Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy, 2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century. It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come. Its coverage is global, an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication. The Encyclopedia presents new and ground-breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth-century arena. Coverage includes all the key people, processes, equipment, movements, styles, debates, and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool, creative medium, and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century. The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics, students, researchers, and libraries worldwide.

Women's Albums and Photography in Victorian England Patrizia Di Bello, 2017-07-05 This beautifully illustrated study recaptures the rich history of women photographers and image collectors in nineteenth-century England. Situating the practice of collecting, exchanging, and displaying photographs and other images in the context of feminine sociability, Patrizia Di Bello shows that albums express Victorian women's experience of modernity. The albums of individual women and the broader feminine culture of collecting and displaying images are examined, uncovering the cross-references and fertilizations between women's albums and illustrated periodicals and demonstrating the way albums and photography itself were represented in women's magazines, fashion plates, and popular novels. Bringing a sophisticated eye to overlooked images such as the family photograph, Di Bello not only illustrates their significance as historical documents but elucidates the visual rhetorics at play. In doing so, she identifies the connections between Victorian album-making and the work of modern-day amateurs and artists who use digital techniques to compile and decorate albums with Victorian-style borders and patterns. At a time when photographic album-making is being re-vitalised by digital technologies, this book rewrites the history of photographic albums, placing the female collector at its centre and offering an alternative history of photography focused on its uses rather than on its aesthetic or artistic considerations. It is remarkable in elegantly connecting the history of photography with the fields of material culture and women's studies.

Clementina, Lady Hawarden Virginia Dodier, 1999 Drawing inspiration from their dress-up boxes, the girls masqueraded in lavish costumes and acted out mysterious dramas for their mother's camera.

Photography of Victorian Scotland Roddy Simpson, 2012-09-03 This is the first book to provide a full and coherent introduction to the photography of Victorian Scotland. The material has been structured and the topics organised with appropriate illustrations as both a readable narrative and a foundation text for.

Illuminating the Dark Side: Evil, Women and the Feminine, 2020-09-25 Evil Women The Feminine The relationships that bring together these three ideas form the basis for the papers gathered together in this volume By asking how why when and to what purpose these three terms are often linked serves as the starting point of interrogation for each of the authors here considered

Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics Claire Raymond, 2017-04-21 Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics makes the case for a feminist aesthetics in photography by analysing key works of twenty two women photographers including cis and trans woman photographers Claire Raymond provides close readings of key photographs spanning the history of photography from nineteenth century Europe to twenty first century Africa and Asia She offers original interpretations of well known photographers such as Diane Arbus Sally Mann and Carrie Mae Weems analysing their work in relation to gender class and race The book also pays close attention to the way in which indigenous North Americans have been represented through photography and the ways in which contemporary Native American women photographers respond to this history Developing the argument that through aesthetic force emerges the truly political the book moves beyond polarization of the aesthetic and the cultural Instead photographic works are read for their subversive political and cultural force as it emerges through the aesthetics of the image This book is ideal for students of Photography Art History Art and Visual Culture and Gender

Doppelgangers, Alter Egos and Mirror Images in Western Art, 1840-2010 Mary D. Edwards, 2020-06-15 The notion of a person or even an object having a double has been explored in the visual arts for ages and in myriad ways portraying the body and its soul a woman gazing at her reflection in a pool or a man overwhelmed by his own shadow In this edited collection focusing on nineteenth and twentieth century western art scholars analyze doppelgangers alter egos mirror images double portraits and other pairings human and otherwise appearing in a large variety of artistic media Artists whose works are discussed at length include Richard Dadd Salvador Dali Egon Schiele Frida Kahlo the creators of Superman and Nicola Costantino among many others

Rethinking Professionalism Kristina Huneault, Janice Anderson, 2012-04-11 The history of women and art in Canada has often been celebrated as a story of progress from amateur to professional practice Rethinking Professionalism challenges this narrative by questioning the assumptions that underlie the category of artistic professionalism a construct as influential for artistic practice as it has been for art historical understanding Through a series of in depth studies contributors examine changes to the infrastructure of the art world that resulted from a powerful discourse of professionalization that emerged in the late nineteenth century While many women embraced this new model others fell by the wayside barred from professional status by virtue of their class their ethnicity or the very nature of the artworks they produced The richly illustrated essays in this collection depict the changing nature of the professional paradigm as it was experienced by women painters photographers craftspeople architects curators gallery directors and art teachers In so doing they demonstrate the ongoing power of feminist art history to disrupt patterns of thought that have become naturalized and accordingly invisible Going beyond the narratives of recovery or exclusion that the category of professionalism has traditionally encouraged Rethinking Professionalism explores the very consequences of telling the history of women's art in Canada through that lens Contributors include Annmarie Adams McGill University Alena Buis Queen's University Sherry Farrell Racette University of Manitoba Cynthia Hammond Concordia University Kristina Huneault Concordia University Loren Lerner Concordia University Lianne McTavish University of Alberta Kirk Niergarth Mount Royal University Mary O'Connor McMaster University Sandra Paikowsky Concordia University Ruth B Phillips Carleton University Jennifer Salahub Alberta College of Art Design and Anne Whitelaw Concordia University

Phantasmagoria Marina Warner, 2006 With over thirty illustrations in color and black and white Phantasmagoria takes readers on an intellectually exhilarating tour of ideas of spirit and soul in the modern world illuminating key questions of imagination and cognition Warner tells the unexpected and often disturbing story about shifts in thought about consciousness and the individual person from the first public waxworks portraits at the end of the eighteenth century to stories of hauntings possession and loss of self in modern times She probes the perceived distinctions between fantasy and deception and uncovers a host of spirit forms angels ghosts fairies revenants and zombies that are still actively present in contemporary culture

Algebraic Art Andrea K. Henderson, 2018 Algebraic Art explores the invention of a peculiarly Victorian account of the nature and value of aesthetic form and it traces that account to a surprising source mathematics Drawing on literature art and photography it explores how the Victorian mathematical conception of form still resonates today

Singular Women Kristen Frederickson, 2003-03-04 Contemporary art historians all of them women probe the dilemmas and complexities of writing about the woman artist past and present These 13 essays address the work and history of specific artists beginning with the Renaissance and ending with the present day

Creative Negativity Carol Hanbery MacKay, 2001 Focusing on the early Modern and Victorian periods the author finds covert revolutionaries in four familiar practitioners of a strategy she calls creative negativity poet photographer Julia Margaret Cameron 1815-1879 novelist essayist Anne Thackeray Ritchie 1837-1919 activist spiritual leader Annie Besant 1847-1933 and actress writer Elizabeth Robins 1862-1952

Thomas Annan of Glasgow Lionel Gossman, 2015-05-25 In the wake of Glasgow's transformation in the nineteenth century into an industrial powerhouse the Second City of the Empire a substantial part of the old town of Adam Smith degenerated into an overcrowded and disease-ridden slum The Old Closes and Streets of Glasgow Thomas Annan's photographic record of this central section of the city prior to its demolition in accordance with the City of Glasgow Improvements Act of 1866 is widely recognized as a classic of nineteenth-century documentary photography Annan's achievement as a photographer of paintings portraits and landscapes is less widely known Thomas Annan of Glasgow Pioneer of the Documentary Photograph offers a handy comprehensive and copiously illustrated overview of the full range of the photographer's work The book opens with a brief account of the immediate context of Annan's career as a photographer the astonishing florescence of photography in Victorian Scotland Successive chapters deal with each of the main fields of his activity touching along the way on issues such as the nineteenth century debate over the status of photography a mechanical practice or an artistic one and the still ongoing controversies surrounding the documentary photograph in particular While the text itself is intended for the general reader extensive endnotes amplify particular themes and offer guidance to readers interested in pursuing them further The Full-Length Mirror Wu Hung, 2022-11-28 Beautifully illustrated a stirring and wide ranging reflection on art technology culture and the full length mirror This book tells two stories about the full length mirror One story through time and space crisscrosses the globe to introduce a broad range of historical actors kings and slaves artists and writers merchants and craftsmen courtesans and commoners The other story explores the connections among objects painting and photography the full length mirror providing a new perspective on historical artifacts and their images in art and visual culture The Full Length Mirror represents a new kind of global art history in which global is understood in terms of both geography and visual medium a history encompassing Europe Asia and North America and spanning over two millennia from the fourth century BCE to the early twentieth century Art on Paper, 1999

Francesca Woodman and the Kantian Sublime Claire Raymond, 2017-07-05 In her feminist inquiry into aesthetics and the sublime Claire Raymond reinterprets the work of the American photographer Francesca Woodman 1958 1981 Placing Woodman in a lineage of women artists beginning with nineteenth century photographers Julia Margaret Cameron and Clementina Viscountess Hawarden Raymond compels a reconsideration of Woodman's achievement in light of the gender dynamics of the sublime Raymond argues that Woodman's photographs of decrepit architecture allegorically depict the dissolution of the frame a dissolution Derrida links to theories of the sublime in Kant's Critique of Judgement Woodman's self portraits Raymond contends test the parameters of the gaze a reading that departs from the many analyses of Woodman's work that emphasize her dramatic biography Woodman is here revealed as a conceptually sophisticated artist whose deployment of allegory and allusion engages a broader debate about Enlightenment aesthetics and the sublime Chinese Art and Dynastic Time Wu Hung, 2022-05-03 A sweeping look at Chinese art across the millennia that upends traditional perspectives and offers new pathways for art history Throughout Chinese history dynastic time the organization of history through the lens of successive dynasties has been the dominant mode of narrating the story of Chinese art even though there has been little examination of this concept in discourse and practice until now Chinese Art and Dynastic Time uncovers how the development of Chinese art was described in its original cultural sociopolitical and artistic contexts and how these narratives were interwoven with contemporaneous artistic creation In doing so leading art historian Wu Hung opens up new pathways for the consideration of not only Chinese art but also the whole of art history Wu Hung brings together ten case studies ranging from the third millennium BCE to the early twentieth century CE and spanning ritual and religious art painting sculpture the built environment and popular art in order to examine the deep rooted patterns in the historical conceptualization of Chinese art Elucidating the changing notions of dynastic time in various contexts he also challenges the preoccupation with this concept as the default mode in art historical writing This critical investigation of dynastic time thus constitutes an essential foundation to pursue new narrative and interpretative frameworks in thinking about art history Remarkable for the sweep and scope of its arguments and lucid style Chinese Art and Dynastic Time probes the roots of the collective imagination in Chinese art and frees us from long held perspectives on how this art should be understood Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC

FMR ,1999      Photography, Curation, Criticism Liz Wells,2023-07-31 This unique collection brings together the work of photography writer curator and lecturer Liz Wells reflecting on key themes of landscape place nationhood and environmental concerns A newly written introductory chapter contextualizes the collection This is followed by an in conversation with Martha Langford Concordia University Montreal that brings together two leading figures in the field to respond to Wells thought and the themes that emerge in her writings The essays included in this anthology draw on work from a variety of sources including artists photobooks exhibition catalogues magazines academic books and journals Seventeen previously published articles organized thematically in relation to Curation and Residency Phenomena Place and Critical Reflections demonstrate Wells critical and curatorial approach to research through photographic practices reflecting a core view of art at its best operating to convey the implications of what is being explored and to evoke responses that are simultaneously sensory and intellectual This collection will be essential reading for students and scholars of photography visual culture and art history especially those examining landscape and environmental photography
