Legally Blind And Living:

Legally Blind and Living Craig S. Freeman, 2004-04-05 In the Spring of 1960 Craig S Freeman survived the miscarriage of a twin sibling From the miscarriage Craig s eyes did not develop properly and he was born with 20/200 vision legally blind Craig grew up in Asheboro North Carolina where he discovered the challenge of living with a visual impairment After trying to hide his visual impairment and live as a sighted man with 20/20 vision for forty years Craig realized that he was not being honest with himself for a visual impairment does not define who he is but it is part of who he is and should be embraced and dealt with openly What he has come to understand is that he has been given a wonderful life and he must live it for and by what he is If Blindness Strikes--don't Strike Out Margaret M. Smith, 1984 Living Proof Yvette Cabrera, 2017-04-27

Living Proof is a real insightful honest and yet strongly informative story of how a young womans personal experiences through the U S public education system equipped her with the knowledge and tools that would unknowingly lead her later in life to recognize an issue of discrimination resulting in the dissonance between the disabled and general populations Where it has now lead her to embark on the road of sharing her story with YOU by writing this book to promote more awareness in regard to the lack of inclusiveness From an early age as she dealt with her physical disability specifically visual impairment she always had to adapt to each new situation as it came For the most part she remained to keep herself optimistic and live her life as ordinarily as possible This book provides an original module that teaches and suggests how one can begin to bridge the gap at any time in reaching inclusiveness It centers on the importance of self advocacy through the importance of self awareness Foreseen as anything but ordinary to most Living Proof gives way for individuals with and without disabilities to see how ones life is just as ordinary as another even if it may not seem like it Currently as an entrepreneur Ms Cabrera is a dedicated disability consultant and life coach compassionately bringing forth techniques and understanding to both the disabled and general populations in reaching inclusiveness on a personal and professional level The Living Church, 1963

Living with a Brother or Sister with Special Needs Donald Meyer, Patricia F. Vadasy, 2014-02-01 Living with a Brother or Sister with Special Needs focuses on the intensity of emotions that brothers and sisters experience when they have a sibling with special needs and the hard questions they ask What caused my sibling s disability Could my own child have a disability as well What will happen to my brother or sister if my parents die Written for young readers the book discusses specific disabilities in easy to understand terms It talks about the good and not so good parts of having a brother or sister who has special needs and offers suggestions for how to make life easier for everyone in the family The book is a wonderful resource not just for siblings and their parents but also for teachers and other professionals who work with children with special needs This revised and updated edition includes new sections on attention deficit hyperactivity disorder fetal alcohol syndrome fragile X syndrome traumatic brain injuries ultrasound speech therapy recent legislation on disabilities and an extensive bibliography Sarah Starts Living Gina Medvedz, 2015-07-31 For eighteen years Sarah has been a devoted wife and doting mother When her only child leaves for college Sarah wonders how she will spend her days But when her husband announces that he is leaving too Sarah is forced to reexamine everything that she holds to be true On a dare from her best friend Sarah agrees to listen to God and do what He suggests Following signs that she interprets as divine she winds up in a convent in Connecticut on a mission in West Virginia and in a metaphysical bookstore in Pennsylvania Learning lessons along the way that shift her belief in the nature of God and her mindset about herself for the first time in her forty five years Sarah Starts Living

Meeting the Needs of Blind and Visually Impaired Older Americans ,1992 Thriving Through Life'S Storms Nina Vera-Vida,2013-02-15 Have you ever wondered if youll have the strength to face and overcome all of your lifes countless hardships Are you tired of being tired anxious and worried Does fulfillment seem like a farfetched dream If you see more of yourself than you like in these questions dont despair What could be a life changing experience awaits in Thriving through Lifes Storms Nina Vera Vidas escape from war torn Bosnia at seven was just the beginning of a life filled with hardships Nina endured dehumanizing deprivation and abuse as well as the loss of her sight to a brain tumor But what makes Nina a true survivor is that she never gave up She created a path to rise above it all to inspire others She developed coping mechanisms to minimize the pain and subsequent scars What she has since realized is that there are two types of barriers to happiness External hardships are often random caused by things people or circumstances beyond our control Internal hardships on the other hand are self inflicted As we wrap ourselves in the veil of denial we obscure the hardship triggers making these internal hardships hard to detect If you are ready to face down your enemies both internal and external as Nina has a new life of fulfillment freedom and success can be yours The ascent wont always be effortless but it will be worth it We stop living when we give up when we let lifes hardships make us feel helplessly stuck in the abyss of stagnation and discontent Keep in mind Ninas motivation for writing this book never give up
