John Waters FAQ Dale Sherman, 2019-04-15 For more than 50 years John Waters has been staging a coup against the good taste of the American public From the ultimate gross out in Pink Flamingos to the amazing general audience rating of his biggest hit Hairspray Waters has been subverting viewers expectations with comedies that stretch past the boundaries of even today s jaded audiences A provocateur of bad taste in a glorious way Waters started out as an outsider with a camera and a small circle of fellow delinquents In tearing down icons of the silver screen Waters would create his own that are used still by others in movies and television And that s only part of the tale John Waters FAQ looks at how a nice boy from the right side of the tracks would end up becoming a demon of society and the influences that drove his ambition in moviemaking Also featured are biographical information of the Dreamlanders the actors and crew members who would join Waters on his adventures in filmland over the years including Waters s best remembered find Divine Beyond chapters dedicated to the making of each of his films from Hag in a Black Leather Jacket to his most recent A Dirty Shame there are those covering his career as a writer and artist Also reviewed are his acting career in other people s television shows and movies over the years Water s interest in music and projects that never were to be John Waters FAQ covers it all in the career of a man who started out with a dream of becoming an underground filmmaker and became so much more

Stars Lucy Fischer, Marcia Landy, 2004 From two distinguished academics Stars The Film Reader brings together key writings and new perspectives on stars and stardom in cinema including coverage of stars and star systems from Europe and Asia as well as Hollywood such as Mario Lanza Oprah Winfrey and Roseanne Barr Including contributions from top scholars such as Richard Dyer the book addresses questions of production labour and circulation and examines neglected areas of study such as the Avant Garde star the non American stars and the question of ethnicity Grouped in thematic sections the articles explore key issues and developments in the study of stardom providing a comprehensive overview of stardom across the world and in different genres and media The Eccentropedia Chris Mikul,2012-10-02 An A Z of eccentrics 250 true stories of the most original and outrageous people on earth from bad poets to transsexual evolutionary theorists this encyclopedic guide covering ancient times to the present includes reams of material never seen in book form before Famous eccentrics like King Ludwig Salvador Dal and Howard Hughes rub shoulders with a host of lesser known but equally colorful characters in these mostly life affirming stories There are unsuspected parallels and connections throughout creating an alternative off kilter history of the world Our Lady of the Flowers Jean Genet,1994-01-12 The shattering novel of underground life the New York Times called a cry of rapture and horror the purest lyrical genius Jean Genet s debut novel Our Lady of the Flowers which is often considered to be his masterpiece was written entirely in the solitude of a prison cell A semi autobiographical account of one man s journey through the Paris demi monde dubbed the epic of masturbation by no less a figure than Jean Paul Sartre the novel s exceptional value lies in its exquisite ambiguity No Man's Land Sandra M. Gilbert,Susan Gubar,1996-02-21 How do writers and their readers imagine the future in a turbulent time of sex war and sex change And how have transformations of gender and genre affected literary representations of woman man family and society This final volume in Gilbert and Gubar s landmark three part No Man s Land The Place of the Woman Writer in the Twentieth Century argues that throughout the twentieth century women of letters have found themselves on a confusing cultural front and that most increasingly aware of the artifice of gender have dispatched missives recording some form of the future shock associated with profound changes in the roles and rules governing sexuality Divided into two parts Letters from the Front is chronological in organization with the first section focusing on such writers of the modernist period as Virginia Woolf Zora Neale Hurston Edna St Vincent Millay Marianne Moore and H D and the second devoted to authors who came to prominence after the Second World War including Gwendolyn Brooks Sylvia Plath Margaret Atwood Toni Morrison and A S Byatt Embroiled in the sex antagonism that Gilbert and Gubar traced in The War of the Words and in the sexual experimentations that they studied in Sexchanges all these artists struggled to envision the inscription of hitherto untold stories on what H D called the blank pages of the unwritten volume of the new Through the works of the first group Gilbert and Gubar focus in particular on the demise of any single normative definition of the feminine and the rise of masquerades of femininity amounting to female female impersonation In the writings of the second group the critics pay special attention to proliferating revisions of the family romance revisions significantly inflected by differences in race class and ethnicity and to the rise of masquerades of masculinity or male male impersonation Throughout Gilbert and Gubar discuss the impact on literature of such crucial historical events as the Harlem Renaissance the Second World War and the sexual revolution of the sixties What kind of future might such a past engender Their book concludes with a fantasia on The Further Adventures of Snow White in which their bravura retellings of the Grimm fairy tale illustrate ways in which future writing about gender might develop
