Protesting with Rosa Parks John K. Bollard, 2025-08 Protesting with Rosa Parks details the history of the intersections between Black activism and travel over a span of one hundred and ninety years John K Bollard recounts the experiences of more than ninety five civil rights leaders and private citizens who protested against segregation on stagecoaches trains streetcars steamboats buses planes cars and even elevators people like David Ruggles John Lewis Sandra Bland and Tyre Nichols While recognizing the historical significance of Rosa Parks this book reveals her refusal to move as part of a long tradition of protest that strives to guarantee everyone the right to ride on our collective journey towards equality Women and the Everyday City Jessica Ellen Sewell, 2011 In Women and the Everyday City Jessica Ellen Sewell explores the lives of women in turn of the century San Francisco A period of transformation of both gender roles and American cities she shows how changes in the city affected women's ability to negotiate shifting gender norms as well as how women's increasing use of the city played a critical role in the campaign for women's suffrage Focusing on women's everyday use of streetcars shops restaurants and theaters Sewell reveals the impact of women on these public places what women did there which women went there and how these places were changed in response to women's presence Using the diaries of three women in San Francisco Annie Haskell Ella Lees Leigh and Mary Eugenia Pierce who wrote extensively on their everyday experiences Sewell studies their accounts of day trips to the city and combines them with memoirs newspapers maps photographs and her own observations of the buildings that exist today to build a sense of life in San Francisco at this pivotal point in history Working at the nexus of urban history architectural history and cultural geography Women and the Everyday City offers a revealing portrait of both a major American city during its early years and the women who shaped it and the country for generations to come Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board,1981 Women in Sports History Carol Osborne,Fiona Skillen,2014-06-03 Women are and have been for many years actively involved as players supporters and co ordinators in a range of sports and yet they are often missing from or sidelined in accounts of the history of these sports Commenting first on the lack of inclusion of women in British sports history the book goes on to examine aspects of women s participation between the late nineteenth century and the mid twentieth century more broadly It draws together some of the latest research undertaken by international scholars working in the field and includes case studies about golf bridge rowing figure skating and athletics Between them the chapters demonstrate that women enjoyed mixed fortunes in sport They positively highlight the scope of participation as well as the complex interactions and responses that participation generated on account of life stage social class ethnicity and national identity across time and place The incorporated methodological and theoretical approaches invite readers to reconsider existing sport historiography and point to new directions for future research This book was first published as a special issue of Sport in History Ladies' Lounge Kurtz Gordon,1948 Savoir Faire, Savoir Vivre Christopher McCreery,2014-12-20 A richly illustrated history of The Rideau Club which was founded 150 years ago by Sir John A Macdonald and Sir George E Cartier A highly accessible account of the Club s history and enduring place in the nation s capital and the story of its evolution with vignettes of how certain members made and continue to make it a very special place Cases Decided in the Court of Claims of the United States United States. Court of Claims,1934 Cases Decided in the Court of Claims of the United States at the ... with the Rules of Practice and the Acts of Congress Relating to the Court United States. Court of Claims,1933 Daring to Fly Lisa Millar,2021-09-01 The utterly inspirational story behind one of our country s most superb journalists To have played even the tiniest of roles in helping to ignite Lisa s early fire for journalism gives me more joy than she will ever know LISA WILKINSON Lisa Millar has spent her whole life showing up getting things done and making things happen As a child growing up in country Queensland she dreamed of a big life Working as a foreign correspondent gave her that but it also meant confronting the worst that humanity can bring Three decades as a journalist witnessing tragedy had a cost And an ever escalating fear of flying threatened to rob her of her ability to work at all For that young girl from small town Kilkivan who had to push herself to keep going push herself to conquer fear push herself to tell important stories finally came the realisation that sometimes all we really need is what we already have And she shows us that we are all stronger and more resilient than we give ourselves credit for if we just dare to let ourselves fly A heartfelt and intimate memoir recounted with a warmth and honesty Through Millar s eyes I saw the world anew yes filled with tragedy and sadness as so often it is but also with adventure and promise and friendship and joy WEEKEND AUSTRALIAN While this memoir charts how trauma manifests in the life of a foreign correspondent it is equally about Lisa Millar s determination to face her fears SATURDAY AGE

Designing Women Lucy Fischer,2003-07-30 Grand sensational and exotic Art Deco design was above all modern exemplifying the majesty and boundless potential of a newly industrialized world From department store window dressings to the illustrations in the Sears Roebuck Co catalogs to the glamorous pages of Vogue and Harper s Bazar Lucy Fischer documents the ubiquity of Art Deco in mainstream consumerism and its connection to the emergence of the New Woman in American society Fischer argues that Art Deco functioned as a trademark for popular notions of femininity during a time when women were widely considered to be the primary consumers in the average household and as the tactics of advertisers as well as the content of new magazines such as Good Housekeeping and the Woman s Home Companion increasingly catered to female buyers While reflecting the growing prestige of the modern woman Art Deco inspired consumerism helped shape the image of femininity that would dominate the American imagination for decades to come In films of the middle and late 1920s the Art Deco aesthetic was at its most radical Female stars such as Greta Garbo Joan Crawford and Myrna Loy donned sumptuous Art Deco fashions while the directors Cecil B DeMille Busby Berkeley Jacques Feyder and Fritz Lang created cinematic worlds that were veritable Deco extravaganzas But the style soon fell into decline and Fischer examines the attendant taming of the female role throughout the 1930s as a growing conservatism challenged the feminist advances of an earlier generation Progressively muted in films the Art Deco woman once an object of intense desire gradually regressed toward demeaning caricatures and pantomimes of unbridled sexuality Exploring the vision of American womanhood as it was portrayed in a large body of films and a variety of genres from the fashionable musicals of Josephine Baker and Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers to the fantastic settings of Metropolis The Wizard of Oz and Lost Horizon Fischer reveals America s long standing fascination with Art Deco the movement s iconic influence on cinematic expression and how its familiar style left an indelible mark on American culture

The Swing Around Barbara Anderson,2012-10-31 New Zealand twenty years ago when margarine was sold on prescription in pharmacies and protective tariffs ruled The Minister of Cultural Links and Trade an ex dairy farmer called Hamish Carew sets off on a Swing Around of New Zealand s Asian friends and neighbours With him are his wife Molly and two young officials Freddy Manders and Violet Redpath It should be a routine affair But Molly doesn t like shopping Freddy is consumed by bitterness at the wife who left him and the superiors who have sidelined his career Violet finds herself unexpectedly ready for romance and lurking on the horizon is the shadowy terrorist group Lightning Storm

The Last Curtain Call Juliet Blackwell,2020-06-30 A new ghoulish mystery from the New York Times bestselling author of A Ghostly Light featuring Mel Turner a ghost whispering contractor Mel Turner can t resist the chance to bring the

Crockett Theatre a decrepit San Francisco Art Deco movie palace back to life But there s a catch for Turner Construction Several artists are currently squatting in the building and they aren t the only ones haunting the once grand halls of the historic theater When one of the squatters is found dead the police department has a long list of suspects to investigate Meanwhile Mel and her fianc Landon are remodeling an old house for themselves and Mel finds being on the other side of a home renovation project more challenging than she expected When Mel discovers that the former owner of the Crockett Theatre died under mysterious circumstances and that there just might be a connection to the ghost haunting her own attic the case takes a new turn one that could bring down the curtain for the last time Cutting for All! Kevin L. Seligman,1996 Containing 2 729 entries Kevin L Seligman s bibliography concentrates on books manuals journals and catalogs covering a wide range of sartorial approaches over nearly five hundred years After a historical overview Seligman approaches his subject chronologically listing items by century through 1799 then by decade In this section he deals with works on flat patterning draping grading and tailoring techniques as well as on such related topics as accessories armor civil costumes clerical costumes dressmakers systems fur gloves leather military uniforms and undergarments Seligman then devotes a section to those American and English journals published for the professional tailor and dressmaker Here too he includes the related areas of fur and undergarments A section devoted to journal articles features selected articles from costume and noncostumerelated professional journals and periodicals The author breaks these articles down into three categories American English and other Seligman then devotes separate sections to other related areas providing alphabetical listings of books and professional journals for costume and dance dolls folk and national dress footwear millinery and wigmaking and hair A section devoted to commercial pattern companies periodicals and catalogs is followed by an appendix covering pattern companies publishers and publications In addition to full bibliographic notation Seligman provides a library call number and library location if that information is available The majority of the listings are annotated Each listing is coded for identification and cross referencing An author index a title index a subject index and a chronological index will guide readers to the material they want Seligman s historical review of the development of publications on the sartorial arts professional journals and the commercial paper pattern industry puts the bibliographical material into context An appendix provides a cross reference guide for research on American and English pattern companies publishers and publications Given the size and scope of the bibliography there is no other reference work even remotely like it New York Hotel Review ,1924
