his inculcated desire to success and his quest for connection to develop rudimentary social skills via sometimes painful sometimes exultant trial and error The text traces the author s repeated separation new school upheavals highlighting his seventh grade emotional collapse at Lincoln Middle School following a triumphant graduation from Roosevelt Elementary School during which his parents felt vindicated his therapists expressed proud amazement and he successfully hid those aspects that belied it all The story continues with the author s discovery of adult versus adolescent worlds and his renewed commitment to academic and personal success which he expands in yet another new school with yet another unsettling set of new faces and circumstances The book notes the new backdrop against which the author s soaring popularity plays out his mother s declining health and father s advanced age both contributing to the family s bankruptcy and his now total refutation of any earlier difficulties or diagnoses The latter chapters of the book trail the author through his slightly delayed puberty and discovery of girls his growing physical albeit not emotional or psychological detachment from his mother and his abrupt entry into the full time adult world They illustrate his youthful manhood his swift climb through two companies while barely attending college and his ultimate life changing life affirming decisions to cast off his mother s expectation of law school earn a Masters in Business Administration MBA and open his own company with a partner at age twenty two His triumph over his autistic beginnings is complete except for those areas where it is not The book s final chapters describe the author s serial often overlapping relationships that provide only superficial connection transitory comfort and stress relieving sex The transcript ends on a quizzical note after the author finally accepts his original diagnosis reevaluates his recent and continuing issues and looks confidently to the future with a sense of rejuvenation and optimism At 40 600 words AM I STILL AUTISTIC presents an illuminating candid and fascinating glimpse into the mind and spirit of the autistic child the wrenching journey out of that private world and the challenges and satisfactions of rising above those beginnings A must read for anyone who lives or works with autistic children it offers comfort to parents insight to therapists and inspiration to those facing long reaching choices AM I STILL AUTISTIC will be a mainstay on bookshelves for decades Softly, With Feeling
