The Land and People of Cambodia David Porter Chandler, 1991 Introduces the history geography people culture government and economy of Cambodia Lands and Peoples ,1954 Land and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding Jon Unruh, Rhodri Williams, 2013-07-18 Claims to land and territory are often a cause of conflict and land issues present some of the most contentious problems for post conflict peacebuilding Among the land related problems that emerge during and after conflict are the exploitation of land based resources in the absence of authority the disintegration of property rights and institutions the territorial effect of battlefield gains and losses and population displacement In the wake of violent conflict reconstitution of a viable land rights system is crucial an effective post conflict land policy can foster economic recovery help restore the rule of law and strengthen political stability But the reestablishment of land ownership land use and access rights for individuals and communities is often complicated and problematic and poor land policies can lead to renewed tensions In twenty one chapters by twenty five authors this book considers experiences with and approaches to post conflict land issues in seventeen countries and in varied social and geographic settings Highlighting key concepts that are important for understanding how to address land rights in the wake of armed conflict the book provides a theoretical and practical framework for policy makers researchers practitioners and students Land and Post Conflict Peacebuilding is part of a global initiative to identify and analyze lessons in post conflict peacebuilding and natural resource management The project has generated six edited books of case studies and analyses with contributions from practitioners policy makers and researchers Other books in the series address high value resources water livelihoods assessing and restoring resources and governance

Lands and Peoples of the World ,1957 Human Rights in Eastern Civilisations Surya P. Subedi, 2021-03-26 Based on the author's first hand experience as a UN Special Rapporteur this thought provoking and original book examines the values of Eastern civilisations and their contribution to the development of the UN Human Rights agenda Rejecting the argument based on Asian Values that is often used to undermine the universality of human rights the book argues that secularism personal liberty and universalism are at the heart of both Hindu and Buddhist traditions State of the World's

Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2013 Beth Walker, 2013-09-24 In almost every country in the world minorities and indigenous peoples suffer greater ill health and receive poorer quality of care than other segments of the population They die younger face higher rates of disease and struggle more to access health services compared to the rest of the population This year's edition of State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples presents a global picture of the health issues experienced by minorities and indigenous communities features country profiles and case studies and makes recommendations for addressing these key issues Human Security and Cross-Border Cooperation in East Asia

Carolina G. Hernandez, Eun Mee Kim, Yoichi Mine, Ren Xiao, 2018-09-01 This book takes up a wide variety of human security challenges beyond the dimension of human conflict and looks at both natural and human disasters that the East Asian region faces or is attempting to resolve While discussing various human security issues the case studies offer practical lessons to address serious human security challenges in the framework of the ASEAN Plus Three and beyond Against the backdrop of multifaceted globalization and parochial reactions thereto this book is a powerful contribution to universal human security

Grassroots Responses

to Extractivism Samuel Leguizamon Grant, Felix Mantz, Mariko Frame, 2025-01-23 This volume makes visible the many innovative resistances and solutions emanating from the Global South in response to the injustices of the current global ecological crises Rooted in contemporary ecological imperialism these crises are subjecting marginalized communities in the Global South to the worst socio ecological repercussions worldwide whilst mainstream environmental policies and solutions reproduce market based approaches premised on a hegemonic Western world view The book details a wide variety of case studies from across Asia Africa and the Americas such as deforestation activism in Cambodia and grassroots community organisation against large scale land transactions in Liberia among many others The contributors composed of a mix of academics and activists propose bottom up solutions to the current ecological and climate crises This work highlights how anti capitalist anti colonial and anti anthropocentric alternatives and movements are realistic holistic and appropriate in the face of global ecological crises

Pluralist Constitutions in Southeast Asia Jaclyn L Neo, Ngoc Son Bui, 2019-04-04 This book examines the presence of ethnic religious political and ideational pluralities in Southeast Asian societies and how their respective constitutions respond to these pluralities Countries covered in this book are Brunei Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam The chapters examine first the range of pluralist constitutional values and ideas embodied in the constitutions secondly the pluralist sources of constitutional norms thirdly the design of constitutional structures responding to various pluralities and fourthly the construction and interpretation of bills of rights in response to existing pluralities The pluralist constitution is thus one that recognises internal pluralities within society and makes arrangements to accommodate rather than eliminate these pluralities

State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2011 Joanna Hoare, 2011-07-06 In the year that saw the establishment of UN Women the new United Nations entity for gender equality and women s empowerment minority and indigenous women continued to face violence discrimination and marginalization stemming both from their identity as women and as members of disadvantaged minority groups In Latin America despite the election of women as heads of state in several countries African descendant and indigenous women remain virtually invisible in public and political life They are also the population group that has borne the brunt of armed conflict in the region subjected to rape and sexual violence As elsewhere they have little hope of redress against those who assaulted them In Europe and Oceania migrant women face economic and social marginalization and are often unable to access support services because of their immigration status leaving them trapped in abusive relationships In 2010 women belonging to Muslim minorities in the global North choosing to wear the face veil also faced increasing pressure with bans under discussion in many countries In the Middle East and Africa minority and indigenous women continue to be subjected to religious and customary legal systems that deny them their rights while Iraqi refugee women many of whom belong to religious minorities elsewhere in the Middle East are increasingly vulnerable to trafficking and sexual exploitation In Asia sexual violence against women has again been used as a weapon against minority women while land seizures are resulting in further economic marginalization of indigenous groups This year's edition of State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples presents an overview of the situation of minority and indigenous women today and includes Discussions of gender based violence and armed conflict including the violence that indigenous and minority women experience within their own communities and the difficulties that they face in accessing justice and support from outside Consideration of the lack of progress made towards achieving the Millennium Development Goals for minority and indigenous women with special focus on reproductive rights and maternal mortality Interviews and special reports on trafficking intersectional discrimination land seizures and women's political representation Overviews of the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples in every major world region Peoples Under Threat 2011 MRG's unique statistical analysis and ranking of countries An invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples around the world
