

The background of the book cover is a painting of a shipwrecked vessel, possibly a submarine or a small ship, lying on a sandy beach. The ship is dark and heavily damaged, with its hull and internal structures exposed. The painting is in a realistic style with visible brushstrokes. The sky is a mix of green and blue, suggesting a hazy or overcast day. The overall tone is somber and historical.

Goebbels 1941 propaganda campaign to present Germany's invasion of the USSR as a battle for European civilization against Asian barbarism convinced many men in occupied Germanic European countries such as Scandinavia and the Low Countries to volunteer to fight on the Russian Front. One of the strongest national legions of such a kind was raised in the Netherlands where it was supported by a large pro-Nazi movement led by Anton Mussert. The 3 000 man Netherlands Volunteer Legion fought on the Leningrad front in regimental strength from the Red Army's winter 1941/42 counter-offensive until April 1943. The survivors were then reinforced to form a 5 500 strong Panzergrenadier Brigade and after anti-partisan service in Croatia they returned to Army Group North as part of Steiner's III SS Panzer Korps fighting in the most arduous battles of 1943/44 until driven back into Pomerania. In the final months of the war the division formed the nucleus of the new 23rd SS Volunteer Panzergrenadier Division Nederland. In this illustrated study of the Dutch Waffen-SS Legion and Brigade specialist Massimiliano Afiero explores the full history of this important formation from its establishment in 1941 until it was incorporated into the Nederland Division in 1944. Contemporary photographs and full colour illustrations support the text and reveal key details including aspects of uniform and insignia      Hitlers Krieg im Osten 1941-1945 Rolf-Dieter Müller, Gerd R.
