Chew on this says Melrose Plant to Richard Jury who s in the hospital being driven crazy by Hannibal a nurse who likes to speculate on his chances for survival Jury could use a good story preferably one not ending with his own demise Plant tells Jury of something he overheard in The Grave Maurice a pub near the hospital A woman told an intriguing story about a girl named Nell Ryder granddaughter to the owner of the Ryder Stud Farm in Cambridgeshire who went missing more than a year before and has never been found What is especially interesting to Plant is that Nell is also the daughter of Jury s surgeon But Nell s disappearance isn t the only mystery at the Ryder farm A woman has been found dead on the track a woman who was a stranger even to the Ryders But not to Plant She s the woman he saw in The Grave Maurice Together with Jury Nell s family and the Cambridgeshire police Plant embarks on a search to find Nell and bring her home But is there more to their mission than just restoring a fifteen year old girl to her family The Grave Maurice is the eighteenth entry in the Richard Jury series and from its pastoral opening to its calamitous end is full of the same suspense and humor that devoted readers expect from Martha Grimes We Do Know How James T. Riordan,2014-09-24 An insider with practical experience in development work reveals how understanding market realities can more effectively reduce poverty This book by a practitioner not an academic government official or pundit has been written for practitioners and offers fresh thinking on how to do international development work It combines that thinking with practical guidance in plain English on what to do and perhaps just as importantly what not to do on the ground We Do Know How takes buzzwords commonly used in development circles demand driven results oriented accountability and others and makes them real spelling out a proven approach for expanding business sales and generating jobs for poor people Although government has a role to play in development in the end the actions of businesses drive economic growth and expand people s incomes We Do Know How shows how to build on the incentives that drive businesses and in the process create jobs for the poor Specifically it urges development practitioners to support only those business opportunities for which there is market demand abiding by the maxim produce what you can sell not sell what you produce More than that it cautions practitioners not to become solutions looking for problems but to search creatively for ways to solve the specific problems that stand most in the way of clients meeting buyers requirements We Do Know How challenges much conventional wisdom on how to do development work At the same time and in contrast to other books on development it shows how by maintaining focus and discipline development practitioners can deliver demonstrable increases in jobs for those who need them The Way of All Fish Martha
