Rosa,2014-08-31 The Massie Kahahawai case of 1931 1932 shook the Territory of Hawai i to its very core Thalia Massie a young Navy wife alleged that she had been kidnapped and raped by some Hawaiian boys in Waik k A few days later five young men stood accused of her rape Mishandling of evidence and contradictory testimony led to a mistrial but before a second trial could be convened one of the accused Horace Ida was kidnapped and beaten by a group of Navy men and a second Joseph Kahahawai lay dead from a gunshot wound Thalia's husband Thomas Massie her mother Grace Fortescue and two Navy men were convicted of the lesser charge of manslaughter despite witnesses who saw them kidnap Kahahawai and the later discovery of his body in Massie's car Under pressure from Congress and the Navy territorial governor Lawrence McCully Judd commuted their sentences After spending only an hour in the governor's office at Iolani Palace the four were set free Local Story is a close examination of how Native Hawaiians Asian immigrants and others responded to challenges posed by the military and federal government during the case's investigation and aftermath In addition to providing a concise account of events as they unfolded the book shows how this historical narrative has been told and retold in later decades to affirm a local identity among descendants of working class Native Hawaiians Asians and others in fact this understanding of the term local in the islands dates from the Massie Kahahawai case It looks at the racial and sexual tensions in pre World War II Hawai'i that kept local men and white women apart and at the uneasy relationship between federal and military officials and territorial administrators Lastly it examines the revival of interest in the case in the last few decades true crime accounts a fictionalized TV mini series and most recently a play and a documentary all spurring the formation of new collective memories about the Massie Kahahawai case reminiscent of García Márquez's Love in the Time of Cholera Winner of the 2020 Hurston Wright Legacy Award for Fiction A Tall History of Sugar is a gift for grown up fans of fairy tales and those who love fiction that metes out hard and surprising truths Forbes's writing combines the gale force imagination of Margaret Atwood with the lyrical pointillism of Toni Morrison New York Times Book Review Editors' Choice A Tall History of Sugar tells the story of Moshe Fisher a man who was born without skin so that no one is able to tell what race he belongs to and Arrienne Christie his quixotic soul mate who makes it her duty in life to protect Moshe from the social and emotional consequences of his strange appearance The narrative begins with Moshe's birth in the late 1950s four years before Jamaica's independence from colonial rule and ends in the era of what Forbes calls the fall of empire the era of Brexit and Donald Trump The historical trajectory layers but never overwhelms the scintillating love story as the pair fight to establish their own view of loving against the moral force of the colonial plantation and its legacies that continue to affect their lives and the lives of those around them Written in lyrical luminous prose that spans the range of Jamaican Englishes this remarkable story follows the couple's mysterious love affair from childhood to adulthood from the haunted environs of rural Jamaica to the city of Kingston and then to England another haunted locale in Forbes's rendition
