide ranging forms of literary practice encompassed by diaristic writing in Europe from the Renaissance to the present day The volume deals with questions of the value and status of the diary of the functioning of the diary in society and history and of the reception and interpretation of the multifarious forms of first person daily writing The volume investigates diaries across national borders and linguistic boundaries so as to make the hitherto marginal place of the private journal a site of fruitful interdisciplinary encounters Australian British Catalanian French German and Italian critics examine diaries dating from the sixteenth to the twentieth century within the context of the literature history and literary history of Catalonia England France Germany and Italy A prime concern of the essays in this collection is to highlight the cultural generic and historical diversity of the diary while emphasising the points of convergence between different texts and differing critical approaches to the texts The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of European and comparative literature
