Inventing a Voice Molly Meijer Wertheimer, 2004 Inventing a Voice is a comprehensive work on the lives and communication of twentieth century first ladies Using a rhetorical framework the contributors look at the speaking writing media coverage and interaction and visual rhetoric of American first ladies from Ida Saxton McKinley to Laura Bush The women s rhetorical devices varied some practiced a rhetoric without words while others issued press releases gave speeches and met with various constituencies All used interpersonal or social rhetoric to support their husbands relationships with world leaders party officials boosters and the public Featuring an extensive introduction and chapter on the First Lady as a Site of American Womanhood Wertheimer has gathered a collection that includes the post White House musings of many first ladies capturing their reflections on public expectations and perceived restrictions on their communication Civil War Stories from the Buffalo Trace James R. Columbia, 2015-03-25 The Buffalo Trace area Mason Bracken Fleming Robertson Lewis counties in northeastern Kentucky and Adams Brown Clermont counties in southwestern Ohio occupies a unique place in Civil War history On the borders of North South East and West Slave Free Union Confederate emotions ran high in a conflict that became known as The Brothers War as families and communities chose sides As we observe the 150th anniversary of the end of this armed conflict it makes sense to reflect on how our ancestors thought and acted during this crucial time in our national history Their involvement might surprise you Over 650 contemporary articles from local and national newspapers illustrate this local history and serve to remind us of our ancestors opinions choices and sacrifices 356 pages American First Ladies Lewis L. Gould, 2014-02-04 This volume presents thirty nine interpretive biographical essays on all first ladies from Martha Washington to America s newest First Lady Laura Bush This new edition contains updated material on all the living First Ladies and updated bibliographies for each entry as well as a portrait of the newest First Lady

The Depression Dilemmas of Rural Iowa, 1929-1933 Lisa L. Ossian, 2012-01-01 To many rural Iowans the stock market crash on New York s Wall Street in October 1929 seemed an event far removed from their lives even though the effects of the crash became all too real throughout the state From 1929 to 1933 the enthusiastic faith that most Iowans had in Iowan President Herbert Hoover was transformed into bitter disappointment with the federal government As a result Iowans directly questioned their leadership at the state county and community levels with a renewed spirit to salvage family farms demonstrating the uniqueness of Iowa s rural life Beginning with an overview of the state during 1929 Lisa L Ossian describes Iowa s particular rural dilemmas evoking through anecdotes and examples the economic nutritional familial cultural industrial criminal legal and political challenges that engaged the people of the state The following chapters analyze life during the early Depression new prescriptions for children s health creative housekeeping to stretch resources the use of farm playlets to communicate new information creatively and memorably the demise of the soft coal mining industry increased violence within the landscape and the movement to end Prohibition The challenges faced in the early Great Depression years between 1929 and 1933 encouraged resourcefulness rather than passivity creativity rather than resignation and community rather than hopelessness Of particular interest is the role of women within the rural landscape as much of the increased daily work fell to farm women during this time While the women addressed this work simply as making do Ossian shows that their resourcefulness entailed complex planning essential for families emotional and physical health Ossian s epilogue takes readers into the Iowa of today dominated by industrial agriculture and asks the reader to consider if this model that stemmed from Depression era innovation is sustainable Her rich rural history not only helps readers understand the particular forces at work that shaped the social and physical landscape of the past but also traces how these landscapes have continued in various forms for almost eighty years into this century The Ladies of the White House

Laura Carter Holloway, 1880 The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp, 1998 Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level
