Map Link Catalog ,2005      Worldly Consumers Genevieve Carlton,2015-06-22 Though the practical value of maps during the sixteenth century is well documented their personal and cultural importance has been relatively underexamined In Worldly Consumers Genevieve Carlton explores the growing availability of maps to private consumers during the Italian Renaissance and shows how map acquisition and display became central tools for constructing personal identity and impressing one's peers Drawing on a variety of sixteenth century sources including household inventories epigrams dedications catalogs travel books and advice manuals Worldly Consumers studies how individuals displayed different maps in their homes as deliberate acts of self fashioning One citizen decorated with maps of Bruges Holland Flanders and Amsterdam to remind visitors of his military prowess for example while another hung maps of cities where his ancestors fought or governed in homage to his auspicious family history Renaissance Italians turned domestic spaces into a microcosm of larger geographical places to craft cosmopolitan erudite identities for themselves creating a new class of consumers who drew cultural capital from maps of the time

Illustration Index VII: 1987-1991 Marsha C. Appel,1993-06-01 This seventh volume of the Illustration Index is entirely new and covers the years 1987 1991 It follows the patterns of scope style and arrangement set in volumes IV through VI Over 19 000 individual subject headings encompassing about 28 000 entries attest to the depth of indexing Entries tend toward the specific and there are extensive cross references and multiple listings for most illustrations Indexed to provide a cross cultural perspective There is a major emphasis in historical and socio cultural phenomena Though not claiming to be totally comprehensive the only illustrations methodically excluded are ads Individual personalities are included provided that they are considered of sufficient historical significance to warrant a separate article in the World Book Encyclopedia The rationale for this criterion is the fact that photos of people enjoying ephemeral fame abound and can easily be located through the periodical indexes Reviews from previous volumes an absolute must for anyone working with the public and periodicals LIBRARY JOURNAL a serviceable functional index worth purchasing REFERENCE BOOKS BULLETIN This continuation of a highly successful index series is a valuable addition to any reference collection ARBA A very useful index which can benefit the casual user as well as the advanced researcher Highly recommended for libraries with picture files and for those with general periodical collections ARBA sui generis as a source for locating pictures WILSON LIBRARY BULLETIN

Tourist Clusters, Destinations and Competitiveness Francesco Capone, 2015-12-14 Tourism has become one of the largest and fastest growing sectors in the world economy Increasingly research on tourism destinations has been at the centre of debates concerning destination competitiveness governance policies and destination management and marketing This book investigates tourist destinations from two different perspectives First it approaches destinations using the concept of tourist clusters and investigates their role in competitiveness and firm performances The second perspective studies the development of models of competitiveness and governance It also develops an international benchmarking system of 15 EU countries with an additional focus on Italy UK and United States The book will appeal to academics scholars and practitioners in tourism studies management urban and regional studies and economic geography etc
