McGrath prolific author and respected professor at King's College of London paints a definitive portrait of the life of C S Lewis After thoroughly examining recently published Lewis correspondence Alister challenges some of the previously held beliefs about the exact timing of Lewis's shift from atheism to theism and then to Christianity He paints a portrait of an eccentric thinker who became an inspiring though reluctant prophet for our times You won't want to miss this fascinating portrait of a creative genius who inspired generations

Green Gospel John Gatta, 2024-03-05 An evocative investigation of ecotheology's first principles Green Gospel will serve as antidote to the spiritual devastations of the climate crisis As climate change continues to ravage our planetary home deepening the divide between Earth and her stewards church and unchurched seekers alike are casting about for a spirituality that focuses on the natural world Just in time Green Gospel opens a window into the developing realm of ecotheology defining foundational principles and outlining how these tenets can be lived out through worship and individual practice To help readers connect with otherwise challenging concepts Gatta's Green Gospel draws on illustrative examples from literary works and liturgical texts to transport readers through these artistic portals to a world lit up by God's grace Designed for parish reading groups or individual study this encompassing yet compact introductory text unites the theological framework of the green movement with spiritual practice setting forth a comprehensive vision that moves all the way from first principles of Christian doctrine to the practical consequences of today's pressing environmental issues Inside Narnia Devin Brown, 2005-09 Insightful and thorough Inside Narnia will dig deeper into Lewis's magical world to reveal biblical truths that often go uncovered C. S. Lewis and the Inklings Jason Fisher, Mark Hall, Salwa Khoddam, 2015-09-18 This is a unique collection of two of the Inklings and their literary associates' views on the negative impacts of technology in various areas of life and the resolution of these impacts through fellowship with others and faith in the Creator. Some of these essays offer suggestions on how ensnarement by social media and surrender to modern technology can be countered by surrender to God. Other essays also demonstrate how the significant literary craft of these authors can enchant readers and invite them into fairylands from which they return empowered and with a keener spiritual vision to tackle universal and present concerns Do You Believe? William E. Marsh, 2020-10-11 We all believe. Be it in love, God, Santa Claus, or the workings of an internal combustion engine, we all believe in something. After all, we're only human. Belief, however, is hardly black and white. It's one thing to believe in things we can see. It's quite another to believe in things we cannot. And another task altogether to trust in things we cannot see. Like God, Faith isn't easy. But it's us, we're finite beings. Faith recognizes our limits; it acknowledges life's ambiguity. And it counters these with its understanding of what is most true: God. This book is a story about faith. It's a story of learning to trust in a supernatural God in a material world. It's a meditation on living with as philosopher Søren Kierkegaard put it: objective uncertainty. It's a tale of learning to live with an invisible God.
