The past moves quickly into the present when Gordon begins to search for his biological family. His dreams evoke questions which lead to more questions until a powerful vision sets him on a path laid out for him nearly a hundred years earlier. The thought of moving back to her childhood home in the idyllic town of Cape May, New Jersey, to assess her future is a daunting proposal. It is in that sleepy shore town that she must reconnect with her abusive father. Now ailing, he has handed over control of the family business, a failing small theater, as a possible means for a fresh start. However, Janie is uncertain as to what his true motives might be. Alec Ryan, a handsome former intern of her father's and now a successful Broadway producer and director, arrives from New York carrying his own tumultuous past with plans to assist Janie in restoring the theater to its former glory. Along the way, Alec discovers qualities in Janie that prove she is more than just her diagnosis and resolves to help restore Janie as well as simultaneously putting his own demons to rest and learning to love again. But when the small town gossip mill begins to buzz about Alec and a piece of jewelry left by her mother is revealed, Janie learns of a secret that may take things in another direction, could change the course of her life forever.
