The Mystery of Death Ladislaus Boros, 2020-04-21 What precisely happens at the time of death is a question that theologians have struggled over for centuries but have never answered satisfactorily The response to this question that Ladislaus Boros gives in his monumental synthesis The Mystery of Death is that in death we meet Christ fully for the first time and in doing so attain to full consciousness and freedom It is therefore only in the moment of death than humans are able to elect for or against their eternal salvation In other words death is a kind of judgment day but it is we ourselves who pass judgment on ourselves In her introduction and commentary Cynthia Bourgeault argues passionately that Ladislaus Boros represents a necessary link to understanding the radical theology of Teilhard de Chardin She presents Boros as a powerful potential bridgebuilder Standing firmly on the shoulders of his celebrated Jesuit mentor Karl Rahner and highly skilled in the scholastic discourse that Teilhard himself eschewed he is able to mediate an illuminating dialogue between Teilhard and the greater Christian theological tradition not as is so often the case in so much of contemporary Teilhardian scholarship by secularizing Teilhard's thought or draping it in current evolutionary jargon but by piercing to the very marrow of Teilhard's Christic mysticism and carrying it to an even more brilliant degree of spiritual luminosity The Critic, 1973

The Month, 1974 National Union Catalog, 1978 Everyday Prayer for Feasts and Seasons Ronald Claud Dudley Jasper, 1978 The Last Things Regis Martin, 1998-01-01 While much of the world remains in neurotic flight from death from the Judgment that ineluctably follows it is vital to the vocation of the Christian that he face unflinchingly the Last Things including that eternity of joy or woe awaiting every man born into this world How will we face the end On whom does our hope finally rest What are the very Last Things ever to be remembered These and other breath catching questions are examined in this book whose pages abound with insight and imagery drawn from the rich patrimony of the Church's wisdom Here is a fresh compendium of the thought of saints and sages as disparate as Augustine Aquinas Dante Newman Hopkins Eliot Lewis James Joyce and Flannery O'Connor who adorn the pages of this literary theological look at Death Judgment Heaven Hell Here then is a complete canvassing of the Last Things whose understanding remains fixed on Christ and his Church thus awakening that sense of hope on which we depend in our journey home to God Book Review Index, 1985 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Transforming Our Human Forms Into Christ's Paul Engoulou Nsong, 2012 Are you puzzled by the nature and system of Aidan Nichols's theological contribution Are you looking for a way to renew your appreciation for Nichols's theological activity Do you want to clarify your understanding of Nichols's anthropological view Father Engoulou Paul discusses these and many others interesting matters in this book He carefully analyzes the different layers on which Nichols posits his philosophical and theological principles of order He explains historically each foundational step from which Nichols draws his public doctrine of man and God He arrives at the conclusion that man arrives at a self knowledge and the knowledge of God to the extent that he makes use of practical liturgical and rational concepts and forms aspects of worship Of the many after effects of sexual abuse spiritual wounds are the least talked about yet they are central to adult survivors who seek to heal and find faith and meaning in their lives With grace and gentleness this book seeks to answer survivors spiritual questions and address some of the common misconceptions that often develop when young victims attempt to understand what has happened to them Healing the Ravaged Soul explores the origins of their spiritual issues with clear psychological insights and guides survivors on a spiritual journey toward healing wholeness and a deeper relationship with God
