Hansberry's Drama Steven R. Carter, 1991 This insightful study opens with an overview of Hansberry's cultural social political and philosophical views and their relations to her artistic goals Lena Horne Donald Bogle, 2023-10-31 From Donald Bogle the award winning author of Hollywood Black and leading authority on Black cinema history this is a first of its kind comprehensive and lavish biography of Hollywood's first African American movie goddess Lena Horne's life and career are truly remarkable in American film history She was the first Black performer to become a true star to receive the kind of glamour treatment at the fabled MGM that the studio had previously given to the likes of Greta Garbo Jean Harlow Lana Turner and Ava Gardner At the same time Horne dealt with endless indignities not the least of which was the fact that her roles in films was often as a musical performer which allowed her numbers to be easily stripped out of films without affecting the narrative when played to audiences that would find her presence undesirable At long last Lena Horne Goddess Reclaimed gives the star her due Through a highly informed and insightful narrative based on interviews press accounts studio archives and decades of research the book sheds new light on the star's compelling life and complicated career her activism her accomplishments and heady triumphs in movies television and nightclubs as she broke down long standing barriers for Black individuals especially Black women and her solemn sometimes bitter disappointments both professional and personal Illustrated by stunning photos some published for the first time this is the ultimate book on the icon

Neo-segregation Narratives Brian Norman, 2010-01-01 This study of what Brian Norman terms a neo segregation narrative tradition examines literary depictions of life under Jim Crow that were written well after the civil rights movement From Toni Morrison's first novel The Bluest Eye to bestselling black fiction of the 1980s to a string of recent work by black and nonblack authors and artists Jim Crow haunts the post civil rights imagination Norman traces a neo segregation narrative tradition one that developed in tandem with neo slave narratives by which writers return to a moment of stark de jure segregation to address contemporary concerns about national identity and the persistence of racial divides These writers upset dominant national narratives of achieved equality portraying what are often more elusive racial divisions in what some would call a postracial present Norman examines works by black writers such as Lorraine Hansberry Toni Morrison Alice Walker David Bradley Wesley Brown Suzan Lori Parks and Colson Whitehead films by Spike Lee and other cultural works that engage in debates about gender Black Power blackface minstrelsy literary history and whiteness and ethnicity Norman also shows that multiethnic writers such as Sherman Alexie and Tom Spanbauer use Jim Crow as a reference point extending the tradition of William Faulkner's representations of the segregated South and John Howard Griffin's notorious account of crossing the color line from white to black in his 1961 work Black Like Me A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1995-04-01 Under the editorship of the late Robert Nemiroff with a provocative and thoughtful introduction by preeminent African American scholar Margaret B Wilkerson and a commentary by Spike Lee this completely restored screenplay is the accurate and authoritative edition of Lorraine Hansberry's script and a testament to her unparalleled accomplishment as a Black artist The 1961 film version of A Raisin in the Sun with a screenplay by the author Lorraine Hansberry won an award at the Cannes Film Festival even though one third of the actual screenplay Hansberry had written had been cut out The film did essentially bring Hansberry's extraordinary play to the screen but it failed to fulfill her cinematic vision Now with this landmark edition of Lorraine Hansberry's original script for the movie of A Raisin in the Sun that audiences never viewed readers have at hand an epic eloquent work capturing not only the life and dreams of a Black family but the Chicago and the society that surround and shape them Important changes in dialogue and exterior shots a stunning shift of focus to her male protagonist and a dramatic rewriting of the final scene show us an artist who understood and used the cinematic medium to transform a stage play into a different art form a profound and powerful film Folks Lena Knew Winnie Dowden Wyatt, 2011-02-22 Lena a ten year old girl has to leave a drought stricken West Texas ranch for the orange groves of South Texas There she sees and learns about wet backs and their continuing role in the U S When she moves back to the ranch she meets the dot com millionaire who has bought it Lena finds them to have much in common composing the patchwork of her life and of America
