Leeds Memories:

Memories of 1968 Ingo Cornils, Sarah Waters, 2010 Some years figure more keenly in the collective memory than others This volume explores how 1968 has come to be perceived in France Germany Italy U S Mexico China how various national preoccupations with order political violence individual freedom youth culture self expression have been reflected

Connecting Histories Gemma Romain, 2013-10-28 First published in 2006 The dynamics of ethnicity diaspora identity and community are the defining features of contemporary life giving rise to important and exciting new interdisciplinary fields of study and literature on subjects that were previously seen as the exclusive domain of the social sciences Connecting Histories is an important contribution to this trend While using sociological and anthropological theories it is an innovative historical and comparative assessment of ethnic identities and memories Romain focuses on Afro Caribbean and Jewish individuals and groups investigating the ways in which communities remember their experiences Memories of the Future John Francis

King, 2018-11-25 Memories of the future is a flash fiction style construction of memories and life writing London

Memories Charles William Heckethorn, 1900 Concentrationary Memories Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2015-08-25 Concentrationary Memories has as its premise the idea at the heart of Alain Resnais's film Night and Fog 1955 that the concentrationary plague unleashed on the world by the Nazis in the 1930s and 1940s is not simply confined to one place and one time but is now a permanent presence shadowing modern life It further suggests that memory and indeed art in general must be invoked to show this haunting of the present by this menacing past so that we can read for the signs of terror and counter its deformation of the human Through working with political and cultural theory on readings of film art photographic and literary practices Concentrationary Memories analyses different cultural responses to concentrationary terror in different sites in the post war period ranging from Auschwitz to Argentina These readings show how those involved in the cultural production of memories of the horror of totalitarianism sought to find forms languages and image systems which could make sense of and resist the post war condition in which as Hannah Arendt famously stated everything is possible and human beings as human beings become superfluous Authors include Nicholas Chare Isabelle de le Court Thomas Elsaesser Benjamin Hannavy Cousen Matthew John Claire Launchbury Sylvie Lindeperg Laura Malosetti Costa Griselda Pollock Max Silverman Glenn Sujo Annette Wieviorka and John Wolfe Ackerman Goodison Memories Steve Zoczek, 2022-04-11

Goodison Park is one of British sport's most fabled venues the home of Everton FC since 1892 and one of the last traditional football amphitheatres It has witnessed highs and lows and been graced by the likes of Dixie Dean Tommy Lawton Alan Ball Bob Latchford Gary Lineker Pele and Eusebio As the Toffees prepare to move to the waterfront Goodison Memories celebrates that legendary stadium with vivid recollections not from Evertonians but from opposition players managers officials and sports journalists The result is a collection of candid interviews that capture the essence of Goodison Park Listen to their tales of the Everton players they remember with fondness priceless anecdotes and memories of the atmosphere and features of the stadium Have you ever wondered what it was like for the broadcasters to sit on the TV gantry the press to work from the press box What was it like for match officials to take charge of the game and handle the characters on the Goodison turf Goodison Memories holds all the answers Trauma, Precarity and War Memories in Asian American Writings Jade Tsui-yu Lee,2020-10-01 Departing from Jacques Derrida's appropriations of cinders as a trope of war atrocity aftermath this book examines writings that deal with war trauma memories in Asian American communities Seeing war experiences and their associative diasporas and affects as the core and axis it considers the multifarious poetics and politics of minority trauma writings and posits a possible interpretive framework for contemporary Asian American writings including those written by Julie Otsuka Joseph Craig Danner Monique Truong Nguyen Viet Thanh Janice Lowe Shinebourne and Andre Lamontagne As these writings contain works regarding Japanese American Indo Chinese Guyanese Chinese Quebecois Vietnamese exiles refugees and Vietnam American experiences this book presents a broad cross cultural view on migration and minority issues triggered by wars and precarious conditions as the diversified experiences examined here epitomize an intricate historical intimacy across four continents Asia the Americas Africa and Europe Prescriptive Memories in Grief and Loss Nancy Gershman,Barbara E. Thompson,2018-12-21 Prescriptive Memories in Grief and Loss The Art of Dreamscaping introduces a wide range of therapists to a novel strengths based and imaginal practice for helping clients at various points on the grief and loss continuum Grounded in recent empirical research on how the emotional brain encodes new memories this book describes how to create a resource rich prescriptive memory Chapters by internationally recognized authors explore the theory and application of dreamscaping from a transdisciplinary perspective including protocols for use with individuals and groups and guidelines for collaboration with other therapists and professionals Illustrated with full color dreamscape images co created by clients and therapists this is an exciting and innovative guidebook to a new method for cultivating hope and promoting restoration and growth Queer beyond London Matt Cook,Alison Oram,2022-06-28 When it comes to queer British history London has stolen the limelight But what about the millions of queer lives lived elsewhere In Queer beyond London two leading LGBTQ historians take you on a journey through four English cities from the sixties to the noughties exploring the northern post industrial heartlands and taking in the salty air of the seaside cities of the South Covering the bohemian artsy world of Brighton the semi hidden queer life of military Plymouth the lesbian activism of Leeds and the cutting edge dance and drag scenes of Manchester they show how local people places and politics shaped LGBTQ life in each city forging vibrant and distinctive queer cultures of their own Using pioneering community histories from each place and including the voices of queer people who have made their lives there the book tells local stories at the heart of our national history Science of Memory Henry L. Roediger III,Yadin Dudai,Susan M. Fitzpatrick,2007-04-26 Scientists currently study memory from many different perspectives neurobiological ethological animal conditioning cognitive behavioral neuroscience social and cultural The aim of this book is to help initiate a new science of memory by bringing these perspectives together to create a unified understanding of the topic The book began with a conference where leading practitioners from all these major approaches met to analyze and discuss 16 concepts that are crucial to our understanding of memory Each of these 16 concepts is addressed in a section of the book and in the 66 succinct chapters that fill these sections a leading researcher addresses the section's concept by clearly stating his or her position on it elucidating how it is used and discussing how it should be used in future research For some concepts there is general agreement among practitioners from different fields and levels of analysis but for others there is general disagreement and much controversy A final chapter in each section also written by a leading researcher integrates the various viewpoints offered on the section's concept then draws conclusions about the concept This groundbreaking volume will be an indispensable reference for all the students and researchers who will build upon the foundation it provides for the new science of memory

Tourism and Memories of Home Sabine Marschall, 2017-02-03 This book investigates home and homeland as destinations of touristic journeys and adds to recent scholarly interest in the intersection between tourism and migration It covers the temporary visits and journeys in search of home and homelands by migrants displaced people exiles and diasporic communities in a wide range of different geographical and historical contexts Personal and collective forms of memory are shown to play a key role in the motivation for and experience of such journeys The volume contributes to the investigation of the tourism memory nexus as it conceptualizes memory as underpinning touristic mobility experience and performativity Based on ethnographic case studies and other types of qualitative empirical research the chapters of this book foreground individual touristic experiences emotions memories perceptions the search for identity and a sense of belonging The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of tourism heritage anthropology identity studies memory studies and migration diaspora studies
