Poetry and the Realm of the Public Intellectual Karen Patricia Peña, 2007 In this study we see how Gabriela Mistral travels to Mexico and finds the countryside a way to declare her own queer identity many years later we find her re imagining a frightening feminine space where she contests the terrible fate of Greek heroines In Cecilia Meireles we discover a writer at odds with her femininity who declares herself androgynous Like Mistral she too travelled extensively and we see her arguing against the wealth of capitalism and industrialization when she travels to the United States in 1940

Rosario Castellanos straightforwardly argues for women's procreative rights in almost all of her poetry. And in an illuminating re-reading of Mistral, Castellanos allows the shadow of her predecessor to vocalize the tragedies of the inability to control woman's reproductive choices. Book jacket
